A November message from your Senior Pastor

Dear Church Family,

November invites us to make room for both remembrance and gratitude. On All Saints Sunday, we will honor the loved ones who have gone before us, speak their names, and give thanks for the ways their lives continue to shape ours. For some, this will be a tender day. If you are grieving, please know you do not have to carry that grief alone. Let us be a congregation that offers one another a listening ear, a prayer, and the comfort of simply being present.

This month also brings the US midterm elections. As we take part in this election process, I encourage each of us to seek reliable information, vote according to our conscience, and meet disagreement with humility and respect.

Our community is strengthened when we listen carefully, care for our neighbors, and remember that our shared life extends beyond any election.

December 2026
CLARION DEADLINE
November 20 @ 4 p.m.

As Thanksgiving approaches, I look forward to gathering around a meal together. A shared table gives us time to reconnect, welcome someone new, and notice who may be missing. I hope we will carry that spirit beyond our gathering by reaching out to those who are lonely, bringing food to those who need it, and offering practical support wherever we can.

May this November help us grow closer to one another. As we remember, participate, and give thanks, may we make room for every person to know they belong.

With love and prayers,

P. Manuel Borbon

Walking in Faith and Gratitude

A Message from your Pastor Elena

Dear Family and Church of the Lord,

As we welcome the month of November. We are approaching a time that traditionally invites us to reflect and be grateful. However, I know perfectly well that many of you enter this month with a heart full of questions, feeling the heaviness of uncertainty and fear for the well-being of your homes, your loved ones, your church.

At times when the human horizon seems unstable, God's Word rises as our solid rock. The psalmist powerfully reminds us, "God is our refuge and strength, our present help in tribulation" (Psalm 46:1). Our security rests not in the circumstances around us, but in the character of the One who has promised to be with us always, even to the end of the age.

As your pastor, my daily prayer is that the peace of Christ, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts from all fear. But faith is not only lived in the secret of prayer; it is demonstrated in active love for our neighbor. Today more than ever, we are called to be a community of refuge and solidarity:

- Let us pray without ceasing: Let us intercede for families who are suffering, for those who live in fear of separation and for the most vulnerable.
- Let us be the hands of Jesus: Let us extend practical support, a word of encouragement and a fraternal embrace to all who need it in our congregation.
- Maintain gratitude: Even in trials, thank God for His faithfulness, because gratitude focuses us on the Lord's power and not on the size of the problems.

Our Church is not a building; it is a family united by faith. None of you walk alone in this desert. We walk together, holding the hand of the Good Shepherd. I bless you with the peace, protection, and favor of the Most High in this new month.

With deep pastoral love,

Pastor Elena

The River of Life

By Bill Fredericks

Revelation 22[1] Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, bright as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb [2]through the middle of the street of the city. On either side of the river is the tree of life with its twelve kinds of fruit, producing its fruit each month, and the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations.

As I sit in our church on Sunday morning, I consider the liturgical pieces that embellish our sanctuary. They make us aware of God's presence in our midst. I recently noticed the glittering tabs, bright as crystal, on the water of the River of Life Banner, that blaze as winds gently waft through. It seems like the angel gifted them. On either side of the glittering river is the tree of life with its twelve kinds of fruit, producing its fruit each month, and the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations.

A Message From The Property Maintenance Committee

By Gary Jaus

On October 1, 2026, the Property Committee met to prioritize church facility maintenance issues. The committee also discussed and documented soon-to-be-completed or already completed repairs. The following maintenance issues were identified, and plans were identified to address them.

- The Fellowship Hall dishwasher needed to be fixed since it was failing to meet the required heating temperature needed to sanitize the dishes. The cost to troubleshoot the problem, the labor, and part(s) to fix the problem was approximately $2,900. The entire cost was paid by a member donation.

- Due to water leakage, the adult choir room located in the church basement needed to have new drywall installed, and the shelves holding the choir music were rehung, along with a door reframed.

  The same drywall company also repaired and painted two walls affected by a leak in the bathroom of the parsonage where Pastor Elena's family lives. The total bill, $900 for the drywall repairs, is being paid for by donations from both the English and Spanish congregations.

- The cover over Pastor Elena's patio, which was originally removed so the parsonage could be painted, was finally replaced. The material cost and labor to replace the cover were donated by a member of the church.

- The railing along the second floor of Luther Hall was no longer in compliance with new safety-code regulations. New, very nice-looking space fillers were installed to make the second-floor railing safer for children on the second floor. The material cost and labor for the work were covered by a member of the church.

- The large banner on the exterior wall of the Sanctuary facing Clairemont Mesa Boulevard was repaired and reattached to the wall. The banner is cracking due to weathering and will eventually need to be replaced.

The following issues are not yet resolved, and funding is needed to get these issues addressed in an expeditious manner.

- The fire suppression system in the kitchen above the stove, convection ovens, and slow-bake griddle needs to be inspected to enable our legal use of the kitchen. This is an urgent need in order to begin the Thursday night dinners, the Interfaith Shelter Network food prep, and other events that require the use of the kitchen.

We have reached out to a company to address all our safety issues. The estimated cost to address the fire suppression system is approximately $1,000.

- To eliminate basement flooding, the planter box between the Fellowship Hall and the sanctuary was removed and replaced with concrete. The brick wall was sealed a foot below the concrete to eliminate/lessen the water seeping through the bricks. The cost of that work was $6,500, and the bill has not yet been paid. Donations to cover part, or all, of that cost are still needed.

- $750 is needed to cover the troubleshooting and labor cost to fix the HVAC blower in the Youth Room. We believe the parts will be covered under an existing parts warranty, but funding is needed for the work to begin.

Lastly, the members of the Property Committee include James Acosta, Holly Timms, Curtis Cline, John Gjerset, Gabriel Munoz, Pastor Borbón, and me. Sandra Logan is the Council representative serving as our liaison to the council.

Holly Timms has developed a concise maintenance form to help make the committee aware of issues that need attention. The form will help us to document our progress in addressing those issues and ensure that information doesn't fall through the cracks. That form will soon be available in the church office.

Your Ministry, Your Stories, Our Clarion

Help us make the Clarion a reflection of all the wonderful things happening in our church!

We invite each committee and ministry to share monthly updates, upcoming events, accomplishments, photos, and stories. Our congregation wants to know what happens beyond Sunday morning, and your contributions help keep everyone informed, connected, and involved.

No need for a polished article; just send me your updates, and I'll take care of the rest!

Thank you for helping us share the story of our church.

Fall Gather Bible Study: "Bold faith on an unexpected journey" by the Rev. Tiffany Cheney Faith often leads us down paths we didn't expect—into wilderness places, across unfamiliar lands, and through seasons of grief and hope. This three-session study takes us on a journey with Hagar, Ruth, and Mary Magdalene, women whose bold faith transformed their unexpected stories. Their encounters with God remind us that we, too, are seen, sustained, and sent to carry good news into the world.

Session 3: Proclaiming resurrection in hope Scripture: John 20:1–18

Mary Magdalene's journey transitions from that of a grieving friend to the first preacher of the good news after she shows up at the empty tomb and encounters the risen Jesus. Her story declares that women are entrusted to carry resurrection hope into a hurting world. This session encourages participants to recognize their own call to bear witness and to proclaim hope in Christ.

The Parable of the Ten Bridesmaids

Matthew 25[1] "Then the kingdom of heaven will be like this. Ten bridesmaids took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. [2]Five of them were foolish, and five were wise.[3]When the foolish took their lamps, they took no oil with them,[4]but the wise took flasks of oil with their lamps.[5]As the bridegroom was delayed, all of them became drowsy and slept.[6]But at midnight there was a shout, 'Look! Here is the bridegroom! Come out to meet him.'[7]Then all those bridesmaids got up and trimmed their lamps.

[8]The foolish said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.' 25[9] But the wise replied, 'No! there will not be enough for you and for us; you had better go to the dealers and buy some for yourselves.'[10]And while they went to buy it, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went with him into the wedding banquet, and the door was shut.[11]Later the other bridesmaids came also, saying, 'Lord, lord, open to us.'[12]But he replied, 'Truly I tell you, I do not know you.'[13]Keep awake, therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour.

Commentary by Craig A. Evans

The parable of the ten bridesmaids continues the theme of the need to be alert and watching, for the bridegroom will appear at a time one least expects. It also adds to Matthew's interest in portraying two types of people in Israel; those who will be included in the kingdom and those who will be thrust out (as seen in the parable of the wheat and weeds Matt 13:24-30).

The parable is an allegory of the return of Jesus Christ, Israel's Messiah and the church's Lord. The bridegroom is Jesus, and the wise bridesmaids are the faithful, who will be admitted into the kingdom. The foolish bridesmaids are those who will be shut out of the kingdom. The wedding feast is the symbol for the celebration of the kingdom of God, when God's rule on earth is finally and fully established. But the allegory only goes so far and does not reflect any concern over the delay of the coming of the Son of Man.

The details of the parable are true to ancient customs of the wedding feast and celebration. After the wedding feast at the house of the bride's parents, which ends well into the night, the bridegroom escorts his bride to his parents' house.

A number of maids await the arrival of the bride and groom and will escort them with lamps to the bridal chamber. However, these maids do not know at what hour of the evening the bride and groom will appear. Hence, the point of the parable: the need to be vigilant and prepared.

The parable begins, “Ten bridesmaids took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom.” The wedding imagery recalls the parable in Matt. 22:1-14, where the king gives a wedding feast for his son. The number ten is a favorite in Biblical literature. In the New Testament, we have the woman and her ten silver coins, the ten lepers, and the ten slaves who were given ten pounds to trade with. In the Old Testament, we have the ten plagues and the ten commandments.

The identification of Jesus as the “bridegroom” probably started with Jesus himself. In time, Jesus is viewed as the bridegroom and the church as his bride.

The maids who were prepared “trimmed their lamps,” giving attention to the wicks of their lamps and adding oil as needed. But the foolish maids had not brought along extra oil for their lamps, not anticipating a long vigil. As their lamps began flickering out, they asked the other maids for oil, but there was not enough to spare. Had the oil been divided, all the lamps may have failed.

“And while they went to buy it,” raises the question of what seller of oil would be willing to do business at midnight. Hearers of the parable would think of this and realize that, through their lack of planning, the foolish maids have indeed gotten themselves into trouble.

Matthew’s account reports that, “the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went with him into the wedding banquet, and the door was shut. The very purpose of the maids with the lamps was to light the procession into the house in which the wedding celebration was to take place. Those with extinguished lamps could serve no useful purpose. They therefore abandoned their post. Those who were ready, however, were able to perform their duty and so were admitted along with the rest of the wedding party. On the shutting of the door, recall Matt. 23:13 “But woe to you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you lock people out of the kingdom of heaven. For you do not go in yourselves, and when others are going in you stop them.” See also Matt. 24:33 “So also, when you see all these things, you know that he is near, at the very gates.” The door to the wedding feast has been shut (perhaps for security reasons); no one will be permitted to crash the party.

The foolish maids then plead, “Lord, lord, open to us.” See Matt. 7:21 “Not everyone who says to me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ will enter the kingdom of heaven.”

The bridegroom replied, “Truly I tell you, I do not know you.” For all the bridegroom knows these are uninvited and unwelcome young women. The maids recruited to light the procession had lit lamps. Who were these people outside in the dark? He does not know them. Recall Jesus’ earlier teaching in Matt. 7:23 “’Then I will declare to them, I never knew you; go away from me, you who behave lawlessly’,“ as well as Peter’s tragic denial of his Lord, “I do not know the man!” (Matt. 26:74).

The parable concludes with another exhortation to keep awake, for the disciples “neither the day nor the hour” of the coming of the Son of Man.

CLC DAY OF SERVICE - WORK DAY

Thank you to everyone who participated in October's Day of Service!
The list of things we wanted to accomplish was fairly expansive, but we got through our entire list just before the rains came!
Jorge cooked up a great luncheon, and we all had a chance to talk and work together.

THANK YOU ALL FOR A GREAT DAY!

HYMN OF THE MONTH:

THE CHURCH OF CHRIST, IN EVERY AGE

LIVING LUTHERAN, OCTOBER 2026. REPRINTED WITH PERMISSION. © ELCA.

The Church of Christ, in Every Age

This hymn was written by Fred Pratt Green. A poet before he was a hymn writer, he traded poems weekly with his critique partner, Fallon Webb, for 20 years. He was often asked to write hymns for topics that seemed to be lacking.

He wrote "The Church of Christ, in Every Age" when the editors of Hymns and Songs (London, 1969) asked him to write a hymn that "tackled the relationship between Sabbath and Sunday."

It was published in several hymn collections in its original form, but the editors of the Lutheran Book of Worship (1978) asked if they could move stanza 2 to the end and omit stanza 4.

Green made these changes, saying they improved the hymn. This is the version that appears in Evangelical Lutheran Worship.

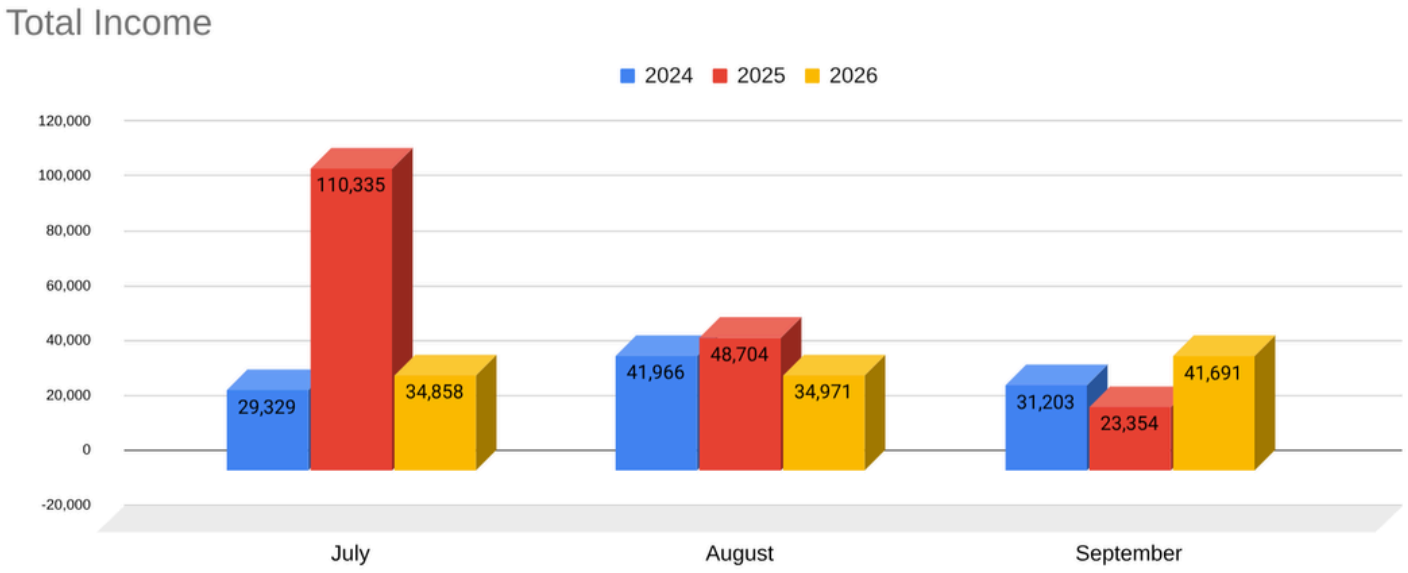

The tune WAREHAM was written by William Knapp. It was named for his birthplace, Wareham in Dorset, England.

BEYOND THE PEWS

Living the Word wherever we go.

Clairemont Lutheran Church Named Best Church in North Clairemont for 2026! 🏆

We're delighted to share that Clairemont Lutheran Church has been recognized as Best Church in North Clairemont for 2026 by BusinessRate, based on Google reviews!

This recognition reflects the dedication, generosity, and welcoming spirit each of you brings to our church. Thank you for helping us grow as a vibrant community of faith and for living out our mission to welcome everyone, celebrate God's grace, and grow together as one church expressed in two languages.

This achievement belongs to all of us!

✨ Thankoffering & Blessing of the Quilts

On October 4, we celebrated our Thankoffering and Blessing of the Quilts, giving thanks to God for the time, talents, and love shared by everyone who helped create these beautiful quilts.

Displayed throughout the sanctuary, the quilts were blessed before being sent to Lutheran World Relief, where they will provide warmth, comfort, and hope to people in need around the world.

✨ Thankoffering & Blessing of the Quilts...

A special thank-you to the ladies of our quilting ministry for their dedication, creativity, and faithful service. We are grateful for the love they stitch into every quilt and for the meaningful difference they make in the lives of others!

✨Welcoming Our New Members

On October 25, we joyfully welcomed Anamarya and Noah as new members of our congregation! We celebrate their commitment to becoming part of our church family and their desire to grow in faith, build meaningful connections, and become more deeply involved in the life and ministry of Clairemont Lutheran Church. We are grateful to have them as part of our community and look forward to growing together in faith and service!

✨ Day of Service: Faith in Action

On October 10, members of our church community gathered for a Day of Service, working together to clean the church and parsonage and tackle a variety of projects. After a productive morning, we shared lunch and fellowship, celebrating what we accomplished together.

Thank you to everyone who contributed their time and energy! May this day remind us that faith is put into action through service, caring for the spaces entrusted to us, and keeping our buildings in good shape so we can continue our ministry and serve our community.
