San Francisco Campus

2024-2025 Student Handbook

A WORD FROM STUDENT SERVICES:

Welcome! God's calling and providence has brought you to Gateway Seminary and we're glad you're here. Gateway exists to shape leaders who expand God's kingdom around the world. Every class you'll take, every paper you'll write, and every assignment you'll complete has the ultimate end of equipping you to reach the nations with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Here at Gateway, God's kingdom is our passion.

As a student, you're important to the Gateway community. This handbook is designed to help you understand what seminary is about, answer common questions you might have, explain the services that are available to you, and outline our expectations for you as a Gateway student.

I especially want you to know that the Office of Student Services is here to serve you. Whether you've relocated across the country, are commuting to one of our five campuses, or are taking classes online, you're important to us and we want to help you succeed. What does it mean to succeed as a student at Gateway? It is not merely to obtain good grades, but rather, to grow closer to Christ through His Word and expend yourself in service for His name's sake.

As you read this handbook and begin your seminary journey, you will have questions. Please do not hesitate to contact us for answers or for help with personal matters. My office is located on the ground floor of the Ontario Campus Building, room 108. You can call me directly at (909) 687-1450 or email me at kristenferguson@gs.edu.

Grace and peace to you,

Kristen Ferguson, EdD

Vice President for Enrollment and Student Services

THE SEMINARY AS SPIRITUAL COMMUNITY

“How good and pleasant it is when brothers dwell together in unity.” Psalm 133:1

Gateway Seminary exists as a spiritual community. The one thing common to students, faculty, and staff alike is our identity as “called-out” believers in Jesus Christ. Faith and Spirit form all beginning points. Persons involved in this educational enterprise, by virtue of their own personal faith relationship, are in very real ways “knit” to one another. This commonality in Christ creates a spiritual community, whether it is sought after or not.

Being shaped as a leader/minister involves equal disciplines of the mind and the heart. Knowledge of God makes little sense without a connection with God, and with one another. The seminary seeks to enhance this connection. This quality of “knitting” sustains a healthy spiritual climate. Who is involved in stimulating such a climate? Everyone, but leading the way are faculty members as they model spirituality and as they seek to encourage a community of learning and faith.

STUDENT PRIVILEGES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

“Test everything. Hold on to the good. Avoid every kind of evil.” I Thessalonians 5:21-22

RESPECT

The Seminary recognizes the inherent value of all individuals associated with this campus community and seeks to treat students with grace and compassion. As individuals crafted in God’s image, every person of every ethnicity possesses full dignity and is worthy of respect and Christian love. Gateway Seminary embraces students of any ability, color, gender, national and/or ethnic origin, and seeks to make available to all students equally any rights, privileges, programs, and activities afforded through association with this educational institution.

PRIVACY

Each term, the seminary publishes an in-house directory that includes the following information on currently enrolled students: name, current mailing address, phone number, and e-mail address. Students wishing to withhold this information for reasons of privacy (with the exception of their name) will be given opportunity to notify the SFC Office Administrator at the beginning of each term. At no time shall the seminary release this information publicly without written consent, and then only to parties or individuals demonstrating a legitimate need to access institutional information.

Gateway faculty, staff, and administration seek to maintain a professional level of confidentiality, whenever possible, in regard to personal information disclosed to seminary personnel. This is especially significant given the high value placed on pastoral relationships between students and faculty.

However, confidentiality does not pertain to:

- Student actions or attitudes in clear violation of ethical behavior and therefore indicating the need for conference with the Campus Director.
- Information which demands disclosure to local, state, or federal authorities as prescribed by law.
- Disclosed information that indicates a clear and present danger to the student, the campus/classroom environment, or the community at large.

STUDENT RELATIONS COMMITTEE

Student Relations Committee. The Student Relations Committee of the San Francisco Campus serves:

- to consider and respond according to faculty and/or administrative policies concerning student academic matters;
- to consider and respond according to faculty and/or administrative policies pertaining to student deportment;
- to request a change in final exam date or incomplete;

- to assist, as requested by the Vice President of Enrollment and Student Services in matters of mutual interest relating to students;
- to recommend to faculty and/or administration new or revised policies related to students as needed.

Student Affairs. The Vice President for Enrollment and Student Services is charged with responding to the life needs of students with integrity, efficiency, professionalism and excellence in a way that models servant-leadership.

Judicial Advocacy. Students charged with violations of ethical conduct standards have the right to appeal in all matters pertaining to campus judicial procedures (see Handbook p. 12).

GRIEVANCE

The Seminary understands that the need to resolve grievances sometimes occurs within a campus community. Students who feel they have been treated unfairly or inappropriately should seek to resolve the difficulty through the appropriate staff or administrative officer who manages responsibility in that particular area. Informal issues should first be handled confidentially through an "open door" approach, incorporating all available campus resources and spiritual discernment.

Informal Grievance Process

Most conflicts can be resolved by discussion with the person(s) directly involved in the matter, be it a faculty member, staff person, or another student. This type of resolution certainly is preferable to more formal actions, and would honor the spirit of scripture as expressed in Matthew 18:15. Scheduled appointments are preferred over drop-in calls/visits. Often a cooling off period is necessary before making contact. Most grievances are not of a nature demanding immediate resolution. A polite, patient, considerate approach is almost always the most effective in resolving the issue.

Formal Grievance Process: Step 1

In the event that satisfactory resolution is not achieved through the informal process, the student may then appeal to the San Francisco Campus Director or Student Relations Committee.

All grievance appeals should be written and should clearly identify the facts surrounding the conflict. Again, appointments are preferred to drop-in visits. Administrative officers will not entertain appeals that have not proceeded properly through the informal grievance process previously described. The written appeal must state with whom the informal process has been attempted and should include copies of any other pertinent documents. The Administrative officer will respond to formal grievances as appropriate and may call for further appointments with the grievant or other persons involved. The officer will respond in writing directly to the student concerned. Grievances should be filed within ten (10) days of the event causing the grievance.

Formal Grievance Process: Step 2

Should the grievant remain unsatisfied with the results of the Step 1 process, he/she may proceed to Step 2 through direct appeal to the President. Such appeals should also be written (as in Step 1) and should contain all pertinent documentation. The President's Office will not accept appeals that have not proceeded through each prescribed step of the grievance process, so the written appeal must reflect all previous steps undertaken. The President is the final stage of the formal grievance process and all decisions of the President are final.

HARASSMENT REPORTING

Gateway Seminary does not tolerate the harassment of individuals with regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, age or disability. Any form of verbal, physical, or sexual harassment is not only inconsistent with Christian living but also deemed as illegal gender discrimination according to Title VII of the 1964 Civil Rights Act and Title IX of the 1972 Education Amendments.

No student or employee should be subject to unsolicited and unwelcome sexual overtures or conduct. It is the seminary's policy to strictly prohibit any conduct that constitutes sexual harassment and to discipline any student or employee (whether a fellow student, supervisor, or co-worker) who is guilty of such conduct. Such conduct includes, but is not limited to, offensive jokes, comments, innuendos, and other sexually oriented statements. If you are harassed, confront the harasser and ask him or her to stop. If you are unable to confront the harasser or are unsuccessful in doing so, report your complaint immediately as follows:

- If your complaint applies to a fellow student, please contact the Campus Director, or the Vice President for Enrollment and Student Services.
- If your complaint applies to a faculty/staff member, please contact the Campus Director, or Vice President for Business Services.
- Make your complaint in writing, if possible and include any/all relevant details, names of the person(s) involved and the names of any witnesses.

All reports/complaints of harassment will be investigated thoroughly. Should investigations confirm a case of harassment, the seminary will take proper disciplinary action against all culpable parties. The seminary will endeavor to act upon all complaints promptly. A representative of the seminary will inform complainants of the outcome of the investigation and any consequence to the harasser. There will be no retaliation against an individual, whether student or employee, for filing a complaint. Any student or employee found to have violated the harassment policy will be properly disciplined, up to and including suspension or dismissal. Likewise, disciplinary measures will be applied should investigations determine that a complaint was fabricated for malicious reasons.

DISABILITY ACCOMMODATION

Gateway Seminary is classified as a private, faith-based educational entity and therefore specifically excluded from compliance with federal mandates governing barrier-free access. However, in good faith, the Seminary voluntarily provides reasonable institutional accommodations, modifications, and adjustments to enable and empower students with disabilities to participate in the programs and activities of the Seminary to the fullest extent possible. Nevertheless, Gateway cannot support accommodations which place undue hardship on the Seminary or its resources, or which alter the essential requirements of curriculum and academic progress.

Persons admitted to the Seminary with qualified disabilities should consult with the Enrollment Office and the Student Services Office immediately concerning any requested accommodations, modifications, and/or adjustments necessitated by their disability. Failure to provide timely notice could prevent the Seminary from efficiently managing accommodations prior to the beginning of class sessions. Any questions concerning seminary policies on disability accommodations should be directed to the Student Services Office.

THE ISSUE OF RESPONSIBILITY

The Seminary is redemptive, not rehabilitative, in nature. Therefore, a person should not come to the Seminary with serious family, health, emotional, or financial problems. The pressures of study, church participation, family, finances, and other factors weigh heavily upon the seminary student and the student's family. These pressures can be a vital factor in the physical and mental health of the student.

Participation in any educational community is voluntary. Moral character is expected and assumed of all students who associate themselves with Gateway Seminary. Volunteer participation implies accountability for moral, ethical, and legal choices. As representatives of Jesus Christ, believers should demonstrate a lifestyle that reflects His character in both public and private behavior. Seminary standards could easily be summed up in Peter's admonition to "be holy in all you do" (1 Peter 1:15). Ethical and moral standards referred to here and in other sections of this Handbook have historic roots in Scripture and are not determined by the changing morality of society. Simple observance of moral responsibility does not constitute spirituality per se, nor do Seminary regulations comprise the entirety of one's responsibility to God. But the willingness to adhere to student responsibilities exhibits spiritual health and a concern for the well-being of the entire campus community.

ETHICAL CONDUCT

Gateway Seminary is an educational institution of the Southern Baptist Convention and operates within its parameters – expressed through its legal documents, convention decisions, and adopted resolutions. The Seminary assumes each student is a ministry leader, has a proven record of Christian conduct, and has the unqualified endorsement of a local church. The Seminary expects student conduct to meet standards normally expected of ministry leaders in Southern Baptist churches and mission organizations.

The behavior of every student is subject to review at all times during the full duration of enrollment in the Seminary. The Seminary reserves the right, at any time, to investigate student conduct and terminate the enrollment of any student who does not meet the Ethical Conduct Standard. These ethical standards are articulated, but not limited to, the following statements:

- Academic misconduct - including violation of academic policies, plagiarism, or cheating
- Controlled substances – including possession, use, or sale of illegal drugs and recreational marijuana; use of tobacco or nicotine products (including e-cigarettes); or use of alcoholic beverages (see additional statement below)
- Sexual misconduct – including any form of extramarital sexual intercourse, inappropriate displays of affection or attention, lewd and indecent language or conduct, and homosexual behavior
- Making false statements to the Seminary (verbal or written) – including matters related to admission, registration, residential status, other official records, or any forgery/falsification of documents
- Financial impropriety - including mismanagement of ministry funds, non-payment of Seminary accounts, and failure to practice Christian stewardship
- Assault and threats – including fighting, other acts of aggression, abusive behavior, verbal or physical threats, or any disorderly conduct deemed reckless or dangerous

- Theft – including theft of Seminary or personal property, unauthorized entry of Seminary or personal property, or abuse of Seminary property
- Harassment – including demeaning speech or actions, inappropriate racial/ethnic/cultural comments, or disrespectful behavior toward anyone
- Criminal conviction of any kind

Further Statement on Alcohol Use

The Seminary requires abstinence from alcoholic beverages for the following reasons:

1. Deference - The Seminary is owned by the Southern Baptist Convention which has repeatedly adopted resolutions calling for abstinence among believers.
2. Stewardship - The Seminary will not devote staff time or financial resources to resolve the issues which would inevitably arise if it sanctioned alcohol use.
3. Example - The Seminary recognizes most Southern Baptist churches and missions organizations require abstinence by their leaders and expect the same from future leaders.
4. Wisdom - The Seminary recognizes alcohol is a destructive force in society and abstinence is a wise choice to avoid unnecessary negative consequences.
5. Safety – The Seminary attempts to create a safe environment for family life and learning without unnecessary distractions (all campuses) caused by alcohol consumption.
6. Employment – Seminary graduates who seek employment with Southern Baptist entities must have a track record of abstinence prior to and during employment.

All students are required to sign the Seminary Ethical Conduct Standard form as a part of the admissions process and to abide by the Ethical Conduct Standard while enrolled at Gateway. The Seminary reserves the right to discontinue at any time the enrollment of any student(s) whose quality of performance, active church involvement, personal and ethical conduct, or financial status is deemed unsatisfactory. It is required that students who have given evidence of a divine call, who are preparing for the Christian ministry, and who have sought entrance into an institution administered by a Board of Trustees elected by the Southern Baptist Convention, shall conduct themselves in a manner deemed by the Seminary as conduct becoming a Southern Baptist minister. The Seminary shall initiate disciplinary action should the standard of personal and ethical conduct be violated.

HOME AND FAMILY

Gateway Seminary seeks to foster healthy marriages and healthy families through quality programming, resources, and authentic relationships.

Students encountering marital difficulties during their seminary experience are encouraged to seek assistance through their advisor. The Seminary will extend all available resources, understanding, grace and concern in assisting couples experiencing marital stress (all referrals and information are held in confidence). Married students who become estranged from their spouses are required to counsel with the Campus Director and possibly members of the Student Relations Committee. All responses from the Seminary to couples in marital difficulty are designed to encourage reconciliation and restitution. Students who experience a change of marital status (separation or divorce) are required to notify the Campus Director.

At times, the nature and scope of the separation may impact enrollment status. A student who become separated or divorced is almost always required to withdraw from his/her active degree program for at least one full academic year. This policy exists not as a punitive measure, but to assist the student through a period of emotional/spiritual healing. Students desiring to return to active enrollment following the withdrawal period are required to resubmit admissions documents. The Seminary does not prohibit divorced persons from consideration for enrollment. Exceptions to the above policies may be appealed through the President.

Gateway Seminary supports state law regarding Child Protective Services. State law requires reporting of child abuse or neglect to proper authorities. Children should not be left unattended or placed in any situation on campus that might cause harm or injury.

SUBSTANCE ABUSE

The Seminary acknowledges the social problem of substance abuse and perceives this problem as a serious threat to the health and well-being of our students and the overall campus community. Gateway Seminary, in voluntary compliance with the Drug Free Schools and Communities Act Amendment of 1989 (Public Law 101- 226), issues the following statements:

- Gateway prohibits the unlawful possession, use, or distribution of all controlled substances (including narcotics, illegal drugs, and alcohol) as well as abuse of lawful prescriptions and medications on Seminary property, or as a part of any school activity, or as a part of any non- school related activity.
- Students found to be in violation of substance abuse regulations will be subject to disciplinary action.
- Persons in the campus community dealing with substance abuse problems who voluntarily seek assistance through the seminary will be aided in confidential referrals for counseling services, treatment, or rehabilitation.
- Gateway cooperates with all local, state, and federal authorities in maintaining and enforcing a drug-free community.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

Controlled access to the Seminary's computer network is crucial to safeguard system integrity. Students who need access to the campus computer network for Internet research, document production, or desktop publishing may attain such access temporarily through the Library Circulation Desk. This temporary access provides students the use of the Gateway Seminary network via the computer lab workstations in the Library. Such access is free of charge; however, student users are accountable to use the network in a responsible manner and to comply with all user regulations. Files cannot be stored on these workstations thus students must have their own portable storage device (ex. USB flash drive) to save any research or work on.

Students are restricted from unauthorized network access. Unauthorized access includes any form of connection/patch to the network using personal laptops or other personal data devices. For example, students may not connect personal laptops or other devices to open network ports nor may they disconnect any Seminary equipment for purposes of accessing ports. Doing so constitutes a serious breach of license. This policy includes all network connections on campus, including those in the classrooms. In addition, all installed classroom video connections are solely for the purpose of assisting the teaching process. It is not acceptable to disconnect these connections and plug directly into the display monitors. Students found patching into network ports or display ports will be subject to disciplinary actions through the Campus Director and the faculty Student Relations Committee.

Gateway seeks consistently to uphold and to foster biblical standards of personal integrity, character, and behavior. Accordingly, in offering the privilege of network Internet access, the Seminary exercises the right to limit such access to activities that are consistent with those biblical standards and with the mission of Gateway Seminary as an institution of higher education for ministry leadership. While the Internet provides valuable educational resources, access to the internet is open to abuse in a number of different ways.

Restrictions on Internet use include activities that would result in libel, false representation, copyright violations, licensing violations, intellectual property violations, and other criminal activities. Such limitations also restrict the use of network internet resources to access sexually-explicit material, engage in defamation of character, violate academic integrity, or engage in unauthorized commercial or political activity.

Seminary personnel may utilize a variety of means to track Internet usage and the management of documents. All campus network users should be aware that all Internet activity is electronically monitored and that inappropriate use of computer hardware, network systems, e-mail, or external Internet will be reported to the appropriate Seminary authorities. Student violations will result in disciplinary actions.

FIREARMS AND WEAPONS ON CAMPUS

Seminary policy strictly prohibits the possession or use of firearms, or other weapons by any persons on the campus of Gateway Seminary. Students, faculty, and staff are also prohibited from carrying and/or possessing weapons at any time while working or attending seminary or seminary related events. The Seminary also prohibits campus visitors from carrying and/or possessing weapons on seminary property or attending seminary-related activities. Campus visitors include, but are not limited to, vendors, customers and potential customers of the Seminary, excluding law enforcement officers.

The Seminary reserves the right at its sole discretion to designate certain concealed carry weapon (CCW) permit-holders to carry concealed firearms on Seminary premises and/or on Seminary-business with the Seminary's knowledge and approval as may be necessary for certain specified duties or assignments, such as Safety & Security Team members. Those CCW permit holders who receive exemption from this policy and who the Seminary authorizes to carry concealed must do so with extreme discretion taking great care to ensure that their firearm remains concealed and neither becomes exposed or "imprinted" for others to notice. Documentation on designated CCW permit-holders who have been specifically exempted from this policy by the Seminary must be maintained on-file at the Seminary, the Seminary must ensure that the policy exemption is reviewed for renewal annually, and that a valid copy of the most current CCW permit is maintained on-file together with the exemption approval.

A request for individual exemption can be made to the Director of Student Services. The Director of Student Services will make a recommendation to the President who will make the determination.

STUDENT DISCIPLINE

“...correct, rebuke, and encourage-with great patience and careful instruction.” 2 Timothy 4:2

Discipline is an essential tool in the development of Christian character. Discipline serves as a motivator toward self-control and determination and also plays a significant role in shaping believers into the image of Christ. Student discipline at Gateway Seminary is primarily preventive and serves first to encourage and teach desirable choices, attitudes, and behaviors. This disciplinary approach is redemptive in nature and ultimately seeks the restoration and reconciliation of students in violation of ethical conduct. Punitive measures are secondary in purpose. Student discipline assists in the maturation and growth of individuals and serves to insure a safe and healthy campus.

The community, as a whole, shares responsibility for disciplinary matters. In a very real sense, we are to be our “brother’s keeper.” Persons who are known to be involved in inappropriate behavior should first be approached, in a spirit of love and humility, by their peers and confronted and counseled concerning the offence (Matthew 18:15-17, James 5:20). Should such an approach prove unsatisfactory, the matter should then be brought to the attention of appropriate school officials. The Seminary recognizes important distinctions between ethical and illegal behavior/actions. While most ethical matters find management within the Gateway community, illegal acts (in most cases) by law must be reported local law enforcement agencies.

DISCIPLINE PROCEDURES

Biblically based standards of behavior are well communicated to Gateway students and, hopefully, well understood by all who are involved in the campus community. Therefore, students are accountable to the Seminary for personal actions/behaviors. Students who are suspected of violating the ethical conduct form or of being out of compliance with Biblical conduct expectations will be contacted by the Student Services Office. The Vice President of Enrollment and Student Services will seek to determine the validity of the complaint, which may involve interviews and other fact-finding efforts. Conducting investigations based on hearsay or rumor is unlikely for either the Vice President for Enrollment and Student Services or the Student Relations Committee.

If a student suspects that another student is guilty of impropriety and believes the impropriety can be verified, then he/she should notify the Vice President for Enrollment and Student Services immediately to relay the known facts. Refrain from speaking about the matter to other students or Seminary employees. Relay only the known facts/truths and refrain from speculations or interpretations concerning the conduct in question. After the matter has been duly reported, any faculty, staff members, or fellow students involved should maintain an attitude of prayer for the student/person(s) in question and continue to guard confidentiality.

Inquiry. The Vice President for Enrollment and Student Services is responsible for the supervision of student conduct and is charged with investigating, processing, and reviewing all alleged violations of Seminary standards and complaints. The Vice President of Enrollment and Student Services receives referrals and conducts confidential inquiries to determine if an offense has actually occurred. This preliminary inquiry may include interviews with all parties involved, both on and off campus.

Hearing. The Vice President for Enrollment and Student Services may elect to handle a case personally or may, at his/her discretion, refer the case to the Student Relations Committee for a formal hearing. The Vice President of Enrollment and Student Services may conduct private conferences to discuss the behavior in question and the evidence at hand. These conferences may be held with the chairperson of the Student Relations Committee, the Committee at large, or any other faculty or staff members the Vice President of Enrollment and Student Services chooses to involve.

Due Process. Students can expect to be properly notified of the suspected offense(s) being investigated. Students charged with an offense are usually given the opportunity to present their side of the story. Students found to be in violation of ethical conduct standards will receive notification of disciplinary sanctions and rulings.

Appeal. Decisions made by the Vice President of Enrollment and Student Services or the Student Relations Committee may be appealed to the President. All decisions of the President are final.

RECORDS

The Office of Student Services, at the Los Angeles Campus, maintains all student conduct/deportment records. Such records are property of the Seminary and not open to public access. Notices of official disciplinary sanctions are copied to the Registrar and filed within student's official academic records, where applicable. In some cases, disciplinary status notations may be removed from academic records by approval of the Student Relations Committee.

SANCTIONS

Conditions and terms of sanctions are determined on a case-by-case basis. Some disciplinary conditions may include restitution, reconciliation, counseling, campus service, fines, withholding school records, and avoidance agreements. All sanctions issued will be administered impartially and proportionally to the nature and degree of the infraction. All sanctions issued will be determined, decided and administered in a spirit of Christian concern and compassion and, hopefully, employed to bring about redemptive correction in the life of the offender. Possible disciplinary sanctions include:

Reprimand. A reprimand is a written notice given to the student specifying the unacceptable conduct and indicating consequences related to further misconduct. Failure to comply with conditions may incur further disciplinary action.

Disciplinary Probation. Disciplinary probation is a specified time period during which the student's attitude and conduct are closely evaluated. Special conditions are usually established for successful completion of the probationary period. Formal notation of the probation is filed in the student's academic record. Students on probation forfeit all institutionally funded financial aid and may not hold any position of student/campus leadership. In addition, students on probation may be restricted from campus housing and/or school-sponsored activities. Probation for more than two (2) terms is normally grounds for suspension.

Disciplinary Suspension. Disciplinary suspension is a specific time period during which the student is suspended from active enrollment in, and participation with the campus community. Formal notation of suspension is filed in the student's academic record. Specific conditions are placed on readmission. Consideration for readmission is based on successful completion of all suspension conditions and upon approval from the Vice President for Enrollment and Student Services. Disciplinary suspension may be imposed during or at the end of a term and readmission may involve an additional period of probation status.

Dismissal. Dismissal constitutes official termination of a student's relationship with Gateway Seminary. Readmission is normally not granted. Formal notation of dismissal is filed in the student's academic record.

All students on disciplinary status are held responsible in fulfillment of any financial obligations to the institution. Students who must withdraw from classes during the term due to disciplinary sanctions are subject to standard school refund policies, as reflected in the current Seminary catalog.

ETHICAL CONDUCT VIOLATIONS AND GRADUATION

From time to time, a student who is anticipating graduation is found to have violated the moral expectations of Gateway Students as expressed in the Ethical Conduct Form either during their time as an enrolled student or while awaiting graduation. In such cases, the response of the Seminary will vary depending on the seriousness of the offense. The Student Relations Committee may be consulted, or in certain cases demanding extreme sensitivity, the issue may be handled directly by the Vice President of Enrollment and Student Services in conjunction with the Vice President of Academic Services and/or the President.

In cases where legal issues are pending, students will usually have their graduation application suspended pending the outcome of their legal issues.

PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism is defined as the practice of taking someone else's written or spoken work or ideas without proper citation and presenting it as original to the student. Plagiarism is a serious offense in higher education. While Gateway recognizes not all cultures accept that plagiarism is dishonest scholarship, it remains the norm in western society and academics. Therefore, at Gateway plagiarism and cheating on exams will be considered an infringement of the institution's academic policy as well as an ethical conduct violation. The following briefly outlines the procedures/policies in dealing with plagiarism approved by Gateway faculty in 2020. The full policy is included as an addendum.

1. The initial determination of whether an infraction has taken place, or has not, occurs entirely within the setting of the individual class where the assignment was submitted.
2. The student will have a required discussion of the infraction with the professor and/or the Student Relations Committee.
3. Plagiarism resulting from a lack of understanding of what constitutes cheating or plagiarism on the first offense, the professor can choose to allow the student to make-up the work with or without penalty and may suggest or require attending a workshop or seminar on the issue.
4. Plagiarism resulting from an oversight such as footnote without the quote in quotation marks or quotation marks without a footnote may be deemed a minor incident. A third minor incident will be counted as a first major offense.
5. In most cases, willful cheating or major offense plagiarism will result in a failing grade for the assignment and/or a failing grade for the course.

6. The professor will complete an Academic Integrity Incident Report, providing pertinent details including what instruction or training, if any, was suggested or required.
7. The incident report will be placed in the student's academic file in the Registrar's office and the Registrar will communicate the decision to the student.
8. Subsequent instances of plagiarism or cheating are described in the full policy and may result in probation, suspension, or expulsion.

INVOLUNTARY WITHDRAWAL

An Involuntary Withdrawal Policy is enacted to provide Gateway Seminary with proper standards and redemptive procedures governing the investigation and potential removal of students who exhibit unstable mental or emotional health. Of specific concern is the person who:

- Who engages, or threatens to engage, in behavior that is physically harmful to him/herself or others; or;
- Who engages, or threatens to engage, in behavior which would cause significant property damage, directly impede the lawful activities of others, or would significantly affect campus life of Gateway Seminary adversely;
- Whose mental/emotional state renders him/her unable to meet reasonable institutional standards and, therefore, constitutes a disruption to the learning environment; or;
- Is considered to be a threat to the safety of anyone in the Gateway Community.

Copies of the Seminary Involuntary Withdrawal Policy are available for review from the Vice President for Enrollment and Student Services or the faculty Student Relations Committee.

ACADEMIC SERVICES

“Be diligent in these matters; give yourself wholly to them, so that everyone may see your progress” I Timothy 4:15

CATALOG PUBLICATION

The annual Gateway Seminary catalog serves as the official publication designed to communicate academic policies/regulations, admissions standards, and course/degree programs. Students should look to the Seminary catalog as the primary source of academic information. The catalog is available online from the Seminary website. Gateway catalog publications are also archived in the Library. Please note that, assuming continuous enrollment in at least one (1) term per year, a student’s degree program is guided by the catalog published for the year in which that student first enrolls in that degree program.

ACADEMIC ADVISING

All Gateway students have access to faculty advisors who provide necessary assistance in course counseling, degree requirements and class scheduling. Term registration and degree progress are primarily self-managed by each enrolled student. Students are encouraged to take the initiative during the term registration period to contact the appropriate faculty member for any questions related to academic/degree progress. Faculty members also serve as good listeners for student concerns. Should faculty members not be readily available, students may contact the Campus Director or the SFC Administration Office with advising issues.

BOOKS

Students are responsible to purchase their own textbooks which may be accomplished through the following websites: Lifeway.com, Amazon.com, Christianbooks.com, or other sources. On most occasions, the Library will have required course materials on reserve for the student to check out on a limited basis. Please speak to your library staff for more information regarding this service.

OFFICE OF STUDENT SUCCESS AND REGISTRAR

The Office of Student Success and Registrar at the Los Angeles Campus maintains all current academic records and registration documents. Questions concerning degree programs, transfer credits, course bypass and academic transcripts may be directed to the Registrar’s Office for assistance at (909) 687-1468 or registrar@gs.edu. Students near completion of degree programs must apply to the Registrar’s Office for graduation. The Registrar also maintains record of student’s denominational affiliation and changes in denominational relationships.

DENOMINATIONAL AFFILIATION

A student's denominational affiliation is established upon enrollment in Gateway Seminary. Denominational affiliation is most often confirmed through the standard church endorsement document submitted with all admissions applications. Denominational affiliation as a Southern Baptist informs various Seminary offices as to rate of tuition charged, priority housing eligibility, and financial aid eligibility. Southern Baptist affiliation is further defined as the church to which a student (1) holds active membership in; (2) attends regularly; and (3) in which he/she contributes skills, ministries, and personal resources.

Students who change from Non-SBC to SBC status after enrollment must provide the Registrar's Office with official correspondence from a qualified SBC church pastor (or church clerk) indicating that the student has joined the church in good standing. The letter must reach the Registrar's Office by the official add deadline date in any given term in order for change-in-status to be in effect for that academic term. Students who change from SBC to Non-SBC status after enrollment must also provide that information to the Registrar in a timely manner.

GATEWAY ONLINE

Gateway Online exists to shape leaders who expand God's kingdom around the world by making theological education available to students anywhere. While serving in their current ministry context, Gateway Online students can deepen their understanding of the Bible, foster meaningful relationships with students and faculty, and develop skills that will further the effectiveness of their ministry.

Students can earn any of Gateway's master's degrees fully online (MDiv., MAEL, MAIS, MGE, MACC, MTS, or MTE). Additionally, diplomas and certificates are also available fully online. Please refer to the current academic catalog for online course and degree offerings. Courses are delivered through the Canvas learning management system (LMS). The LMS policy is included as Addendum C.

All students of Gateway Seminary are permitted to take online courses. If online courses are the student's primary means of earning course credit, the student should be designated as an online student through the Registrar's Office.

If you have questions about the online courses or Canvas, please contact the online office at online@gs.edu.

THEOLOGICAL FIELD EDUCATION

Gateway degree programs include a ministry practicum that includes training and evaluation components. This is accomplished through a hands-on ministry practicum experience that is administered through the Office of Theological Field Education (TFE). Instead of registering online or directly through the Registrar's Office for the Ministry Practicum/TFE class, a student must submit a TFE application directly to the TFE Office and have it approved prior to registration for the required TFE class. The TFE application process takes place each spring semester, prior to TFE participation in the fall, with a May 15 deadline. Information concerning TFE requirements and the TFE application can be found on the TFE homepage of the seminary website. The only prerequisite for taking TFE is course P1111, Introduction to Ministry Formation. A student desiring to complete an approved course substitution for TFE, such as P2553 Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE), I2361-62 Church Planting Internship, or I2211 Short-term International Internship must also complete an application through the TFE Office in the same manner. The TFE Office provides student assistance in completing the application and coordinates the various options designed in meeting the practical ministry requirements. For more information, contact the TFE Office at tfe@gs.edu.

ADVANCED TRACK OF THE MDIV PROGRAM

Students matriculating into the Master of Divinity Program having completed an undergraduate major in Christian Studies, or a like area of study, with a strong grade point average are encouraged to consider and apply for the Advanced Track of the Master of Divinity Program. Such students may be authorized for an individualized M.Div. program which is up to 16 hours less than the normal 90 hour M.Div. degree course of study. Please refer to the Seminary's Academic Catalog.

ADVANCE MINISTRY PREPARATION

ADVANCE Ministry Preparation provides quality, Bible-based ministry training, usually at the post-high school level, in a geographically convenient and contextualized setting through ministry centers and online. Each center is established under the oversight of the Gateway ADVANCE National Office and in partnership with a church, association, state convention, and/or ethnic fellowship in the development and implementation of the training. Through the work of ADVANCE, the Seminary offers twenty-one (21) certificate programs, nineteen (19) diploma programs, and seventeen (17) leadership diploma programs. Equipping leaders for discipleship and ministry is at the heart of ADVANCE training.

CAMPUS SERVICES

“And do not forget to do good and share with others for with such sacrifices God is pleased.” Hebrews 13:16

COMMUNITY WORSHIP

The primary campus venue for worship is the chapel service held on the select Mondays of each month from 6:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. during the fall and spring terms. The chapel experience is designed for the adoration of Christ, the exposition of His Word, and the inspiration and edification of the worshipper. The Seminary embraces corporate worship as a vital component of a Christ-centered education. Students are encouraged to attend chapel in conjunction with faithful attendance and service in their local church

COMPUTER LAB

The campus Computer Lab supports three dedicated workstations and serves as a student research resource. A fourth computer is equipped with a book scanner and is reserved for duplication purposes. They are located in the Library and intended for student use. Please see the librarian for login info. They offer access to basic Microsoft Office suite applications, presentation, software, and the Internet. Files cannot be stored on these workstations thus students must have their own portable storage device (ex. USB flash drive) to save any research or work on. The computer lab is accessible whenever the Library is open (see p.20). Report computer or network problems to the Library Reference Assistance.

EMPLOYMENT ASSISTANCE

Enrolled students seeking secular employment opportunities, as well as ministry positions can access position openings information through the Gateway online “Job Board.” These services are provided through the “About/Employment” section of the Seminary website. Various jobs are also posted on the “Opportunities” bulletin board located in the upstairs hallway. For on-campus student employment opportunities, please contact the SFC Administration Office at (510) 449-0654.

EMERGENCY FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

The Seminary manages several forms of student benevolence for emergency needs. Limited benevolence funds are available for students in financial crisis who meet particular qualifying criteria. Information/applications for emergency financial assistance is available through the Los Angeles Campus Student Services Office by email at studentservices@gs.edu. Tuition assistance for qualified Gateway students is provided through the Seminary Financial Aid Program.

LIBRARY

The SFC library is opened Monday to Friday, 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. during the Fall and Spring semesters. The library is closed on Saturdays unless otherwise specified. The librarian is closed on Saturdays unless otherwise specified. Reference assistance by appointment only. Students are encouraged to contact the Librarian via email to schedule a time for reference help. While we try to serve our students here as quickly as possible, please request books, research help, or other information early to avoid last minute request. The library is always closed on Sundays. For holiday closures, exceptions, or changes to library hours, see <https://www.library.gs.edu/hours.html>.

The SFC library houses a collection of approximately 18,000 books and other resources. Numerous on-line theological databases and journals are available for student use.

Students may borrow up to thirty-five items for four-week check-out periods. Most library material can be renewed twice. Reference materials may not be used outside of the Seminary building.

Through Intercampus Loan (ICL) San Francisco students have ready access to the approximately 170,000 resources held by the five campuses of the Gateway Seminary Library System Collection. Through cooperative agreements with local theological institutions, SFC students also have loan privileges for an additional 850,00 volumes and 2500 current periodical subscriptions. Further material needs can be filled through US or international libraries using InterLibrary Loan (ILL).

LOST AND FOUND

Misplaced items around campus find temporary shelter at the Library. Please bring any found items to the Library during regular library hours. Students should notify Administration Office concerning any lost goods or materials left in locked areas. Items remained “unclaimed” from the Lost & Found are donated to local charities at the end of each semester. Any student who suspects an item has been stolen should immediately file a report with the SFC Administration Office.

STUDENT SERVICES

“May the God who gives endurance and encouragement give you a spirit of unity among yourselves as you follow Christ Jesus...” Romans 15:5

MINISTRY RESUME SERVICES

The primary function of Ministry Resume Services is to assist Gateway students and alumni in connecting with Southern Baptist churches throughout the United States for pastor/minister searches.

This special service is managed electronically through the Student Services Office at the Los Angeles Campus and is accessible through the “About/Employment” section of the Seminary website. All necessary information and instructions may be found on the Ministry Resume Services page. Ministry candidates post personal resume information directly to the database for access by various church search personnel.

The California Southern Baptist Convention also posts positions and resumes at www.csbc.com/ministry-resources.

STUDENT COMMUNICATIONS

Student Handbook. The Gateway Seminary Student Handbook provides important information on the various school offices/services of and pertinent policy/procedures which govern student relationships with the seminary.

The Loop. The Loop is a weekly electronic newsletter/bulletin sent to all registered students via e-mail. The Loop provides a great vehicle for connecting students to what is taking place on campus, and needs of churches. Students are encouraged to register changes to e-mail accounts with the Registrar’s Office each term in order to stay connected.

San Francisco Campus News and Update weekly email. The SFC staff sends out a weekly News and Update email to SFC students to inform of upcoming events, important dates, job opportunities, and other pertinent info.

NEW STUDENT ORIENTATION

New Student Orientation is designed to facilitate familiarity with Gateway academics, personnel, campus services, registration, seminary life, and general seminary policies/procedures. Students find the fellowship, instruction and “spirit” of orientation to be extremely helpful toward assimilation into the seminary community and academic success. Orientation is normally scheduled each fall and spring term on the Thursday evening one week preceding the first day of classes. A library orientation is also included.

FINANCIAL AID

The Financial Aid Program at Gateway manages multiple, internal scholarship funds. These scholarships are organized into various categories according to the intent of the donors. The application deadline is May 1, for the upcoming academic year. Approved applicants may be awarded financial aid from one or several scholarship categories, depending on eligibility. In addition to internal financial aid, the Seminary partners with sister organizations that provide external scholarship funds. Examples of such organizations include state Baptist conventions, various Baptist associations, mission boards and individual churches. Students normally apply directly to these agencies or organizations; however, some external scholarships may be accessed through our own Financial Aid Program. Gateway also seeks to expose our student body to potential third-party scholarships such as those offered through corporate sponsorships and general educational services, as well as those available through non-Southern Baptist entities. For more information on financial aid, or to apply for financial aid, please go to www.gs.edu/admissions/financial-aid.

GRADUATION SERVICES

The SFC Administration Office oversees Seminary commencement events and graduate preparations. Specific questions regarding graduation eligibility and applications should be directed to the Registrar's Office. The San Francisco Campus only offers a commencement service in the spring term. Students graduating may apply to participate in the ceremony at the San Francisco Campus or apply for absentia graduation. Graduation information packets are mailed six (6) weeks in advance of commencement dates. Students wishing to request an exception to the ceremony or other graduation policies must complete and submit the Request for an Exception to Graduation Policy form, found on the Graduation Page in Haven, our administration web portal.

COUNSELING REFERRALS

Gateway Seminary does not support an onsite counseling center or formal counseling services. However, the Seminary maintains connections with licensed practitioners and counseling centers. Students or student family members needing information on Christian counseling resources should contact the Campus Director or the Vice President for Enrollment and Student Services. All requests for information are kept confidential.

GENERAL SEMINARY POLICIES

“But everything should be done in a fitting and orderly way.” I Corinthians 14:40

BULLETIN BOARDS/POSTING NOTICES

Supervision and maintenance of public bulletin boards is the responsibility of the SFC Office Administrator. Campus bulletin board exists primarily to keep students informed of job and ministry opportunities. Any/all items to be posted must be submitted to the SFC Office Administrator. Students are not allowed to post or remove posted items without permission. Posters, flyers and announcements may not be attached to windows or to other building space. The main “information central” boards are located near the north end of the building on second floor and serve as the primary campus location for student news and information.

CHANGE IN ADDRESS/CONTACT INFORMATION

Any/all changes in personal contact information must be reported to the SFC Office Administrator for proper maintenance of educational records. Specific changes include residential/postal address, home/office/cell telephone number(s), and e-mail addresses.

CHANGE IN MARITAL STATUS

Any/all changes in marital status must be reported to the SFC office for proper maintenance of educational records. The Campus Director is available for pre-marital counseling referrals and resources. For policy matters concerning students in marital difficulties please refer to the section on Home & Family \(see p. 9\).

CAMPUS EMERGENCIES

Campus situation(s) that pose emergencies to life or property should be reported immediately to 9-1-1 dispatchers. Please report campus related emergency to the Administration Office or at (510) 449-0654. Please report any campus related calls to 9-1-1 to the Administration Office. First Aid kits are located in the Library and the Administration Office. In the unlikely event that classes must be cancelled due to earthquake, fire, or other natural or manmade emergencies, students should tune to local radio stations for emergency announcements or access the Seminary home page at www.gs.edu for disaster information. As per state law, fire extinguishers are located in multiple places on both floors. For those fully trained, a defibrillator is located in the first floor hallway.

FACILITIES AND PROPERTY USAGE

The Vending Machine Room also serves as the students' break room. Soft drinks and snacks are available through vending machines. Students are asked to help keep the break room clean. Please deposit trash and recyclable items in designated places. The refrigerator is emptied weekly on Friday. These acts of courtesy are appreciated.

Parking is available free of charge for all enrolled students. Please park in the designated area and observe the handicap markings. All students are encouraged to practice personal security. The Seminary is not liable for theft or damage, caused by other persons, or acts of nature to personal property within, or to, your vehicle(s). If you have such issues, please contact the proper law enforcement authorities and file a report with the SFC Administration Office.

PUBLIC RELATIONS AND CORPORATE IDENTITY

The Director of Communications, located at the Los Angeles Campus, is responsible for approving and coordinating official Seminary statements by, or to, any medium. Students may not use official Seminary letterhead, logo, Facebook, Twitter, or Seminary publications for the support or endorsement of personal views without the express permission of the Director of Communications. Under no circumstances shall Seminary media, publications, or public relations material be used to support, endorse, or otherwise approve, any organizations, idea, or behavior that is inconsistent with the stated purposes and doctrines of Gateway Seminary.

POLITICAL ENDORSEMENT

All students are encouraged to be actively involved in the political processes of our city, state, and nation. Christians are called to be salt and light in this important arena and should encourage responsible government through prayer and the exercise of voting rights. Students must not engage in partisan political activity, however, as representatives of the Seminary, but as private citizens. As a matter of conviction and policy, Gateway Seminary does not engage in partisan political activities of any kind, including endorsements, contributions, publicity, or accommodation in connection with any election, political convention, or other partisan political event. Therefore, the Seminary does not permit signs, posters, petitions, or other forms of partisan support on campus property, or in any Seminary-sponsored media or event. Such restrictions do not curtail the individual's exercise of free speech, which may include personal expressions of political endorsement.

SOLICITATION

Gateway Seminary does not allow private businesses, company representatives, or students to sell goods or services on campus. Any exception must be requested in writing and approved by the Vice President for Institutional Advancement. In addition, no personal or organizational solicitations are permitted on Seminary property without the written approval of the Vice President for Institutional Advancement. Any fundraising projects benefiting student-sponsored campus organizations require support and approval by the Vice President of Enrollment and Student Services.

Although it may seem an effective manner of distributing literature, the practice of leaving flyers, pamphlets, or any other such publications on cars or any other place on Gateway Seminary's campus is not permissible. Anyone wishing to distribute material must receive permission through the Student Services Office. The Seminary reserves the right to refuse distribution or posting of information/materials which conflicts with our mission, vision, or biblical standards.

STUDENT ID CARDS

The Seminary's Student Services Office offers Student ID cards during each term. Campus publications will announce the time frame when ID Cards can be requested. The cost is ten dollars. Student ID cards are not required for any Seminary service/access and are offered simply as a convenience to students for businesses granting student-related discounts.

WIRELESS ACCESS

The Seminary provides a wireless network (SSID: BAC-Student) for student access through their personal devices for Internet access. This access is provided free of charge and no special login is required. The network key needed to access the network is posted in the Campus Lounge. It can also be obtained from the Administration Office. This access is subject to the same acceptable use policies as the Computer Lab. That is, it is provided for access to the Internet for research purposes while on campus, checking your external email, and so forth. It is not, however, intended as a substitute for a personal ISP (Internet Service Provider) and should not be used to download large files (e.g., to update your computer, download software, etc.) or to stream media (music, movie, etc.) except when needed during a presentation.

DOWNLOADING OF COPYRIGHTED MATERIALS

It is both illegal and unethical to download copyrighted materials without the copyright owner's permission, including printed or written materials, music, movies, or any other form of intellectual property. As such, students may not use the Gateway Seminary network (whether the wired network on the Computer Lab workstations or the wireless network using personal devices) to illegally download such materials.

TOBACCO-FREE CAMPUS

The use of tobacco in any form constitutes a health threat to both users and bystanders. Gateway Seminary supports and maintains a smoke-free environment. The use of all tobacco products is prohibited in all campus buildings and on campus properties.

CALIFORNIA BUREAU FOR PRIVATE POSTSECONDARY EDUCATION

Pursuant to the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009 Gateway Seminary of the Southern Baptist Convention qualifies for the religious exemption status from the California Education Code section 94874(e). The Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education makes no evaluation of the administration, faculty, business practices, financial condition or quality of the offerings by this institution. Any person desiring information about the requirements of the act may contact the Bureau at PO Box 980818, West Sacramento, CA, 95798-0818 or use the website www.bppe.ca.gov.

Complaint Procedure

An individual may contact the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education for review of a complaint. The bureau may be contacted at the follow address, email, fax, or phone numbers:

ADDENDUM B

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY POLICY:

INSTRUCTION, INFRACTION, & PROCESSES FOR REMEDIATION

INTRODUCTION

Gateway Seminary is dedicated to training ministry leaders who expand God's Kingdom around the world. As an ethnically and culturally diverse institution, Gateway is committed to maintaining a strong Biblical foundation and high academic standards in the context of cultural diversity. In an era of global and generational Christianity, the seminary faces many challenges regarding the normative constructs as well as cultural differences that influence interpretation of academic dishonesty and plagiarism. To clarify these issues, this document articulates the institution's academic and ethical conduct expectations.

Gateway's root assumption is that all work submitted would be the original work of the student submitting it. This is the assumption upon which all evaluation occurs. Student authors are encouraged to take previously published materials as the foundation for their own work but credit must clearly be given to those original authors. Similarly, work such as exams is expected to be entirely from the student taking the exam as instructed by the professor.

Plagiarism is a serious offense in higher education. While Gateway recognizes not all cultures accept that plagiarism is dishonest scholarship, it remains the norm in western society and academics. Therefore, at Gateway plagiarism and cheating on exams will be considered an infringement of the institution's academic policy as well as an ethical conduct violation.

On the Master's degree level, Gateway utilizes the most recent edition of Turabian's A Manual for Writers. This manual of style provides readily available information to all students with more specific definitions, descriptions, and examples of plagiarism. The Gateway Library website also has Turabian support listed on the homepage. All students are responsible for this material in order to understand the proper way to prepare a paper or project. Library staff and faculty are also available to answer questions and provide training in this regard.

The creation of P0001 Research and Writing Tutorial for Student Success introduces students to faculty expectations for written assignments, including discovery, access, and use of appropriate resources, basic research processes, and incorporating others' words or ideas into written work while avoiding plagiarism. P0001 is a recommended, no-cost, no-credit hour, online elective training course that is offered through Canvas.

PLAGIARISM

Minor Incident Plagiarism shall be defined as an oversight such as a single quote with quotation marks without a footnote or a footnote without the quotation marks around the quote. This is defined with no intent of seeking an unfair advantage or taking credit for someone else's work.

Major Offense Plagiarism shall be defined as willful intent to cheat by taking someone else's written or spoken work or idea without proper citation and presenting it as original to the student.

Three instances of Minor Incident Plagiarism will be counted as a first Major Offense.

REMEDIATION

Infraction of policy will lead to the following remedial procedures:

1. First Offense

1.1 The initial determination of whether an infraction has taken place, or has not, occurs entirely within the setting of the individual class where the assignment was submitted. If an instance of cheating or plagiarism is verified, the professor must review the student's academic record to determine if it is a first major offense or a third minor incident by checking with the Registrar's office (see 1.7).

1.2 Once substantiated, the professor(s) should endeavor to deal with the situation in as redemptive and instructive a manner as possible. The student will have a required discussion of the infraction with the professor. In determining the severity of penalty and the best course of remedial action, the professor should determine if the infraction resulted from a lack of understanding or oversight (minor) or was a willful attempt to gain an unfair advantage (major).

1.3 If it is a first minor incident, it is at the professor's discretion regarding academic consequences for the infraction, however the professor must submit an incident report for inclusion in the student's file (see 1.7).

1.4 If the infraction is a first minor incident (maximum two), the professor can choose to allow the student to make-up the work with or without penalty and may suggest or require completion of P0001. Upon the third minor incident, the incident report will be noted as a first major offense and P0001 will be required.

1.5 In most major offense cases, willful cheating or plagiarism will normally result in failure of the assignment and/or failure of the course.

1.6 If the infraction is deemed egregious enough, the professor has the authority to initiate contact with the Student Relations Committee for further counsel to determine if the incident merits probation or more on this first major offense. See Other Definitions below.

1.7 In order to support other faculty members regarding potential future incidences, the professor will complete an Academic Integrity Incident Report form, providing pertinent details including what remedial action, if any, was suggested or required. The incident report is to be placed in the student's academic file in the Registrar's office and the Registrar will communicate the decision to the student.

1.8 If multiple first infractions of cheating or plagiarism are discovered at the same time with no time for the student to learn of the infraction in one paper before turning in another AND the student has no previous instances, this will be brought to the attention of the SRC and may be considered a single offense with the student being required to complete P0001. This only applies in the first term that a student has an Academic Integrity Incident Report submitted to the Registrar.

1.9 All professors are encouraged to utilize Canvas, the Turnitin feature for papers submitted, and refer to P0001 in their syllabi.

2. Second Offense

2.1 After an incident is verified by the professor, a check with the Registrar will be made to determine if this is a second offense. Infractions beyond the first offense will be treated as both an academic and a student deportment matter and automatically involve both the professor and Student Relations Committee. The student will have the required discussion of the infraction with the professor. Specific consequences at the class level (e.g., grade reduction, failure of course) will be decided by the professor. In addition, the SRC will communicate the remedial action for continued enrollment and will require the student to complete P0001 and undergo more specific and structured training with one of the Gateway librarians.

2.2 Additional action(s), up to and including probation or suspension of the student for a minimum of one term may be taken by the SRC in a particularly egregious situation.

2.3 The SRC will complete an incident report to be placed in the student's academic file in the Registrar's office and the Registrar will communicate the decision to the student.

3. Third Offense

3.1 After an incident is verified by the professor, a check with the Registrar will be made to determine if this is a third offense. A third offense will require the student in question to participate in a discussion of the infraction with the professor and the SRC to explore the circumstances and the cause of this repeated violation of academic policy and ethical conduct. Specific consequences at the class level (e.g., grade reduction, failure of course) will be decided by the professor. The SRC will communicate conditions for continued enrollment and determine institutional consequences which will likely include academic probation or suspension of the student for a minimum of one term.

3.2 The SRC will complete an incident report to be placed in the student's academic file in the Registrar's office and the Registrar will communicate the decision to the student.

4. Fourth Offense

4.1 After an incident is verified by the professor, a check with the Registrar will be made to determine if this is a fourth offense. Any fourth verified offense shall result in the immediate expulsion of the student from Gateway Seminary.

4.2 The SRC, after a discussion with the professor, will determine if the student is eligible or ineligible to reapply to Gateway Seminary.

4.3 The SRC will complete an incident report to be placed in the student's academic file in the Registrar's office and the Registrar will communicate the decision to the student.

OTHER DEFINITIONS

Appeal

The student in question shall have the option of requesting a meeting with the Student Relations Committee for clarification or appealing the decision with the Vice President of Academic Services following the same procedure as a grievance outlined in the Student Handbook.

Probation

After any offense that results in probation for one term, that probationary status will be lifted by the Registrar after one term without subsequent offenses. Any offense during a probation period will result in automatic suspension for an additional term. Any fourth verified offense will result in immediate expulsion of the student from Gateway Seminary.

Return after Suspension

After any offense that results in suspension for one term, the student may apply for readmission with the Office of Enrollment, be reviewed by the Admissions Committee, and be alerted to Gateway's Zero Tolerance Policy.

Zero Tolerance Policy

Any additional cheating/plagiarism infractions discovered after a suspension will result in failure of the course and immediate expulsion from Gateway Seminary.

Return after Expulsion

After any offense that results in expulsion from Gateway Seminary with an SRC determination that the student would be eligible to reapply, the student may apply for readmission with the Office of Enrollment after a period of at least two years from the date of the expulsion. Readmission application will be handled by the Office of Enrollment, be reviewed by the Admissions Committee, and the student will again be alerted to Gateway's Zero Tolerance Policy from that point forward. Along with the readmission application, the student will submit a written commitment to adhere to the Academic Integrity policy of Gateway Seminary. Any additional cheating/plagiarism infractions discovered from that point forward will result in immediate expulsion of the student and make them ineligible from any future admission to Gateway Seminary.

ADDENDUM C

LEARNING MANAGEMENT SYSTEM POLICY

The learning management system (LMS) at Gateway Seminary, currently Canvas (gs.instructure.com), is a web-based educational tool that supports the following academic functions:

- Delivers course instruction and learning materials online
- Creates opportunities for interaction between students and their professor
- Provides an online environment for students to take exams, submit assignments, and receive feedback and grades.

Online courses are delivered entirely through Canvas. For courses that are not fully online, the professor will indicate if and how Canvas will be used in each course.

ACCESS AND APPROPRIATE USE

A Canvas account will be automatically created for accepted, enrolled students two weeks prior to the start of their first term of study. If the professor uses Canvas, the course will be published on or before the start date of each term. Once the term ends, students will be able to view but not participate in past Canvas courses. Upon completion of study or upon inactive student status, students will not have access to Canvas.

As a matter of academic integrity, all Canvas users must enter Canvas only under their own, unique account login and password. All materials posted by the instructor or by other students is considered copyrighted and is the intellectual property of the author. Copying, distributing, or sharing materials from Canvas is a breach of copyright unless permission by the author is granted. Posting or submitting work under another user's account is not allowed and may be subject to disciplinary measures.

Although grades are visible in Canvas, the official site for viewing final grades and transcripts is Haven.

Download the App: Canvas is also available on an iOS or Android device.

USER RESPONSIBILITIES

Canvas and Gateway Seminary will ensure that Canvas stays up to date, but it is the responsibility of the user to have reliable internet access, adhere to Canvas system requirements, and update browsers on a regular basis. Basic system requirements and supported browsers can be found on the Canvas Basics Guide.

TECHNICAL SUPPORT

Canvas provides 24/7 technical support accessed directly through the Canvas "Help" menu located on the left-hand global navigation. Users may chat, call, or search the user guides in this menu. Additionally, if Canvas support cannot assist in a certain matter, users may contact CanvasIT@gs.edu.

ADDENDUM D

A BRIEF HISTORY OF GATEWAY SEMINARY

The desire to provide training for Christian workers to minister to the masses in California motivated Harvey Gilbert, a Southern Baptist home missionary, to establish the San Rafael Baptist Institute in 1859 in Marin County. Many people hoped the fledgling institute would soon become a Baptist theological school. This expectation, however, did not materialize and the school closed after a few years, in part due to the Civil War.

Soon after, the Southern Baptist Convention withdrew all support for California work and the churches and institutes it sponsored either disappeared or found other affiliations. When Southern Baptists again began establishing churches in California, the first in 1936, the same need for a theological school was speedily recognized. It became apparent the Convention would soon have a growing work in all of the western states.

Harvey Gilbert's dream began to live again in Baptist hearts, and nobody carried that dream more intensely than Isam B. Hodges. While a student at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, Texas, Hodges became convinced that it was God's will for him to begin a seminary in the West. In 1935, nine years after his graduation from seminary, he finally arrived in California. Two years later he became pastor of the Golden Gate Baptist Church in Oakland

Following the organization of the Southern Baptist General Convention of California in 1940, Hodges determined that the time was ripe to launch a western seminary. In the spring of 1944, the congregation of Golden Gate Baptist Church authorized its deacons to meet with a committee from the First Southern Baptist Church of San Francisco to formulate plans to establish a theological seminary. A few days later the committee formally agreed to organize the Seminary and applied to the State of California for a charter.

The charter was issued on July 12, 1944. Classes began September 4 in Golden Gate Baptist Church with 16 ministerial students enrolled, and the 85-year-old dream of a theological institute to train men and women for ministry was a reality. Hodges guided the school through that first year as its president and then stepped aside in November 1945 when the Southern Baptist General Convention of California accepted ownership of the school.

Dr. Benjamin O. Herring succeeded Hodges as president in 1946. During his tenure, the Seminary moved its campus to Berkeley, into a three-story brick building at Grove and Addison streets. The Seminary graduated 17 students in its first graduating class in 1949. In 1950, Herring was successful in guiding the Southern Baptist Convention to accept ownership of the school.

Dr. Harold K. Graves from Oklahoma succeeded Herring as president in 1952 and for the next quarter-century Golden Gate would undergo dramatic changes, which would allow it to become one of the finest theological seminaries in the world. Graves continued to expand the faculty and push for academic excellence while maintaining a warm-hearted biblical emphasis. He used the financial resources of the Southern Baptist Convention to lead in the acquisition of a new 148-acre campus site in Marin County. Moving the Seminary was a bold venture which would require the development and construction of all new facilities.

In 1959 the beautiful park-like campus was opened and classes were held for the first time on Strawberry Point, just 11 miles from where Harvey Gilbert attempted to begin a theological school a hundred years before. Graves also led in the establishment of the seminary's first regional campus in Southern California. He continued to lead the Seminary until he retired and became president emeritus in 1977.

Dr. William M. Pinson, Jr., pastor of the First Baptist Church of Wichita Falls, Texas, then became president. His five-year tenure saw the Seminary continue to expand its visibility. Pinson led in the establishment of the Seminary's regional campus in the Pacific Northwest. A steadily growing enrollment brought about the need for a new library and additional student housing. In 1982 Pinson left to become executive director of the Baptist General Convention of Texas.

Dr. Franklin D. Pollard, pastor of the First Baptist Church of San Antonio, Texas, was inaugurated as the fifth president of Golden Gate in 1983. During his three-year administration, the Seminary experienced significant growth. Pollard also led in a redevelopment of the Seminary master plan. He left in 1986 to become pastor of the First Baptist Church of Jackson, Mississippi.

Dr. William O. Crews, Jr. became the sixth president of Golden Gate in 1986. During Crew's tenure, the Seminary established two new campuses, one in Phoenix, Ariz. in 1995 and one in Denver, Colo. in 1996. The Seminary also achieved accreditation approval to offer full master's level degree at all five of the Seminary's campuses.

Dr. Jeff P. Iorg is the president emeritus (and immediate past president) of Gateway Seminary. He was formerly the executive director/treasurer of the Northwest Baptist Convention, prior to being elected the seventh president of Golden Gate Seminary in 2004. During his tenure, the Seminary launched the Partners for the Future Campaign, established online course offerings (which now includes all of Gateway's master's degrees offered 100 percent online), relaunched and reformatted the Seminary's online communication tools. Over the course of a two-year period in 2014-2016, he led the transition that involved moving the main campus from Mill Valley to Ontario and opening a new regional campus in Fremont, Calif., as well as the name change to Gateway Seminary. In 2023, Dr. Iorg initiated a transition process to search for a new president who would take our seminary into the next decade. In 2024, Dr. Iorg was elected as President of the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention. He continues to maintain an extensive speaking ministry—with the mission of shaping leaders who expand God's kingdom around the world.

Dr. Adam P. Groza was unanimously elected as president of Gateway Seminary in April 2024. Before becoming Gateway Seminary's eighth president, Dr. Groza served the seminary for 14 years as vice president of enrollment and student services and associate professor of philosophy of religion. He is a California native with a demonstrated passion for guiding future ministry leaders who are confident in the Word, competent to minister the Word, and who have character shaped by the Word.

All five of Gateway's campuses are located in North American Mission Board strategic Send cities, where churches serve 43 million people.

Since its founding, the Seminary has expanded its influence beyond its vast 11-state region and has conferred degrees on more than 10,000 men and women, many of whom are now involved in strategic ministries all over the globe as pastors, missionaries, chaplains, educators, church staff and workers in the fields of Christian service. Once a fledgling institution that began in a small church in Oakland, the vibrant Ontario, Calif., campus is now the nerve center for a seminary system that reflects its visionary heritage and looks forward to a bright future of kingdom work training men and women to take the gospel to the nations of the world.
