Isaiah 9:2

Wesley Wilcox
 2025, Acrylic on canvas

Wesley writes: “‘The people walking in darkness have seen a great light; on those living in the land of deep darkness a light has dawned.’ Each morning, I begin my walk in darkness and return as the first hints of daylight are appearing. This piece is inspired by the hope of Isa. 9:2. Though the darkness can seem overwhelming, it will not last forever. The Light has come, and He is coming again, certain as the dawn.”

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who dwell in a land of deep darkness, on them has light shone. Isaiah 9:2

In Advent, we remember Christ’s first coming and reflect on the mystery of the Incarnation. It also teaches us to look eagerly for His second coming when He will return to redeem His creation and exercise His rule with all power and authority.

Keeping Watch

AC Tetterton
2025, Digital

AC states: “This piece depicts the moments before a shepherd boy and his lamb stumble upon Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. I imagine they snuck away from the adult shepherds because they were curious about what was happening in the stable. I feel it would be fitting for a child to be the first to discover Jesus.”

*When the angels went away from them into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, “Let us go over to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us.” And they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby lying in a manger.
Luke 2:15-16*

We are now celebrating the Season of Christmas, a time that helps us to remember Christ’s birth and celebrate the Incarnation! The birth of Jesus is the beginning of a pilgrimage through suffering and death to new life in Him.

All The Nations

Gordon Collier
2024, Acrylic on canvas

Gordon states, “All the Nations’ is an abstract acrylic on canvas that captures the beauty and diversity of a humanity that bears the image of God through bold colors and layered textures. Silhouetted figures, outlined in fluid strokes, stand together in a vibrant spectrum of reds, blues, yellows, and greens, suggesting unity amid difference. The background, alive with movement and energy, evokes the richness of culture and the interconnectedness of people across the world.”

After this I looked, and there before me was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, tribe, people and language, standing before the throne and before the Lamb. Revelation 7:9

Epiphany is a time that helps us to remember Jesus as the long-awaited Hebrew Messiah and His mission to the nations.

Flour and Water

Heather Glissman
2025, Photograph

Heather states, “The simple ingredients of bread do not equal the great joy of a completed loaf. In my journey as a baker I have found deep satisfaction to share the bread born out of the air of my kitchen and made with my hands. Baking fills me with peace and joy and connects me to my family tradition of hospitality. I am so thankful for the times that God has given me alone with Him (and flour and water) to listen and learn how faithful He is to me even if my bake day is not the success I wanted.”

Jesus said to them, “I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me shall not hunger, and whoever believes in me shall never thirst.”
John 6:35

Having celebrated the gift of the Holy Spirit to the Church at Pentecost, we are now in the season after Pentecost, known as “Ordinary Time” which signals the interim of the Church until Christ comes again in glory.
