Exodus 35

He is Lord of All

Clint Pressley

1. In the sermon, the Sabbath's importance as a sign of God's people was emphasized. What does it look like for you to "rest in Christ" today? How does regular worship and rest re-center your life under Jesus' lordship?
2. Pastor Clint described gathering for worship as a "visible, weekly proof" of belonging to God's covenant people. How does your participation in corporate worship impact your faith and witness? Are there rhythms or habits you want to cultivate to make Christ's lordship more visible in your life?
3. The sermon stressed that giving of both possessions and skills should be done willingly and joyfully, not coerced. What motivates your generosity?
4. Exodus 35 highlights people using their specific skills for God's work. How do you see your abilities or gifts fitting into God's purposes for the church? Are there talents you feel called to offer more fully?
5. Pastor Clint repeatedly noted that God is "Lord of our affections." What are some ways we can ask God to deepen our love for Him and align our desires with His will? What might be competing for your heart's affection right now?
6. Pastor Clint reminded us that our service and giving flow from God's grace, not to earn His favor. How does this truth challenge or comfort you in your walk with Christ? Where are you tempted to "earn" instead of resting in the finished work of Jesus?
7. The sermon invited both personal repentance and renewed fellowship. Is there an area in your life where you sense a need for renewal? How can we pray for and support each other in responding to God's call?
