Exodus 20:4-6

The Second Commandment

1. Why is it dangerous when our concept of God aligns perfectly with our personal beliefs and preferences? When have you seen this happen in your own life?
2. Why does the pastor emphasize that 'we do not make God, God makes us,' and what are the implications of getting this backward?
3. In what ways might you be trying to 'make' God fit your life rather than allowing Him to shape you?
4. How can modern churches fall into the trap of worshiping the true God in false ways? What aspects of modern church culture might be more focused on serving our preferences rather than serving God?
5. What does it mean that God is 'jealous,' and why is this different from human jealousy? How should God's holy jealousy for His people influence our commitment and loyalty to Him?
