

Pre-K December Newsletter

We have a lot of exciting activities planned for this month! We will have our first field trip to the Nutcracker Ballet, our Christmas Program, and so much more! Please be on the lookout for important notes on HiMama that will be sent out with more information and holiday sign-ups. Also this month, students will learn characteristics of living and nonliving things, how to compare and contrast stories with similar plots, and explore opposites more in depth. We look forward to creating more fun memories with your child! Merry Christmas from us to you!
