Matthew 20:25-28

25 But Jesus called them to him and said, “You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. 26 It shall not be so among you. But whoever would be great among you must be your servant, 27 and whoever would be first among you must be your slave, 28 even as the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

A high-angle, top-down photograph of a group of people sitting in a circle on a light-colored, textured stone floor. They are all holding and reading open books. The people are dressed in casual to semi-formal attire, including jeans, trousers, and blouses. The lighting is soft and even, highlighting the texture of the floor and the pages of the books. The overall mood is one of quiet study and community.
