

WELCOME

to Bethel Lutheran Church!

We are so glad to have you with us on this third Sunday after Pentecost. Today we remind ourselves that as followers of Jesus, we are called to do some very difficult things – perhaps the most difficult is being kind and respectful to those with whom we disagree, those who have hurt us, and those who we deem unworthy of our respect. The good news is that it's never too late to be the kind of people that Jesus calls us to be! We can start today!

*You are invited to stand, as you are able.

All who believe in Jesus as Lord and Savior are welcome and encouraged to join us for communion, regardless of church membership or denomination.

*The Responsive Reading:

L: Lord, reconcile us to one another...

P: Help us to see the humanity in those we meet.

L: Help us to seek justice and reform through nonviolence...

P: As we work to care for those in need.

L: Give us the gifts of self-awareness and discernment...

P: So that we might use them to further the Kingdom of God.

L: Help us to be people that lift one another up....

P: Rather than people who put others down.

*The Prayer:

L: God of all people and all places...

P: We are all Your children, but sometimes it doesn't feel like we are a united family. Grant us wisdom to see one another's hearts, not just our actions or words. Give us humility so that we do not view ourselves as more worthy than others. Give us the desire to be peacemakers and people of compassion. Amen.

The Reading: Luke 6:27-36

*The Offering Prayer:

L: God of all good things...

P: We give thanks for all that You sustain us with, day in and day out – the things we recognize and the many blessings we take for granted. Ignite in us a desire to care about our neighbors and a spirit of generosity to share our blessings, our patience, and our hearts with others. Amen.

Giving our First and Best to God through our Offering

*The Breaking of the Bread/Sharing of the Wine

*The Lord's Prayer:

All: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be Your name.
Your kingdom come, Your will be done,
on earth, as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are Yours,
now and forever. Amen.

*The Invitation to Communion:

L: The table is set and all are welcome. Come and receive what only the Lord can provide!
