MAY 1st- NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER POUR OUT TO THE GOD OF HOPE AND BE FILLED

Trinity will again be called to prayer as we join with others around the nation. Throughout the month of April we will have opportunity to sign up for a slot in the Trinity 24 hour prayer vigil. During the overnight hours people will pray at home with a written prayer guide. In the day- time hours, people will be encouraged to pray in the sanctuary with the assistance of an on- screen prayer guide. We pour out our hearts in prayer for our families, our church, our community, our state, and our country.

A SPECIAL GIFT FOR WORSHIP AND SHARING THE GOSPEL

A gift of $25,000 shared by Eloise and Randy Kemmerling (In loving memory of mom, Doris Bair) is significantly going to transform our worship experiences in Fellowship Hall. Heart-touching videos to go with the words sung in worship are known to have a deeply moving impact on worshippers. The LED wall that will be installed will also give opportunity to radically transform how we communicate with kids at VBS, host movie nights for the congregation and friends, make our “Touch-Life Concerts” more impactful and help us with reaching lives through our online teaching ministries. Join us in rejoicing and praying for our efforts to reach God’s world with God’s Word.

WHY ARE YOUR QUESTIONS IMPORTANT TO GOD? SIMPLE. BECAUSE YOU ARE PRECIOUS TO HIM.

As your Pastor I would like to begin a preaching series based on the top, most-asked questions from our congregation about our walk with the Lord. The topics can span Biblical questions, practical life-issues, doubts, hard-to-reconcile concepts, or even a happy fun question (Like what does the pastor do to keep his bald spot shinning? No, sparkling! Well, tough luck, such questions will come with a $1 fee to restore the hair I will lose in trying to answer them) Just kidding.

I plan to begin this series in May 2025 so, let’s get to work. I will seek to address the top most-asked questions based on your submissions. Please drop your questions into the Question Box in the lobby/ Genesis Room or e-mail them to pastor@triniyonbridge.com (Please enter in subject line: My question). Should you desire a personal response to your question, or prayer, or pastoral support, please write your name with your question.

Pray for me
as I take the hot seat!
All for JESUS and for your added strength in the journey.

THE PRAISE CORNER

by Todd Davis

“Christ Jesus Lay in Death’s Strong Bands”

*“Christ Jesus lay in death’s strong bands, for our offenses given;
but now at God’s right hand He stands, and brings us life from heaven;
wherefore let us joyful be, and sing to God right thankfully loud songs of Alleluia! Alleluia!”*

(Words: Martin Luther, 1524; Music: Geistliche Gesangchlein, 1524)

CHOIRS Lent will soon come to an end. We will move through Holy Week and celebrate Easter morning with grand and triumphant musical tones! Be it Lent, Easter, Pentecost, Advent, Christmas, Epiphany, or Ordinary Time, the seasons of the church recall the saving work of Christ with sacred remembrance, shape our faith, and tell the story of Jesus and his love. This story is indeed TOO wonderful not to repeat!

In our music, we follow the story of Jesus and His love throughout the seasons of the church year. The Chancel Choir has sung great texts during the Lenten season: Psalm 51 and “Kyrie Eleison” (Lord, have mercy...). On Palm Sunday, the choir will sing, “Hosanna to the Son of David,” an arrangement by Hal Hopson of a Handel anthem. Our children will also sing in this service. On Maundy Thursday, the choir will sing, “Behold Him in Dark Gethsemane,” by Jay Althouse. Good Friday will feature selected works from Joseph Martin’s cantata, “A Time for Alleluia.” On Easter morning, there will be several anthems presented by the Chancel Choir and Handbell Choir. There will also be music for eight-hand piano with trumpet and timpani, and more!

MIDWEEK MUSIC CONCERTS Midweek Music concerts continue! This month, we’ll celebrate Easter and spring music! Concerts are on Wednesdays at noon and last approximately 30-40 minutes. Many, many thanks to everyone who attends and watches online! From music to trivia to jokes, and even some poetry, we offer worship through music, reading Scripture, and praying. Come for all of this and come for the fun!

CONCERT SERIES The music ministry is working towards hosting the Messiah University Concert Choir. No date has been finalized yet; although, it may very well be the Fall of 2025 or the Spring of 2026. Also, the Hershey Handbell Ensemble will present a concert on April 24, 2026. Please plan to attend these very special events!

SCRIPTURE AND SONG Please note that the church’s website has a link titled “Scripture and Song.” The link is updated often! The selections you hear are brief, original meditations on a particular hymn and its related scripture.

CHRIST JESUS LAY IN DEATH’S STRONG BANDS (UMH 319) This is a hymn I particularly like. Simply put, the hymn is an unequivocal statement of joyous faith and our response to this good news! Although we do not sing it, I strongly urge you to read the text and listen to it. Many great pieces were written on this hymn, including works by Johann Sebastian Bach, namely Cantata No. 4.

Is there a way for you to praise the Lord through music? Feel free, anytime, to contact me directly!

Farewell to Miss Gen and Rylen!

Thanks for being such a wonderful teacher and friend, Miss Gen! Trinity’s Youth Group

ABIDE IN HIM by Jamie Bream

"I am the vine, and you are the branches. If you stay joined to Me, and I stay joined to you, then you will produce lots of fruit. But you cannot do anything without Me." John 15:5 (CEV)

It's no secret that I spend a fair amount of time each week leading worship, whether at Trinity or elsewhere. Not long ago, I had the opportunity to play keys for a two-day youth conference at Christian Life Assembly, the theme of which was "Abide In Him", reflective of Jesus' words in John 15:5. While the constant click of the metronome in my ears and the worship team's text thread going off every five seconds made it difficult to actually follow along with the messages, the theme itself has stuck with me for the past several weeks (it might help that I have a t-shirt with the theme printed on its front - it's quite comfortable, too!). So, I thought I'd share some of my thoughts on this topic.

At its core, the concept of "abide" is pretty simple - the dictionary defines it as "to bear patiently, to endure without yielding, to wait for." Essentially, abiding is waiting with a hopeful outlook, which makes sense in a Christian context: we best abide in Jesus when we spend time with Jesus while hoping for more of Jesus! However, this is far from our default stance. In fact, it is probably the direct opposite. I don't know about you, but there aren't many days when, given the choice, abiding in Christ is my first preference. More often I'd rather spend time with friends, take a walk, write a new song, or simply sleep in a bit more! And, leading worship certainly isn't a "get-out-of-jail-free" card (or, maybe better phrased as "stay-in-jail-with-Jesus card") when it comes to abiding. There has been more than one occasion where I've been leading a song about going deeper in our faith while personally feeling more shallow in mine than ever. That's why I value the times when I can attend a church service or a retreat as part of the audience rather than the worship team. As much as I am called to lead and enjoy leading worship, being able to sing out without having to worry about the correct pitches or even lyrics gives me the opportunity to simply focus on abiding in God's presence. In fact, I will often stop singing completely and start praying instead because that feels to be the only appropriate response to all that Jesus has done for me. For more than one reason, this can be very difficult to do while leading worship, whether as the main leader or as part of the team.

Abiding in Christ is the same "living sacrifice" scenario Paul writes about in Romans 12. As opposed to a dead sacrifice, a living sacrifice is constantly trying to crawl off the altar in search of better things. As the sacrifice ourselves, we must make the choice to remain on the altar in pursuit of the things of Heaven rather than pursuing the things of Earth. That's why Jesus uses the designation "if", not "when", when He speaks these words. It's not a guarantee that we will "stay joined to [Him]," as the CEV states. But we must. Think of things that can become unjoined - for example, branches from trees, train cars from each other, and bracelets or necklaces from themselves. What happens if these things will not stay joined together? More often than not, they are disposed of, as Jesus warns in the very next verse: "If you don't stay joined to Me, you will be thrown away. You will be like dry branches that are gathered up and burned in a fire." Choose to abide in Him, as James states: "Draw near to God, and He will draw near to You" (ESV). Remain joined to Him, and live.

GRANDPARENTS IN PRAYER ATTEND LEGACY SUMMIT

Fourteen grandparents from Trinity joined approximately 100 grandparents in Dillsburg for an awesome grandparenting summit on Saturday, February 22nd. The theme was “For This Purpose”, and founder Larry Fowler challenged grandparents with this statement:

“I believe there is a heaven, don’t you? And I believe it will be better than life here on earth. I also believe God wants the best for you and me. With those thoughts in mind, the question I ask is, if God wants the best for me, and heaven is better than life on earth, then why am I still here?”

We were challenged throughout the day with practical and spiritually ideas of how to fulfill our purpose as Christian grandparents. The summit was simulcast to churches throughout the United States and Canada. We heard nationally known speakers and were able to follow along with a provided workbook. We had food, snacks, and prizes all day long! We all left feeling better equipped to fulfill our purpose as Christian grandparents. It is our hope and prayer that Trinity can be a summit site in 2026.
