

Happy Thanksgiving, dear friend!

Before I wrote this letter, I paused to pray for you. My prayer was simple. It was a prayer for true contentment. I believe the prayer was inspired by the times of Bible reading and devotions that I experienced in two different settings today. First during our family prayer time earlier this morning and later, at a breakfast fellowship with “the three sinners”. Well, it was a title they gave themselves and I did not have the power to contest it, so we will for the future be called “The three sinners plus one fellowship”. God bless those three dear friends, Tom Bowman, Irv Kiehl, and Jed Beshore. As we sat and read the Bible passage from Ecclesiastes 5:13-20, we focused on the section in verses 19 and 20: “Moreover, when God gives someone wealth and possessions, and the ability to enjoy them, to accept their lot and be happy in their toil—this is a gift of God. They seldom reflect on the days of their life, because God keeps them occupied with gladness of heart.”

As we reflected upon those rich words of promise, “God keeps them occupied with gladness of heart,” we each one shared from our lives. It was a precious time with real-life insights from each one at the table. What Tom said lingers: “I don’t care about money. It is there for us to use. All through my life, I did not focus on it.” On the other hand, Tom focused on something simple: tomato ketchup. Yes, that’s right. He loves tomato ketchup. Companies like Heinz, Hunt’s, and Del Monte make it to the big business league because of tomato ketchup-loyalists like Tom. He doesn’t eat without tomato ketchup. He just can’t! As he reflected about the past, he told us about a restaurant out of the area that he used to visit regularly many years ago. One day, a waitress did the unthinkable: she decided that Tom Bowman was having too much ketchup and curtly removed the ketchup from his table. That waitress knew little or nothing about customer relationship management. That was the last they saw of Tom at the restaurant. Bottom line: Life is much more than just money, but make no mistake about it - ketchup counts!

As a pastor, I am privileged to learn at the table of the experienced. There was a lot more we talked about – all the good stuff. We parted with gratitude. Our waitress got a good tip. You guessed it, she had not dared to remove that ketchup bottle! Was I not blessed to be in fellowship with those three wonderful men? God had indeed kept us occupied with gladness of heart on a crisp fall morning.

Speaking of fellowship, we experienced something heartwarming in our small group on Tuesday October 7th . Just minutes into our readings from the book of James, one of our group members shared deep things from the heart. That opened the door for others in the group to feel comfortable to share from their lives as well. It ended up being one of the most authentic, refreshing, and hopeful times of Bible study and prayer. I walked away that night rejoicing in the fact that God was writing new life-stories at Trinity. It was a great way to end the 59th year of my life on the planet. In the company of people just like me. God had indeed kept us occupied with gladness of heart on a nice fall evening.

Yesterday was my 60th birthday. My parents were the first ones to call and wish me a happy birthday. They told me how blessed they felt to be able to look back sixty years in time and see the faithfulness of God. I feel equally blessed to have them in my life. Calling them every day on the telephone is a privilege that I seldom miss. It was a good day yesterday. I began the morning by taking Jeff Brinton out for breakfast. Jeff and I share the same birthday. Having been through strokes in 2019, Jeff has with faith and determination learned how to navigate through the challenges. One of the things that brings him great joy is the cards that he writes to people. As we sat at a Chick-fil-A, Jeff told me, “I can’t believe people don’t believe in God. How can you not believe in Him, seeing everything He does?” I was blessed by Jeff’s testimony. Once again, God had kept us occupied with gladness of heart.

Later in the day, the staff at the office celebrated the day with a wonderful home cooked lunch that they put together. It was a sweet time. I thank the Lord for such a terrific team. At about 3 PM, I went and sat on the steps of the church on Bridge Street. I went there to pray for the town that I love and serve. I called upon the Lord who alone can touch lives and change them forever. I prayed for new hope, new beginnings, and new life. I also spent some time meeting people on the street and giving them invitations to the Millers Southern Gospel concert at Trinity. I experienced a diversity of responses. Here are some of them. Two people said, “No thank you.” One woman said, “Oh! That’s nice! I’ll be happy to put this up on my church’s bulletin board.” Another lady said, “You can see I’m a Southern girl. I love Southern gospel music. I’ll be there!” I was hoping I could share the gospel with someone yesterday, but I did not get an opportunity to. Later in the evening, Miriam and I went out for dinner.

As I came to the end of my 60th birthday, I said to myself, “I’m still recovering at the thought that I am here!” I could not have made it so far without the mercy and grace of God.

Later in the night, as we paused for family prayer, I went back to the words that I had read in the morning from Ephesians 4:1: “As a prisoner for the Lord, then, I urge you to live a life worthy of the calling you have received. Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love...”.

I could not have had a better reminder from the Lord. It was a beautiful day. What a blessing to know that the Lord kept me occupied with gladness of heart.

Let me close with the words I posted to my Facebook friends yesterday. Dear Friends, I cannot thank you enough for the outpouring of your love, prayers and gracious birthday greetings. I thank God for you.

Unworthily grateful,
Arun

GREETERS

Thank you to the greeters and coordinators. Barb Mickle schedules the greeters for the 9:15 AM service and Jo Lower schedules the greeters for the 11:00 AM service. When you are greeted as you enter the church or the Fellowship Hall, take note of their name and tell them your name!

THANK YOU FOR THE BANNERS!

Thank you to Jean Ruth and Mary Twigg for the banners hanging at the front of the sanctuary with the new Trinity logo. We appreciate the time and effort they invested in making these. We are also thankful for those who are interested in learning how to continue the ministry of banner making!

PRAYER FOCUS:

The people of Israel and Palestine – that peace would be a refreshing gift.

ALL SAINTS' SUNDAY

On November 2, in the 9:15 AM service, we will remember those in our Trinity community who have gone to Heaven during the past year. "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints." Psalm 116:15

CHRISTMAS DECORATING

Calling all interested volunteers to come to the church on Saturday, November 29 at 9:00 AM to help decorate. Thanks to Kristin Jensen, who coordinates this project. See Ken Gable or Tom Baum if you are available to help with the heavy lifting required to prepare the church for the Christmas season.

ADVENT 2025

Advent begins on November 30 with the lighting of the Advent wreath in the 9:15 AM service. The church will also be decorated and poinsettias will grace the sanctuary and the Fellowship Hall beginning on December 7.

GRATITUDE

Thank you for your very kind good wishes and birthday cards. I am sincerely grateful for your love and prayers. Arun

GRANDPARENTS IN PRAYER - THE TRINITY PRAYER BUDDY PROGRAM

The Prayer Buddy program is an outreach of the Grandparents in Prayer group at Trinity Church of New Cumberland. Every member of Grandparents in Prayer has a youth prayer buddy from the church whom they support in prayer. This is in addition to praying for one another's grandchildren and attempting to model a Christian life for the next generation.

The youth Prayer Buddy is part of the congregation attending either the Sunday morning service or the Wednesday evening youth group. The youth Prayer Buddy is in grade 6 through 12. We continue to pray and attempt to stay in contact with those who have graduated.

In addition to supporting our Prayer Buddies in prayer, the grandparents send encouraging cards and remember them on their birthday and special holidays, often with a small gift.

Both the adult and the youth Prayer Buddy have a card with the other's picture, address, and birthdate. The youth are also encouraged to reciprocate by praying for their adult Prayer Buddy and by sending them an occasional note or card. Prayer requests may be shared in written notes.

Personal contacts are encouraged only in group situations, such as at church or during Sunday morning Coffee Fellowship. If a youth has a special event, such as a school concert or game, and the Prayer Buddy is contacted, they are often happy to attend. One party a year is held at the church when the adult and youth Prayer Buddies have more time to interact in a group situation. We follow the Safe Sanctuary policy and do not have one on one contacts with our Prayer Buddy.

May God bless the youth and adult Prayer Buddies as they seek to know God better and commit their lives to Him.

This picture is with two sets of Prayer Buddies - Jacob with the Blacksmiths and Wyatt with the Siders. We were celebrating the 16th birthdays of both Jacob and Wyatt.

GIVING COMMITMENT 2026

For the first time in twelve years, we are renewing our use of commitment cards to better plan for the support of Trinity's programs, needs, and missions. Regular tithing is a means by which we can thank God for his blessings. Use of the commitment cards gives our finance team a light to guide our program planning and building needs. Tithing 10% of your income is only part of the picture. Regular attendance and using your gifts in volunteer service are also supportive commitments that benefit the work of the church. We are thankful that many of you seek to be a part of our programs and prayerfully support our efforts even if you are unable to participate.

Please take time and examine how your support and participation can enhance the efforts of Trinity to spread the gospel in New Cumberland and its environs.

Commitment cards for your use will be distributed on November 2. Please return your completed commitment card on or before Sunday, November 23, so they can be placed on the altar and blessed for the upcoming year. What you give will come back to you in abundance; God's shovel is bigger than yours. Scripture: Malachi 3:10

TRINITY'S VISION RETREAT
Saturday, January 10 from 9:30 AM to 1:00 PM
at Christian Life Assembly in Camp Hill, PA

Trinity's Vision Retreat replaces Trinity's Calendar Maker's Retreat. We will not be meeting at Christian Life Assembly on Saturday, October 25 for our Calendar Maker's Retreat. Thanks to those of you who registered. We apologize for any inconvenience caused to you on account of this change. Instead, we request all ministry/ program leaders to be sure to attend our new annual Vision Retreat.

What will we do at the retreat? We will engage in a time of worship and devotion, an inspirational session, conversations and get an overview of our program plans for 2026. All of this will be done while we constantly keep Trinity's mission statement and vision at the core of our conversations. It will be a great time of working together as a team and also thinking of ways in which we can do better. Leader, please don't miss this time together. We will certainly also be engaging in prayer together as we commit our congregational work to God at the beginning of a new year. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Pastor Arun.

SECRET SISTERS

Several Secret Sisters (and guests) will attend the Christmas Show "Deck The Halls" at the American Music Theater in Lancaster on November 15. Ticket reservations were made for 3:00 PM. Some attendees will meet for lunch before carpooling to the theater. No regular Secret Sisters meeting will occur at the church in November.

ASK PROGRAM W.S.S.D.

Thank you for your support in giving monetary and food contributions to ASK, which are placed on the ASK table in the hallway for distribution to West Shore School District students. Amy Gross, a social worker who coordinates donations for the West Shore School District's ASK project, told Tom and Cathy Baum how busy she is with several homeless families and how much the teachers appreciate the church's donations for needy students. To know more, contact Tom and Cathy Baum.

SMALL GROUP BIBLE STUDIES HAVE BEGUN by Bishop Pauline Peifer

In the first week of October, ten Bible Study groups came to life across seven homes and three additional locations within the Trinity Church community: the Winter Room (for young adults), the high school room (for youth), and 405 Bridge street located next to the church . What a blessing for five to twelve people to fellowship in each gathering as they allow God to speak to them through the book of James and seek to become more devoted disciples of Jesus.

Some early feedback from participants: “We had a truly amazing time last night. The Scriptures came alive. It was a blessed time as people expressed their struggles and their life journey.” Another response: “We had a wonderful time sharing and bonding around the scriptures.”

The studies will continue until the middle of November. Please pray that God will use this opportunity to grow the church in a refreshing new way. If you are not in a small group, I would encourage you this month to personally read and even reread this small book of James. May God be glorified!

PASTOR'S APPRECIATION FOR YOUR APPRECIATION

Bishop Pauline, Pastor Raymond and Ethel Brooks, Pastor Ken and Jessie Meyer, Pastor Ken and Jill Ross, Pastor John and Pat Smith, and Pastor Arun and Miriam Andrews are touched and grateful for your love and appreciation. Thank you for the beautiful cards, hand-written notes, and sweet time we share at the luncheon you hosted for the pastors on Sunday, October 12. Your love, prayers and encouragement inspire us to serve more faithfully. Special thanks to our Staff Parish team of Ken Gable and Beth Sider for spearheading these expressions. Our gratitude to Carol Evertts and team for the excellent luncheon. Beth Sider is especially appreciated for the many details that she took care of for the special day.

VICKIE'S ANGEL WALK

We are grateful for the work of Mickey Minnich and the Vickie's Angel Foundation. This faithful organization that focuses on faith, hope, and love has raised significant amounts of financial support for families and individuals who are battling cancer. On Saturday, October 11, Trinity's youth supported the walk and raised money in aid of the cause. We are grateful to parents, youth, and our adult leaders for their support and participation. We are also very grateful to Carol and Daryl, who once again made the Walkers' favorite BBQ.

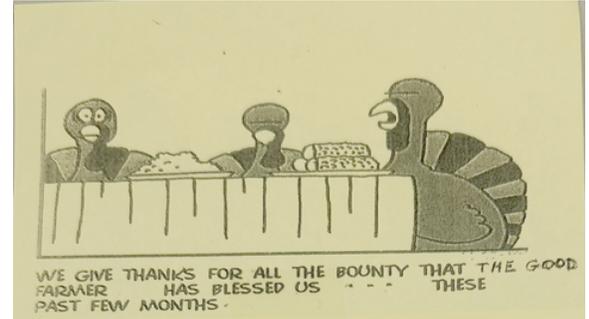

THANKSGIVING FOOD FOR THOUGHT

November 27, a day of celebration or a lifetime of Thanksgiving? Are we a thankful, grateful people? Perhaps we are polite and respond with a thank you as a courtesy. Maybe we appreciate a kindness shown us, but is that enough? How do we react when we're disappointed, or when someone doesn't meet our expectations? What about the times we don't meet our own expectations? Does that realization leave a bitter taste? Are we at least grateful for blessings undeserved, yet through God's grace received? How can we be thankful in all circumstances when we only speak of Thanksgiving a few days each November? Maybe we should look a little closer into the proverbial mirror.

Thanksgiving? Oh yes, eat well, drink deeply, my friends - of the table our Lord has set before us. "Taste and see that the Lord is good" (Psalm 34:8). Just know, Jesus is our only hope. Pray the hardest when it is hardest to pray.

Look at the illustration: Do you sometimes think that you are being "built up" to serve a higher purpose? You are! All for Jesus. Your parish nurse-Barbara Z.

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD FOR SAMARITAN'S PURSE

As we have participated in previous years, we are incorporating a hybrid model where you can pack a shoebox or send a check to Trinity Church of New Cumberland. Please include in the memo line that your donation is designated for Operation Christmas Child. If you are packing a box, a donation of $10 payable to Samaritan's Purse should be placed in an envelope and put in the box on the top of what is being sent.

On the display table you will find a flyer to indicate the gender and the age of the child that you choose. This should be affixed to the lid of the box. There are further guidelines as to what to pack and what not to pack on the website for Operation Christmas Child. There will be flyers on the display table as well. Boxes will be available on the table with the display and can be returned as soon as they are packed.

Each shoebox, prayerfully packed full of fun gifts, is an opportunity for the Gospel to transform the life of a child, family, or a community. The shoe boxes are distributed to children around the world. For some children, it is the first time that they have received a gift, and some go on to participate in a follow-up discipleship program, the Greatest Journey.

Shoeboxes will not be accepted after November 16. They will then be distributed to a central area for inspection. Thank you for your kind help. If there are any questions, please get in touch with Jane and Rick Bittner or Patricia Stacey.

GREETINGS! FROM ANDREW MEADE, DIRECTOR OF TRADITIONAL MUSIC

Greetings! My name is Andrew Meade, and I am very excited to be Trinity's new Director of Traditional Music! I look forward to getting to know this congregation over the coming weeks and months, but I thought I would take this opportunity to introduce myself and tell you a little bit about me. My home is Halifax, Nova Scotia, on the east coast of Canada, and I grew up there in a wonderful Christian home where my father was a Baptist pastor and my mother shared in ministry as pianist, organist, and choir director. I came to the United States for graduate school and met a beautiful girl from Pennsylvania who eventually became my wife. Joy and I have two children - Lydia (13) and Elliott (10) - who currently attend Covenant Christian Academy, and Joy is a professor at Messiah University where she oversees the choral program and teaches voice and conducting. Lydia is a passionate and voracious reader who loves playing the cello and dancing, among other things. Elliott loves to play any sport, but his favorite is baseball. He is also a blossoming little trumpet player. We live in Mechanicsburg, and for the last seven years, I served as the Director of Music at Grace UMC in Hummelstown. In addition to my church work, I am an adjunct organ and piano instructor at Messiah University, teach private music lessons, and help coach various youth sports in our community.

I am looking forward to leading and growing the wonderful traditional music program here at Trinity by working with the existing ensembles and finding new ways for people to use their musical gifts as part of our worship. Restarting a children's choir and developing a multi-generational church orchestra, where instrumentalists can join with the organ to accompany the congregational singing, are among my top goals. I also look forward to providing support to Jamie Bream and the Revive contemporary service when I can. Although Trinity is blessed with various musical ensembles, I am a firm believer that the most essential musical group in the church is the congregation. While the music of the choir, handbells, worship team, etc., can be beautiful, uplifting, and point us to God, the music we sing together as a congregation is the most important act of musical worship that we as a church can do. The most exciting way for my time at Trinity to begin would be with strong and sincere congregational singing. I hope you all will lift your voices and make a joyful noise to the Lord whenever we gather for worship. Hymn-singing that rattles the windows would be the best possible welcome to Trinity! Sincerely, Andrew Meade

"Sing joyfully to the Lord, you righteous; it is fitting for the upright to praise Him. Praise the Lord with the harp; make music to Him on the ten-stringed lyre. Sing to Him a new song; play skillfully, and shout for joy." Psalm 33:1-3

DELIGHTED

We are delighted that Andrew Meade has joined our team as Director of Traditional Music beginning October 13, 2025. We are grateful to the Lord for this appointment and pray for the Holy Spirit's work and leadership through our music ministry. We pray blessings on Andrew, Joy and their children, Lydia and Elliott.

REMINDER ABOUT GIFT CARDS

With the holiday season approaching, why not purchase gift cards to use for your grocery shopping for all of those holiday meals and gatherings. Of course, they make great gifts, too. We have cards for Giant, Weis, and Karns, in denominations of $100, $50 and $25. They're easy to use, and the missions fund of Trinity Church benefits by receiving 5% of the proceeds for each card you purchase. The gift cards are available for purchase on Sunday mornings during Coffee Fellowship from Matt Ickler. They are also available during the week in the church office. If you are not able to come to the office during the week, we would be happy to receive your order by phone, letter, or email in the church office. We will mail the cards to you after receiving your check through the mail. We thank each of you for the many generous ways in which you support the Lord's ministry at Trinity.
