

Chosen By God
Chapter 7: Double, Double, Toil and Trouble

1. How did chapter 7 encourage, challenge, or inform you?

2. From pages 111-113. How does Sproul distinguish between active and passive hardening in the case of Pharaoh?
  - i. Which view accurately represents what God did to Pharaoh?

3. Read Romans 9:9-18 on pages 115-116. What is the important biblical illustration of the doctrine of election and reprobation in this passage?

4. From page 116. What does Scripture mean when it says that God hated Esau?

5. From page 118. Why is the phrase “though they were not yet born or had done nothing either good or bad” (Rom. 9:11) vital to our understanding of the reformed view of predestination?

6. From page 127, what is the one requirement we must meet before God will ever elect us?