Exodus 15:1-21

Sing!

1. Pastor Kyler explains that singing is both a natural and supernatural phenomenon. How does the uniqueness of Christian worship through singing set it apart from other religions, and why does God command us to sing?
2. The sermon emphasizes singing 'with others' and 'for others.' Why is corporate worship through singing so important for the Christian community?
3. What specific steps could you take to better engage in corporate worship and encourage others through your participation in singing?
4. Looking at Exodus 15, what makes the Song of Moses significant in biblical history, and why does it continue to be relevant for Christians today?
5. Pastor Kyler mentions that singing can be a powerful tool for theological education. How can we use singing to strengthen our understanding of Scripture and pass on faith to future generations?
6. How does knowing that believers will sing this song in heaven change your perspective on worship?
