

The Holy Eucharist: Rite II, Eucharistic Prayer A

The Fourth Sunday in Lent
March 15, 2026 • 10:15 a.m.

HOLY SPIRIT EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Worship lies at the heart of the Christian life. It is in worship that we express our theology and define our identity. It is through encountering God within worship that we are formed and transformed as the people of God. One of the glories of the Episcopal Church is its liturgical worship. Liturgy refers to the patterns, forms, words, and actions through which public worship is conducted.

The people's responses are in bold.

This type of note, offering directions about the service, is called a "rubric," which comes from the Latin word rubrica (red)—referring to a time when these instructional notes were always written in red.

The Word of God

THE ENTRANCE RITE

When the service is accompanied by music, it often begins with an instrumental piece of music, during which the congregation can prepare for worship.

PRELUDE

Diptych I: Prayer

Brenda Portman

We begin our worship as a gathered community by praising God in song. The people stand as able at the introduction to the hymn.

WELCOME

We acknowledge that our worship is taking place in the aboriginal territories of the Salish and Kalispel people.

LENTEN ACCLAMATION

The people standing, the Presider says

Bless the Lord who forgives all our sins.

People His mercy endures for ever.

THE COLLECT FOR PURITY

This prayer was an English rendering of a Latin prayer that began the liturgy in the medieval church before the Reformation. It remains a distinctive part of Episcopal worship to this day.

The Presider may say

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

OPENING ANTHEM

Lord, have mercy (Kyrie)

Sung by all

Kevin Hackett

The following is sung, all standing

THE KYRIE MAY BE FOUND ON THE NEXT PAGE.

Lord, have mer - cy.

Christ, have mer - cy. Lord, have mer - cy.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

The collect is the prayer appointed for each Sunday that “collects” or captures the theme of the day or season of the Church year. It summarizes the attributes of God as revealed in the scriptures for the day.

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

Gracious Father, whose blessed Son Jesus Christ came down from heaven to be the true bread which gives life to the world: Evermore give us this bread, that he may live in us, and we in him; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE LESSONS

The People are seated for the lessons, and when there is Godly Play, the children leave for Godly Play. The children will return for Holy Eucharist.

THE FIRST READING: 1 Samuel 16:1-13

This reading is typically from the Old Testament (Hebrew Scriptures) which Jesus knew and from which he often referred or quoted.

A Reading from the First Book of Samuel.

¹The LORD said to Samuel, “How long will you grieve over Saul? I have rejected him from being king over Israel. Fill your horn with oil and set out; I will send you to Jesse the Bethlehemite, for I have provided for myself a king among his sons.” ²Samuel said, “How can I go? If Saul hears of it, he will kill me.” And the LORD said, “Take a heifer with you, and say, ‘I have come to sacrifice to the LORD.’” ³Invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you what you shall do; and you shall anoint for me the one whom I name to you.” ⁴Samuel did what the LORD commanded, and came to Bethlehem. The elders of the city came to meet him trembling, and said, “Do you come peaceably?” ⁵He said, “Peaceably; I have come to sacrifice to the LORD; sanctify yourselves and come with me to the sacrifice.” And he sanctified Jesse and his sons and invited them to the sacrifice.

⁶When they came, he looked on Eliab and thought, “Surely the LORD’s anointed is now before the LORD.”
⁷But the LORD said to Samuel, “Do not look on his appearance or on the height of his stature, because I have rejected him; for the LORD does not see as mortals see; they look on the outward appearance, but the LORD looks on the heart.”⁸Then Jesse called Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. He said, “Neither has the LORD chosen this one.”⁹Then Jesse made Shammah pass by. And he said, “Neither has the LORD chosen this one.”¹⁰Jesse made seven of his sons pass before Samuel, and Samuel said to Jesse, “The LORD has not chosen any of these.”¹¹Samuel said to Jesse, “Are all your sons here?” And he said, “There remains yet the youngest, but he is keeping the sheep.” And Samuel said to Jesse, “Send and bring him; for we will not sit down until he comes here.”¹²He sent and brought him in. Now he was ruddy, and had beautiful eyes, and was handsome. The LORD said, “Rise and anoint him; for this is the one.”¹³Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed him in the presence of his brothers; and the spirit of the LORD came mightily upon David from that day forward. Samuel then set out and went to Ramah.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The People remain seated.

THE PSALM

The psalms are prayers that Jesus used and cover every mood of humanity’s relationship with God and one another.

Reader This morning and throughout Lent we will pray our Psalms in a different manner. I will begin and I invite you to pray responsively after the asterisk, reading the words in bold.

PSALM: Psalm 23

¹The LORD is my shepherd; *

I shall not be in want.

²He makes me lie down in green pastures *

and leads me beside still waters.

³He revives my soul *

and guides me along right pathways for his Name’s sake.

⁴Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I shall fear no evil; *

for you are with me;

your rod and your staff, they comfort me.

⁵You spread a table before me in the presence of those who trouble me; *

you have anointed my head with oil,

and my cup is running over.

⁶Surely your goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, * and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

THE SECOND READING: Ephesians 5:8-14

This reading, taken from the New Testament, is typically from a letter (epistle) to the early Church, the Acts of the Apostles, or the Revelation to John.

A Reading from Paul's letter to the Church in Ephesus.

⁸Once you were darkness, but now in the Lord you are light. Live as children of light—⁹for the fruit of the light is found in all that is good and right and true. ¹⁰Try to find out what is pleasing to the Lord. ¹¹Take no part in the unfruitful works of darkness, but instead expose them. ¹²For it is shameful even to mention what such people do secretly; ¹³but everything exposed by the light becomes visible, ¹⁴for everything that becomes visible is light.

Therefore it says,

“Sleeper, awake!

Rise from the dead,
and Christ will shine on you.”

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The People stand as able to sing the hymn.

SEQUENCE HYMN • #645

The King of love my shepherd is

Sung by all

Thomas Merton

The sequence hymn moves us toward the summit of the Liturgy of the Word—the reading of the Holy Gospel. Gospel means “good news”—specifically the “good news of Jesus.”

THE HOLY GOSPEL: John 9:1-41

This reading is taken from one of the four Gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John), which depict the life, teachings, death, resurrection and ascension of our Lord Jesus Christ. We stand for the Gospel reading to show the particular importance placed on Jesus' words and actions.

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

¹As [Jesus] walked along, he saw a man blind from birth. ²His disciples asked him, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?" ³Jesus answered, "Neither this man nor his parents sinned; he was born blind so that God's works might be revealed in him. ⁴We must work the works of him who sent me while it is day; night is coming when no one can work. ⁵As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world."

⁶When he had said this, he spat on the ground and made mud with the saliva and spread the mud on the man's eyes, ⁷saying to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam" (which means Sent). Then he went and washed and came back able to see. ⁸The neighbors and those who had seen him before as a beggar began to ask, "Is this not the man who used to sit and beg?" ⁹Some were saying, "It is he." Others were saying, "No, but it is someone like him." He kept saying, "I am the man." ¹⁰But they kept asking him, "Then how were your eyes opened?" ¹¹He answered, "The man called Jesus made mud, spread it on my eyes, and said to me, 'Go to Siloam and wash.' Then I went and washed and received my sight." ¹²They said to him, "Where is he?" He said, "I do not know."

¹³They brought to the Pharisees the man who had formerly been blind. ¹⁴Now it was a sabbath day when Jesus made the mud and opened his eyes. ¹⁵Then the Pharisees also began to ask him how he had received his sight. He said to them, "He put mud on my eyes. Then I washed, and now I see." ¹⁶Some of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God, for he does not observe the sabbath." But others said, "How can a man who is a sinner perform such signs?" And they were divided. ¹⁷So they said again to the blind man, "What do you say about him? It was your eyes he opened." He said, "He is a prophet."

¹⁸The Jews did not believe that he had been blind and had received his sight until they called the parents of the man who had received his sight ¹⁹and asked them, "Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How then does he now see?" ²⁰His parents answered, "We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind; ²¹but we do not know how it is that now he sees, nor do we know who opened his eyes. Ask him; he is of age. He will speak for himself." ²²His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jews; for the Jews had already agreed that anyone who confessed Jesus to be the Messiah would be put out of the synagogue. ²³Therefore his parents said, "He is of age; ask him."

²⁴So for the second time they called the man who had been blind, and they said to him, "Give glory to God! We know that this man is a sinner." ²⁵He answered, "I do not know whether he is a sinner. One thing I do know, that though I was blind, now I see." ²⁶They said to him, "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?" ²⁷He answered them, "I have told you already, and you would not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you also want to become his disciples?" ²⁸Then they reviled him, saying, "You are his disciple, but we are disciples of Moses. ²⁹We know that God has spoken to Moses, but as for this man, we do not know where he comes from." ³⁰The man answered, "Here is an astonishing thing! You do not know where he comes from, and yet he opened my eyes. ³¹We know that God does not listen to sinners, but he does listen to one who worships him and obeys his will. ³²Never since the world began has it been heard that anyone opened the eyes of a person born blind. ³³If this man were not from God, he could do nothing." ³⁴They answered him, "You were born entirely in sins, and are you trying to teach us?" And they drove him out.

³⁵Jesus heard that they had driven him out, and when he found him, he said, "Do you believe in the Son of Man?" ³⁶He answered, "And who is he, sir? Tell me, so that I may believe in him." ³⁷Jesus said to him, "You have seen him, and the one speaking with you is he." ³⁸He said, "Lord, I believe." And he worshiped him. ³⁹Jesus said, "I came into this world for judgment so that those who do not see may see, and those who do see may become blind." ⁴⁰Some of the Pharisees near him heard this and said to him, "Surely we are not blind, are we?" ⁴¹Jesus said to them, "If you were blind, you would not have sin. But now that you say, 'We see,' your sin remains."

The Gospel of our Lord.

People

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The People are seated at the invitation of the preacher.

THE SERMON

The sermon directly follows the Gospel because it is to be grounded in the scriptures. It illuminates the scriptural readings and relates them to daily life.

The Rev. Terri Ann Grotzinger

THE NICENE CREED

All say together.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

All remain standing, as able, or sit or kneel.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

We pray for ourselves and particularly on behalf of others. In our prayers we pray for the Universal Church, the nation and all who govern, the welfare of the world, the concerns of our community of faith, including those who are in need or suffer, and for the departed. We are reminded in prayer that we are part of a larger fellowship, the Church—the Body of Christ.

The People stand, as able, or sit or kneel.

Intercessor The Prayers of the People are guided by Form 1 found on page 383 of the Book of Common Prayer and in the service leaflet. Please pray them with me.

With all our heart and with all our mind, let us pray to the Lord, saying, “Lord, have mercy.”

For the peace of the world, for the welfare of the holy Church of God, and for the unity of all peoples, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For our Bishop, and for all the clergy and people, our siblings in the Anglican Cycle of Prayer in Anglican Church of Kenya and those in the Diocesan Cycle of Prayer in Calvary Episcopal Church and the community of Red Lodge, with Aimee Altizer as Rector and Hank Tuell as Deacon, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For our President, for the leaders of the nations, and for all in authority, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For this city and county of Missoula, for every city and community, and for those who live in them, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For the good earth which God has given us, and for the wisdom and will to conserve it, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For the aged and infirm, for the widowed and orphans, and for the sick and the suffering, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For those on our prayer list. Please pray silently for this group, and we invite you to take your leaflet home so you can continue to pray for them during the week.

Silence

The Presider adds a concluding Collect.

Almighty God, to whom our needs are known before we ask, help us to ask only what accords with your will; and those good things which we dare not, or in our blindness cannot ask, grant us for the sake of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CONFESSION OF SIN

The Deacon or Presider says

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence may be kept.

Minister and People

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,

have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Priest stands and says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

THE PEACE

All stand.

Presider The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The Ministers and People may greet one another in the name of the Lord.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

SEARCH COMMITTEE PRAYER FOR GUIDANCE

When this prayer is needed, the Presider and People say

O God, by whom the meek are guided in judgment, and light rises up in darkness for the godly; grant us, in all our doubts and uncertainties, the grace to ask what You would have us to do, that the Spirit of Wisdom may save us from false choices, and that in Your light we may see light, and in Your straight path may not stumble; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Holy Communion

THE OFFERTORY

Having listened to the Word of God, affirmed our faith, confessed our sins, received forgiveness and shared in the peace, we are prepared for the drama and miracle of the Holy Communion. At the offertory, we gratefully offer back to God some of what God has given us, symbolically in the bread and wine, and in the money we give.

The Celebrant may begin the Offertory with a sentence of Scripture.

All are invited to make a gift to support Holy Spirit's ministry of sharing God's love with our community and the world by texting HOLYSPIRITGIVE to (833) 714-3270 or by visiting <http://holyspiritmissoula.org/give/>. You may also put your gift in the offering plate or by scanning the QR code below to give to the General Fund:

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

In the Great Thanksgiving, we do what Jesus himself asked us to do: thank God and recall all that God has done for us in the life, death, and resurrection of Christ. The Great Thanksgiving, or Eucharistic Prayer, is a long prayer with four parts. Each of these four parts corresponds to a different action of Jesus at the Last Supper, where he took, blessed, broke, and gave bread and wine as sacraments of his body and blood. We begin the Great Thanksgiving with the Sursum corda, meaning "Lift up your hearts."

SURSUM CORDA

The People remain standing as able.

Celebrant	The Lord be with you.
People	And also with you.
Celebrant	Lift up your hearts.
People	We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant	Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People	It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Celebrant

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord, who was tempted in every way as we are, yet did not sin. By his grace we are able to triumph over every evil, and to live no longer for ourselves alone, but for him who died for us and rose again.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS • S 127

Holy, holy, holy

Sung by all

Calvin Hampton

The Sanctus (Holy, Holy, Holy) is the hymn of praise that never ceases before God and is based on Isaiah 6:3.

Celebrant and People

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, — hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. —

The People stand or kneel as able.

We recall God's acts of salvation history. The presider says the "Words of Institution" that Jesus said at the Last Supper. During the prayer, the Holy Spirit is invoked to bless and sanctify the gifts of bread and wine.

The Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious God: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, Almighty God, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

The Great Amen is when the congregation with a unified great voice concurs with all that the presider has prayed. It is the only "Amen" in all capitals found in the Book of Common Prayer, signifying the greatness of the congregation's response.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever. AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

We pray together the prayer that Jesus taught his disciples to pray.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

*The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.
A period of silence is kept. Then may be said*

FRACTION ANTHEM

Celebrant Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People Therefore let us keep the feast.

INVITATION

The Celebrant says

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

DISTRIBUTION OF COMMUNION

The ministers receive the Sacrament in both kinds, and then immediately deliver it to the people.

All who seek God and a deeper life in Christ are welcome to receive Holy Communion. Please receive the bread in open and outstretched hands and respond to receiving Communion by saying "Amen." Gluten-free wafers are available; please make your need known to the minister. Receiving the bread only is full participation in the Eucharist. Wine is also available, and you may drink from the common cup or dip your wafer in the intinction cup. If you prefer to receive a blessing instead, please indicate your choice by crossing your hands across your chest. Those who wish to have Holy Communion brought to them at their seat should notify an usher.

PRAYER FOR SENDING FORTH EUCHARISTIC VISITORS

When this prayer is needed, the Celebrant and People say

In the name of Holy Spirit Episcopal Church we send you forth bearing these holy gifts, that those to whom you go may share with us in the Communion of Christ's body and blood. We, who are many, are one body, because we all share one bread, one cup. Amen.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

After Communion, the Celebrant says

Let us pray.

Celebrant and People

Eternal God, heavenly Father,
 you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
 in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.

Send us now into the world in peace,
 and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you
 with gladness and singleness of heart;
 through Christ our Lord. Amen.

BLESSING

The priest blesses the people, saying

The blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

POST-COMMUNION HYMN • #493

O for a thousand tongues to sing

Sung by all

Azmon

1 O for a thou - sand tongues to sing my dear Re - deem - er's praise,
 2 My gra - cious Mas - ter and my God, as - sist me to pro - claim
 3 Je - sus! the Name that charms our fears and bids our sor - rows cease;
 4 He speaks; and, lis - tening to his voice, new life the dead re - ceive,
 5 Hear him, ye deaf; ye voice - less ones, your loos - ened tongues em - ploy;

1 the glo - ries of my God and King, the tri - umphs of his grace!
 2 and spread through all the earth a - broad the hon - ors of thy Name.
 3 'tis mu - sic in the sin - ner's ears, 'tis life and health and peace.
 4 the mourn - ful bro - ken hearts re - joice, the hum - ble poor be - lieve.
 5 ye blind, be - hold, your Sa - vior comes; and leap, ye lame, for joy!

6 Glory to God and praise and love be now and ever given
 by saints below and saints above,
 the Church in earth and heayen.

DISMISSAL

The Deacon, or the Celebrant, may dismiss the people with these words

Let us go forth into the world with the eyes and love of Christ.

People

Thanks be to God.

WE WELCOME THOSE NEW TO OUR WORSHIP!

Newcomers and guests are always welcome at Holy Spirit Episcopal Church. Our service today uses the service leaflet, and a service leaflet is also available online. The QR code to access the bulletin page of the website is available in the pews. Just scan it with the camera on your phone. We hope you will take a moment to complete the blue Visitor's Card found in the pew and place it in the offertory plate as it passes.

WALKING WITH JESUS IN GODLY PLAY THIS MARCH

We enter into the wilderness with Jesus for Godly Play in March, growing our faith as we walk in his footsteps through the scriptures. Come walk alongside us in the Tower Room during a portion of our 10:15AM services. Deacon Dorcie is your Godly Play point person to share some registration information and learn more.

RECTOR CANDIDATE VISIT ON SUNDAY, MARCH 22

The Search Committee has invited a second Rector candidate to visit Holy Spirit on Sunday, March 22, as part of our discernment process. This candidate has been vetted through two Zoom interviews and will meet in person with the Vestry, staff, and the Search Committee during their visit. They will also preside at both the 8:00 a.m. and 10:15 a.m. services that morning.

To give the 8:00 a.m. congregation an opportunity to greet the candidate, there will be a Coffee Hour in the Guild Room following the early service. A Coffee Hour will also take place as usual after services for the 10:15 congregation.

We ask for your understanding as we honor the candidate's request for confidentiality at this stage. Please make every effort to attend worship on March 22. Your presence and warm Holy Spirit welcome are deeply appreciated, and we encourage you to continue sharing your thoughts with members of the Search Committee as we move forward together.

HELP US CELEBRATE EASTER WITH FLOWERS

Please contact the church office at (406) 542-2167 if you would like to give toward the Easter flowers and remember a loved one or celebrate a special event in your life. Your prayers and memorials will be listed in the Easter service leaflets. Memorials may be sent to the church office at office@holyspiritmissoula.org. The deadline for submission of names for inclusion in the Easter service leaflets is Wednesday, March 18 at 9 a.m. Any amount is welcome.

WORKING FOR CREATION – A NEW CREATION SERIES FROM CREATION CARE

Join us Wednesday, March 18 at 6:30 pm in the Parish Hall for the first of the Working for Creation series presented by Creation Care. The series will highlight the Creation-related work or hobbies of Holy Spirit parishioners. Nate Jourdonnais will kick off the series with a presentation on his long-term research on Weddell seals in Antarctica's Erebus Bay: sharing experiences from two field seasons in one of Earth's most remote and extraordinary ecosystems.

If you have questions or suggestions for future presentations, contact Warren Gartner at kwgartner@sbcglobal.net or 317-872-2432.

HELP US TO WELCOME THE PARENTING PLACE FOR OUR MARCH 22 ALMS SUNDAY

Since 1981, The Parenting Place has been strengthening our community by working alongside families who are navigating the challenges and wonders of parenting, and service providers and business leaders who want to incorporate trauma-responsive practices into their lives and work. In 2025, Parenting Place worked with 197 parents/caregivers of 423 children in parenting classes and 1:1 Parent Aide visits. Trauma-informed trainings were also offered to 194 individuals from businesses and nonprofits. And 133 foster and program children received gifts through the Holiday Giving Tree at Donation Warehouse. As we look ahead to April as Child Abuse Prevention Month, let's learn from the Parenting Place about ways to engage with their strengthening and prevention efforts. Visit parentingplace.net for an overview of programs and initiatives, and for April prevention advocacy opportunities as they are posted. A special offering will be taken during worship on March 22, or you can give via Pushpay or online at holyspiritmissoula.org. Thank you for participating!

COMMUNITY CONCERNS NIGHT — WEDNESDAY, MARCH 25 AT 7 P.M.

Our March Community Concerns Night invites us to deepen our understanding of food systems and food insecurity by listening to those who know these challenges from the inside. We will be joined by participants in the Missoula Food Bank & Community Center's LEVL program (Lived Experiences, Voices, and Leaders), a group dedicated to lifting up the perspectives of neighbors whose stories often go unheard.

LEVL participants will speak about what they want our wider community to understand about food insecurity and the realities faced by families in Missoula. Staff from the Missoula Food Bank & Community Center will also be present to offer insight into policy issues and to discuss meaningful ways we can respond as a community. Please join us!

FOOD BANK FUNDRAISER AT THE LEVL COMMUNITY CONCERNS NIGHT — MARCH 25

At our Community Concerns Night on Wednesday, March 25, you'll have the opportunity to support neighbors facing food insecurity by making a financial gift to the Missoula Food Bank & Community Center. This time of year, donations typically dip, and every contribution makes a meaningful difference.

The Social Concerns Committee has generously offered to match donations up to $1,500, doubling the impact of your gift.

Ways to Give:

- At the event: Cash, card, or checks made out to Missoula Food Bank.
- Online via Pushpay: Select the "Missoula Food Bank" option from March 11–29.

Let's see if together we can meet — or even exceed — the committee's matching challenge!

JOIN OUR WOMEN'S GROUP: LIVING OUR FAITH TOGETHER

Looking for a welcoming space to grow in your faith alongside other women? Join our Practicalities of Faith group, where meaningful conversation and genuine community await you. All women are invited—bring a friend and experience support and inspiration together.

The group, led by Julie Benson, will meet on the following dates in the Guild Room from 1-2:30 p.m.:

March 25

Please come as you are available! Registration is not required.

JOIN US FOR A SPECIAL HOLY WEEK EDITION OF COMPLINE ON PALM SUNDAY

Please join us for a Holy Week edition of choral compline on Palm Sunday evening, March 29th at 8 PM. The Compline Choir will begin the service with Orlando Gibbons' 16th century setting of "Drop, drop, slow tears". Also included will be a beautiful contemporary anthem entitled "O Such Love, My Soul, Still Ponder". Interspersed through the service will be brief meditations on darkness and courage.

TELL US A STORY ...

We are beginning a new project to collect and share the stories of our parishioners: stories of what this church means to you, memories of meaningful moments, experiences of connection and friendship, and reflections on faith and community. We believe storytelling is a powerful way to celebrate and share the life of our church.

On March 29th and April 12th during Coffee Hour, we invite you to come to the Guild Room and share your story. We will record these conversations, and some stories will also be written into short narratives. With your permission, these stories will be shared on our website, social media, and in church publications as a way of expressing what it means to be part of Holy Spirit.

You don't need to prepare anything formal - just come as you are and speak from the heart. Whether your story is long or short, recent or from many years ago, it is an important part of who we are together.

SIGN UP FOR A CONVERSATION WITH HELLGATE STUDENTS

Monday, March 30 at 11:20 a.m.

We're partnering with the student government class at Hellgate High School for a fun "speed-dating-style" conversation. Fourteen parishioners and nonprofit friends will meet with the class's 14 students for brief, one-on-one conversations. The students are developing the questions—one suggestion was, "What do you wish we knew about your generation?"—but we'll see what they bring.

If you'd like to participate, please email mollybowler@gmail.com. Space is limited.

This project is coordinated by Tess Johnson, A'Lisa Scott, and Ann Wiltse, and we hope it's the beginning of many opportunities to get to know our neighbors at Hellgate.

SPRING MARKET UPDATE

How is your "40 Donations for the Spring Market" collection going? As you continue gathering items, please remember that we are looking for clean, unbroken, and usable donations such as: Vintage and Boutique Clothing, Accessories, Jewelry, Home Décor, Cookware, Dishes, Flatware and other Kitchen Items, Linens, Fabric, Yarn, Books, Sports and Camping Equipment, Luggage, Pet Accessories, and Small Furniture.

We will gratefully receive your treasures on Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday, May 3, 4, and 5. The sale takes place the following Friday and Saturday, May 8 and 9.

More details will be coming soon. Keep collecting—every item helps make the Market a success!

FOOD BANK MINISTRY OPPORTUNITIES

March Food Bank Donations

In March, we're focusing on breakfast favorites to help start our neighbors' mornings with comfort and nourishment. Please consider donating: Coffee and tea, Oatmeal, Boxed cereal, Syrup, Pancake mix, Jams and jellies, Honey, Pop-Tarts, Muffin mix, Juice, Granola bars, Nuts, raisins, and other dried fruit. Thank you for continuing to support the Missoula Food Bank with such steady generosity. Every item you share helps brighten someone's day.

SUPPORTING THE FUTURE OF CAMP MARSHALL

Camp Marshall is committed to ensuring that cost is never a barrier to anyone. Much of that is possible through donations to scholarships or the general fund. As we prepare for another great summer, we must also take into account rising food costs, paying our excellent staff, and of course, the maintenance of the beautiful grounds, buildings, and equipment. If you are a member of the diocese of Montana, an alumnus, or just a friend of the camp, we ask that you consider how you might provide for the future of Camp Marshall.
