Deuteronomy 8:1-5

By Albert Ng, August 11, 2024

Be careful to follow every command I am giving you today, so that you may live and increase and may enter and possess the land the Lord promised on oath to your ancestors. Remember how the Lord your God led you all the way in the wilderness these forty years, to humble and test you in order to know what was in your heart, whether or not you would keep His commands. He humbled you, causing you to hunger and then feeding you with manna, which neither you nor your ancestors had known, to teach you that man does not live on bread alone but on every word that comes from the mouth of the Lord. Your clothes did not wear out and your feet did not swell during these forty years. Know then in your heart that as a man disciplines his son, so the Lord your God disciplines you.

Deuteronomy 8:1-5 NIV

Yet you, Lord, are our Father. We are the clay, you are the potter; we are all the work of your hand.

Isaiah 64:8 NIV

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

1. Can you recall an event in your past that you will label as an “Ebenezer moment”?
2. Are you going through some difficult times now? Without knowing all the details and how things may turn out, what do you think God is teaching you? How do you want to respond to the situation?
