Words of Wisdom

Pastor Zak

It feels as though this frenetic pacing of the holidays has yet to subside. All of the things that could “wait til’ the new year” need to be addressed as it is indeed “the new year.” Multiple deaths of loved ones from our community has led to the need for pastoral care and planning. Annual meetings, reports, and reviews all need to be done to close out 2025 here in the early parts of 2026. This doesn’t even begin to scratch the surface on the unrelenting news—cycle with events occurring in such rapidity that I don’t have time to process one event before the next occurs.

I feel inadequate in my pastoral response to everything happening in the world, as I can hardly find the energy to form a thought on a given topic before it feels like I need to make a declaration on the next. It is in these moments that I am thankful for the words and wisdom of leaders in the church, specifically Presiding Bishop Curry. I wish I had better words of wisdom to offer to respond to everything happening in the world, which is why I want to share with you Presiding Bishop Curry’s words regarding the realities of events in Venezuela and Minneapolis. ## Lent at St. Paul

Wednesdays during Lent (February 25th - March 25th) we will gather for simple soup suppers and Holden Evening Prayer as we prepare to enter into Holy Week. This year the suppers will be shared in the Fellowship Center (downstairs) at 5:30pm. At 6:15pm, we will transition upstairs to the sanctuary for a candlelight Holden Evening Prayer service. This year, the service will include selected Lenten reflections from Richard Rohr’s “Wondrous Encounters: Scripture for Lent.”

Following Ash Wednesday, there will be five consecutive Wednesday night soup suppers starting on February 25 in the Fellowship Center. Cindy Johnson and Joelle Soefker are the soup supper coordinators. They have host groups for each of the five suppers but need additional volunteers to donate soups or salads. Click the link below to sign up for a soup or salad online or fill out the soup supper sign-up sheet in the Ministry Corner starting February 1st. Feel free to call Cindy (630-991-3131) or Joelle (630-709-3368) with any questions. Thank you for continuing this meaningful Lenten tradition at St. Paul. All are welcome!

St. Paul "Bake and Pray" Weekend with Ron Glusenkamp February 13 and 14

Join Ron Glusenkamp, Lutheran theologian, author, and baker for a weekend centered around the theme of "Bake and Pray." Ron will lead us in baking as a spiritual practice and share how God meets us in the form of bread. Opportunities exist to bake pretzels, hot cross buns, or communion bread. Each opportunity has a specific date and time listed below. Folks do not KNEAD any experience to come to any of these sessions. but, they will be transformed by the experience. ### A Midwinter Blessing

In the heart of winter, when days feel tight,
When hands are cold and nights come early—
Come gather where the oven is warm
And grace rises like good dough.

Tied in knots?

Come, loosen your shoulders, your worries, your soul.
You may knead to stretch—
To rest, to laugh, to be gently made new.

Make it, Bake it, Take it—

With floured hands and open hearts,
We shape what we've been given,
Trusting that God is still at work.
Here, we remember:

We are Blessed, Broken, Shared—
Just like the bread upon the table,
Just like the love that never runs out.

For Jesus is the Bread of Life,
Given for the hungry,
Shared with the weary,
Enough for all.
Come as you are.
Come hungry, hopeful, or unsure.
Leave warmed, nourished, and blessed.

Available Sessions

Tied in Knots?

February 13—6 to 7:30pm
Pretzel Baking

Blessed, Broken, Shared

Letters from Vicar Lyndsay

The same way this winter is keeping everyone in Chicagoland on its toes (one day it's -5 degrees with snow and ice on the ground, the next nearly 50 degrees and sunny...), so too it feels has been the rhythms of St. Paul lately. Between preparing for Lent, various opportunities for youth fun of all ages, exciting changes to Wednesday morning Bible study, and more, I am grateful for the many corners of this community that continue to enrich our faith and feed our spirits.

In the midst of our full life together, I am excited to see how my internship project has begun to unfold. Many thanks to those of you who came to the pen pal training on January 11—whether you signed up to be a pen pal or just came to learn a little more about the realities of life in jail/prison, I hope you walked away with something to reflect on. And if you would still like to sign up to be a pen pal, it is never too late! Reach out to me and I will get you a pen pal agreement to set you up with someone seeking companionship. Though the youngest members of our community are not able to be pen pals, I am excited that they will get a chance to participate in this ministry as well, with an arts & crafts project in Sunday School on February 8. Lastly, don't forget to save the date for March 29, when we will gather with ecumenical partners outside Cook County Jail for a family-friendly Palm Sunday Prayer Walk.

Prayer List

Elm Tree News

Welcome to 2026! We are excited to begin a new year together and look forward to all the growth, discovery, and joy it will bring. This month has been full of energy and curiosity as we've settled back into routines and embraced the season with enthusiasm and a sense of community.

Throughout the month, we have been learning all about winter and everything that comes with it—from chilly weather and snow, to animals, clothing, and seasonal changes. Our winter science-themed family night was a wonderful success, bringing families together for hands-on learning and fun. The highlight of the evening was indoor ice-skating on laminated paper, which brought lots of laughter and smiles while letting everyone experience a winter activity in a creative and safe way.

We also welcomed ExceleRate Illinois this month as they completed an evaluation using the ECERS-3 scale and the Program Administration Scale. This was an important step for our program, and we are eagerly awaiting the results as we work toward earning our Silver Level Standard–Distinguished accreditation. We are hopeful to receive the results within the next six weeks and are proud of the hard work our staff has put into this process.

With the cold temperatures keeping us indoors more often, we've been very intentional about avoiding cabin fever. Our days have been filled with fun, engaging activities and plenty of movement and fellowship during large motor time. These experiences have helped keep spirits high, bodies active, and our community feeling connected as we continue to learn and grow together this winter.
