1. What was Naamaan's position with the King of Syria?
2. Discuss the riches and fame Naamaan had and how it was useless when it came to his condition.
3. How does the physical condition of Naamaan correspond to our spiritual condition before we met Jesus?
4. Discuss the role the captive girl (vs 3) played in Naamaan finding a cure and coming to know the true God. What things can we do to help people find Jesus?
5. What is the approx. modern-day value of the monetary gift Naamaan took to the King of Israel, and what was the reaction of the king?
6. Who is Elisha, and what did he instruct Naamaan to do?
7. Describe Naamaan's initial response to Elisha's directive.
8. What role do the servants of Naamaan (vs.13) have in getting Naamaan to agree to follow the simple command? How can we apply this in our efforts to win people to Christ?
9. How can 2 Cor. 5:17 be applied to Naamaan's new baby-like skin?
