

February 2024

Happy February Parents!

In January, we focused on learning the colors Yellow, Red & Orange, Blue & Green, and Black & White with various activities from reading books, mixing colors and matching games. This month we will be focusing on our Shapes and Sizes. Our Monthly Bible Lesson will be about Zacchaeus.

We have a lot of important dates for this month. February 5 is Open Enrollment for the 2024-2025 school year. If you are returning to us for the upcoming school year, please remember to drop off the form to any of the three admins at the earliest convenience. Registrations are received on a first come first serve basis. Original artworks will be posted around the school on February 8. The kids will be working on a nice little art piece for the last school fundraiser of the school year. Their artwork will be available for purchase in different items such as mugs, mouse pads, bags, and so many more items to select. Parent Chapel and Ash Wednesday will be on February 14 at 11am in Kids Room. If you would/would not like your child to participate in receiving the ashes, please message me on Lillio(HiMama). I will send a message a few days prior. Original artwork orders begin on February 16. Please be sure to turn in your original artwork order forms no later than February 23rd, as Mrs. Money will need to submit the orders in a timely manner. Day One will be closed for Parent Teacher Conferences on February 19. I will be posting a time sheet for parents to sign up that would like to meet with me. Our Rodeo Round Up Festival falls on February 28 from 9-12pm. If your child does not attend on Wednesdays, you and your child are more than welcome to join us for the fun festivities! If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to speak with me about anything.

Ms. Biannca
