

February 2024

JESUS, my valentine!

OUR ONLY GOAL IS TO PLEASE GOD... 2 CORINTHIANS 5:9A (ICB)***

My dear Trinity Family,

As we approach another Lenten season with the celebration of Ash Wednesday on February 14th, we come to a special convergence. It will be Valentine's Day as well! Ash Wednesday reminds us of our need for repentance and Valentine's Day reminds us of our need for love. Pastor Rick Warren says, "Repentance is when you start rethinking your life in order to match how Jesus thinks." <sup>1</sup> In our preaching series from the Gospel of Mark, our theme for February is, "Jesus, my Valentine." Earlier today I was listening to a Jerry Lee Lewis song which I heard as a teenager on my dad's gramophone. Here are some of the words:

One has my name, the other has my heart
With one I'll remain, that's how my heartaches start
One has brown eyes, the other's eyes are blue
To one I am tied, to the other I am true

One that has my love and the other only me
But what good is love to a heart that can't be free
If I could live over, my life I would change
The one who has my heart would also have my name.

Lewis captures the problem of a divided heart with song-writer precision. As in the song, so in life. The problem with a divided heart is that it is a train-wreck waiting to happen. The writing on the wall of many a celebrity life tragically highlights the pain and problems caused by divided hearts.

Love is central in our relationship with God. The God of the Bible is the only one who is as crazy as he is about you and me. It blows our minds that he did not envisage happiness without us. If he had, he would have never created us! The whole saga of the Biblical narrative is that of a God who longs for the love of his children. His social media handle probably reads, "I have loved you with an everlasting love." Jeremiah 31:3

Have you lately felt the longing of God? Have you recognized his longing to sense your longing for him? Oh, how God loves to be loved by you. How he yearns for you to yearn for him. As a loving parent delights in the love of a child, God delights in you. His word tells us that God sings and dances over his children (Zephaniah 3:17). Isn't that amazing?

Lord, give me an undivided heart. Psalm 86:11

In his love,
Arun

NEW CHURCH SERVICE TIMES – PASTORAL COMMENTS.

Change is easy if it is not sub-zero!

That's my "two pennies worth" confession about the problem of change! I might like sub-zero temperatures in my ice-cream, but not so much in the weather. Snow yes. Below freezing temperatures...Mmm! Moving from a city (that averaged temperatures in the mid 70s to 80's much of the year), to Central PA was a change that sent the Andrews family hunting for stuff like Eskimo outfits!! You might remember seeing us in the winter of 2014, wrapped up like Egyptian mummies - layer-upon-layer. Some of you might have worried about our center of gravity because we were all bound up like Lazarus and you might have wondered, "who knows if just a strong wind might cause these new Indians to lose balance!"

We survived! And today we dress as light as we might have feared to in 2014! As I write this letter, we are facing predictions for what appears to be our coldest week thus far this winter - with temperatures lowering to the teens if not single digits in some parts of PA. We'll get through it – and even enjoy the breathtaking views of snow-clad hills, trees, and gardens. Pennsylvania did not magically morph to become a sunshine State like Florida but we as a family have grown to adapt to our context and truth be told, I might be the one who wins the "love the snow" award in the family.

Speaking of change, I think of the recent survey that we have had about the change of church service times. I do want to thank everyone who helped us go through this process, especially Beth Sider, chair of the worship team, and Shirley Sharpe, chair of the leadership team and all who serve on both teams. We are grateful to each of you who participated in the survey.

As I mentioned in our church services on January 14, we try our best in conversations like this to value everyone's opinions. We appeal to those of you who expressed reservations about the change. Please know that you are valued and loved. I pray very much and hope you will be able to cope with the change. As we look back into time, I think of two changes that Trinity experienced and of how we as a congregation have by God's grace and your graciousness moved ahead on account of them for the common good. One was in the installation of the screens in the sanctuary. I remember hearing firm resistance to such a thought in the early years of my ministry here. I had to wait and pray for about five years to see change happen. Some of you might know that I had served a church in Bangalore India, where we had screens with the latest media technology in 2001. Sometimes, waiting for change from a leader's desk can be challenging. But I was blessed to work with a leadership team that came along patiently and prayerfully to see your trust as a congregation allow us to make the changes. It was gracious of some of you (who had feared this change) to come and tell me later of how you ultimately appreciated the change in view of its benefits for our common experience of worship. I am aware even after the screens have been up that some of you will always be more of "bulletin people" and others of you will be more of "screen people", but the beauty is that when we come together, we are all still God's people.

Another significant change was the inauguration of Revive, (our contemporary worship service) in February of 2023. It has encouraged me greatly to see those of you, who have mostly been comfortable with traditional forms of worship, join us in worship at Revive. Thank you for your prayers, support, and encouragement as a congregation to this step that has brought new families and individuals to Trinity and is blessing our young people with the joy of worshipping in a music language that is close to their hearts.

Change is easy if it is not sub-zero!

I don't like the thought too much that a plowable snow is predicted tonight. Nevertheless, I am getting ready with our snow-blower, a warm pair of gloves, winter apparel, a cap, and boots. I am going to try and enjoy the snow like it is another Christmas in January.

All for Jesus,
Arun

P.S: During our survey about the possibility of church timing changes, we received a letter from Thomas Bowman, which we are sharing with you with his permission. Thanks for modeling how you embrace change for the common good, Tom. Your line, "Trinity is most important to me, and I desperately want to see it survive" will stay in our hearts for long. If Trinity has come through challenges as cited in his letter, it is all because of the Lord and we give HIM alone the glory. We are eyewitnesses of his majesty. (2 Peter 1:16)

Dear Worship Committee,

As a grouchy, set in my ways old guy who does not like change, I am responding to the stated survey.

Prior to the arrival of Pastor Arun to Trinity Church I was convinced that in five years we would be turning out the lights and locking the doors. Fortunately I was wrong, Pastor Arun has done a great job in keeping Trinity alive and having an impact on New Cumberland and the surrounding area, but the reality is that our attendance is down as it is in most Churches.

Trinity is most important to me and I desperately want to see it survive. Therefore, although I dislike change, I heartily endorse any changes the Worship Committee desires to make to bring more individuals to Trinity.

Sincerely, Thomas A. Bowman

CHANGE IN SERVICE TIMES

Thank you for your prayerful and thoughtful replies to the church survey concerning a change in the Sunday schedule and service times. 122 people replied - that counts each person, and not each survey, for some answered for multiple people in their family. 89% said you are willing to support a trial period, and 11% have reservations.

At the Worship Committee meeting this past Monday, we had a useful and detailed conversation considering the proposal in light of the surveys. At the end of the discussion, everyone supported recommending a trial period. We took the recommendation to the Leadership Team, and the Leadership Team approved the trial period.

We believe the times for the services best serve both the traditional service and Revive. The Adult Sunday School class will meet from 8:30-9:30. The traditional sanctuary worship will be at 9:30. Coffee Fellowship will be between the traditional service and Revive, from 10:30 to 11:00. Coffee Fellowship is our time to all be together and learn to know one another. There are approximately 26 people, new to Trinity, coming to Revive over the past year, and there are approximately 20 people, new to Trinity, coming to the traditional services.

All of the surveys were read and we are addressing some of your concerns within this time frame. For instance, we will be staffing the nursery during Revive and Children's SS for those children age 5 and under. Children are welcome at Coffee Fellowship and then they will go to Sunday School after Coffee Fellowship. Revive and Children's Sunday School will begin at 11:00. The nursery will be staffed during both the 9:30 and 11:00 services.

The trial period will begin the first Sunday of February, which is Feb. 4th, and continue to the last Sunday of April. At that time, we will again conduct a survey to get your feedback on the schedule.

Thank you as we strive to be a Christ-centered, Bible-believing, Community-focused, and Caring Church.

February 15th Time for pick up 10:30 AM

Food Items Needed: soups, veg. fruit, oatmeal, cereal, dry spaghetti, spaghetti sauce, etc. Put on table in upstairs hallway.

Have you ever reflected on what you would do without God, family, friends, church, a warm home etc.? Over the past year we have all experienced sadness including myself in the loss of my dear husband Randy and even this not so nice word COVID but, we all persevered. Our team can tell you all these families praise God and Trinity friends. 3,000 Love Boxes have been given as of December 31st. Blessings to all from Carol Evertts and The Love Box Team

ASH WEDNESDAY SERVICE

Ash Wednesday begins Lent on February 14th. The Ash Wednesday service will be in the sanctuary at 7 PM. Pastor Carl Peterson and Pastor Raymond Brooks will be conducting the imposition of ashes. The imposition of ashes is a sign of our mortality. It is also a call to repentance and reconciliation. Pastor John Smith will preach and Todd Davis will direct the music.

SUNNIER SIDE OF SIXTY

The Sunnier Side of Sixty service will be on Tuesday, February 27th at 2 PM. The Trinity theme for 2024 is “All for Jesus- Making a Difference”. The February Sunnier Side of Sixty theme is “Making a Difference with your Talents”. Preaching will be Trinity ministerial son, Rev. Raymond Brooks. Ministering in music will be the guitar duo, Todd Davis and Lorie Nowaczka. Communion will be served in the pews by Pastor Peterson, Pastor Ken Meyer, Bishop Pauline Peifer, and Pastor Arun. Fellowship time will follow in the Fellowship Hall and be hosted by Carol Everetts and the Trinity volunteers. All are welcome to attend this abbreviated service and fellowship time.

CHRISTMAS EVE LIGHTS

Thanks to those who helped with the candles on Christmas Eve. Dianne Schofield prepared the individual candles for all to hold during the singing of “Silent Night.” The ushers wiped the candles down between the two services. Jeff and Charlotte Wagoner prepared the candelabras that were used in the sanctuary on Christmas Eve. Thank you to all who helped spread the light!

GRANDPARENTS IN PRAYER AND THEIR PRAYER BUDDY

Members of grandparents in prayer (GIP) visited our youth group in a rescheduled Christmas celebration on 01.10.2024. They have been praying for individual youth as “prayer buddies”.

Armed with gift bags, hand written encouragement, a true spirit of love and prayer, they warmed the hearts of our youth. Jan Snyder, coordinator of our youth ministry hosted a good dinner, and we heard from adults and youth about their faith experiences and gratitude. “When I was in youth group...” brought back precious memories of those who had invested in the lives of our grandparents when they were younger. Beth Sider, coordinator of GIP led in a time of prayer and shared words of encouragement.

Youth and grandparents sat at dinner together with their prayer buddies - committed to pray for one another in the journey of following Jesus.

Pastor Arun led our youth in a craft where they were challenged to focus on “one thing” that they desire to grow in/change/ improve in relation to their walk with God in 2024. We saw creativity and sincerity show up in the craft. The youth gifted their craft to their respective prayer buddy grandparents. After this time together, the youth were led in a conversation/time of prayer by Pastor Arun based on the Sunday sermon from Mark 1:1-8.

A great and edifying evening. Thanks to our adult leaders Jan Snyder, Sue Grubb, Gen Lupold, Dr. Jim and Jody Blacksmith who were present. Pastor Arun is committed to being present at all youth sessions.

WHO ARE YOU WORKING FOR? by Jamie Bream

*“Do you see a man skilled in his work? He will stand in the presence of kings.
He will not stand in the presence of unknown men.” Proverbs 22:29 (HCSB)*

Michael Jordan is undoubtedly one of the greatest basketball players of all time. During his fifteen seasons playing in the NBA, he scored 32,292 points, was selected for the NBA All-Star game fourteen times, and won six national championships with the Chicago Bulls (at all of which he was named MVP, as well). In addition, he won gold medals representing the United States in men's basketball at both the 1984 and 1992 Summer Olympics. However, basketball did not always come so naturally to Jordan – in fact, he was cut from his high school varsity team when he tried out his sophomore year. Unwilling to give up, he began a vigorous workout routine that, coupled with a 4” growth spurt, enabled him to make the team the following year and eventually led him to be named a McDonald's All-American his senior year. Even after being drafted by the Bulls in 1984, he continued to work on perfecting his skills. “Jordan's defining characteristic wasn't his talent, but having the humility to know he had to work constantly to be the best” former Bulls coach Phil Jackson once stated. “When Jordan first entered the league, his jump shot wasn't good enough. He spent his offseason taking hundreds of jumpers a day until it was perfect” (Business Insider, 2012).

Michael Jordan's story embodies the concept found in Proverbs 22:29 – after working day after day and year after year to become skilled in his work, he became a household name throughout America (if not the world) and has, quite literally, stood in the presence of our country's leaders. However, there is another piece to this puzzle – the reason we work diligently at what we do. Paul gives us this reason in his letter to the church at Colossae: “Whatever you do, do it enthusiastically, as something done for the Lord and not for men, knowing that you will receive the reward of an inheritance from the Lord. You serve the Lord Christ” (Colossians 3:23-24). Fellow Christian, we will one day stand before the King of kings, but until then, we have been instructed to work skillfully and enthusiastically so that we can give God glory through the outcome of our labor. So, whatever you do, whether it be teaching, accounting, performing, or something in between, do it to the very best of your ability and to the glory of God alone.

THOUGHTS TO CONSIDER:

- Michael Jordan probably didn't understand the reason for his setback in high school, but he used it to motivate himself to success rather than letting it keep him down. What setbacks have you encountered in your professional life, and did you use them as motivation to try again instead of allowing them to define you? Or, did you see God use them to take your life in a different direction?
- Do you approach each day with the mindset of “working for the Lord and not for men”, even when you are doing things you don't enjoy?

Cross cultured. When his last words have the last word.
Saturday, February 17th - Saturday, March 23rd @8 AM

How could a dying Savior inspire so much for living? History is replete with evidence that the cross of Christ has moved the hardest hearts, soothed troubled hearts, inspired doubting hearts, and launched unsure hearts on missions that would change the world. Join us in this series where we learn how to be cultured by the cross- not by the culture of the world. In “Cross cultured,” we will learn life-transforming lessons from the statements that Jesus made from the cross.

Inviting men, women and youth. A sumptuous breakfast, sweet fellowship, Bible studies and prayer. Register on sign up sheet available across the mailboxes, online, call or e-mail office@trinityonbridge.com

THE PRAISE CORNER - HAPPY FEBRUARY! by Todd Davis

*“Have thine own way, Lord! Have thine own way!
Thou art the potter; I am the clay.
Mold me and make me after thy will,
while I am waiting, yielded and still.”*

(Words: Adelaide A. Pollard, 1902; Music: George C. Stebbins, 1907)

HAVE THINE OWN WAY, LORD

The hymn quoted above is found in The United Methodist Hymnal, #382. It continues with three additional stanzas, each reflecting a different prayer concern. In total, there are 11 petitions. These include “Mold me,” “Search me,” “Touch me,” “Heal me.” The conclusions of stanzas 1 & 2 places us in a prayer position, “yielded and still,” “humbly I bow.” This hymn is my prayer throughout the Lenten season. I hope to find quiet rest to speak with God, to listen for his voice as much as he listens to mine, and to know and do His will.

CHOIRS

It’s only February; is it time to think about Easter, already? Yes, it is! Rehearsals take time, and sometimes a lot of time to properly learn an anthem. This year, on Palm Sunday (March 24th) and throughout Holy Week, the Chancel Choir will present “Worthy Is the Lamb” by Lloyd Larson. Narrations and music draw us deep into the events of Holy Week and Easter. The cantata culminates on Easter morning with several glorious anthems! Please join us!

MIDWEEK MUSIC CONCERTS

Midweek Music concerts continue! Many, many thanks to everyone who attends and watches online! This month, as Easter is early (March 31), we transition to Lenten music quickly. Also, we continue with our reading of the Psalms. Concerts are on Wednesdays at noon and last approximately 30-40 minutes. Come for the reading of Holy Scripture, prayer, great music, and of course, the fun!

Soli Deo Gloria!

IN JOY: CHRISTMAS MUSICALE RESCHEDULED- JANUARY 14, 2024

A cold windy day was made special by a committed team of worshippers who led us to the heart of what Christmas means. Thank you Todd Davis, Wilma Rockey, members of our Chancel Choir and United Bells. Grateful to Beth Sider and Jane Bittner for joining Kendall and Todd in the 8 hand piano treat - a beautiful arrangement by Todd Davis! Thank you for coming down to earth to save us, Lord Jesus.

KIDS FOR CHRIST

Somewhere years from now there will be young people we nurtured at Trinity who will be making a kingdom difference in this country and in our world. We are excited for every kid in our children’s ministry. We pray each of them will understand how much God loves them and how much their Trinity Family cares for them. We pray they will be rooted and established in God’s Word. We are grateful for the ministry of our teachers and volunteers Wilma Rockey, Dianne Schofield, Charlotte Wagoner, Betty Caboot, Nina Stoner, Cindy Bailey, Genevieve Lupold, Marissa Gable, Laura Whitcomb, Deb Smith, Rose Murray, Amy Blakeley, Lucille Martinez, and Kavitha Kanakaraj. We appreciate our coordinator Miriam Andrews who is seeking to organize the sessions 6 - 8 weeks ahead, give teacher’s their teaching material with craft ideas. Miriam has also recently invited and welcomed on board new hands to the team, namely Betty Caboot, Kathy Karnes, Marissa Gable, Laura Whitcomb, and Kavitha Kanakaraj. Thanks for your prayers and support to this crucial ministry. Our kids are awesome. We love them!!!

A MIRACLE FOR BELLA

My mom loved her little yorkie named Bella - she was so cute (about 13-14 years of age). Mom's health began to fail in late 2022. We found a wonderful independent living apartment for her that would allow her to keep little Bella. Less than a week before her move date her heart and kidney doctors told her it was time to involve Hospice to help manage her health. With this latest information she decided "not to move" but to stay in her home. The Hospice staff was so kind and for several months mom was considered "stable" - all vitals were good. In mid-November of 2023 she started to decline quickly and was rushed to the hospital; the prognosis was not good. I was overwhelmed on so many levels, but a BIG worry was Bella. What was I going to do? I'm not home most of the time and my husband is still working. Bella was so used to having mom with her 24/7. As I was sitting with mom the next morning her Hospice Pastor called me, and her words were "if something should happen to your mom my husband and I would consider it a privilege to foster Bella. And, if it works out adopt her permanently". God's answer to my prayer was at the exact right time with the exact right person. Once again, I was overwhelmed, but this time with gratitude. I believe mom understood everything I whispered to her because it was within an hour after I told her that Bella had a home she passed away. It is working out great with Bella. As you can see by the photo, she is very spoiled and very cozy already! Isn't God just so absolutely AWESOME! Sharon Marburger (Inspired to share because of Testimony Sunday)

MY MEMORABLE TRINITY MOMENTS

From memories shared at our 150 anniversary dinner

“What first brought me to Trinity was to hear my daughter-in-law, Michelle Loomis sing. It was being there with family, which brought many memorable moments. Pastor Arun, Trinity music, the congregation and missions all wrapped into one.” Carol Crossley

“Christmas Eve Service 1974 – My oldest son was baby Jesus. Too bad no one thought of bringing a camera and that was way before cell phones.” Michelle Bashore Hartsock

“On our first Sunday as Co-Ministers of Music at Trinity, a scene is still in my mind. We would walk into the choir room and Cathy Baum was coming from the other direction. She opened her arms and gave Ron a big hug. She was someone whom we had never met. It made us feel welcomed, and we found out quickly that Trinity is a friendly place.” Beth Sider

“I was asked to play an organ recital for the 100th Anniversary of Trinity Church on April 29, 1973. My daughter, Rhonda Sider Edgington, played a 150th Concert on October 15th, 2023.” Ronald Sider

“I remember I had a wonderful time at the celebration down at the cemetery and I love all the members of this Church fondly.” Rose Murray

“A memorable moment was when Rhoda & Mark Houser decided to get married. They chose to have their ceremony on Sunday morning at 2nd Service so that their Trinity family could be present.” Jan Ocamb

When I took the class to join Trinity led by Pastor Arun, He asked us to memorize Jeremiah 29:11, which I did and refer to it often. Because of the recent diverse pathways that are presented to our son, Ped Jr & Lori, I passed Jeremiah 29:11 to them: " For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." They have taken this as their mantra. Thank you Pastor Arun! by Linda Young
