First reading: Proverbs 8:1-4, 22-31

Does not wisdom call, and does not understanding raise her voice? On the heights, beside the way, at the crossroads she takes her stand; beside the gates in front of the town, at the entrance of the portals she cries out: "To you, O people, I call, and my cry is to all that live. The Lord created me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of long ago. Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth. When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water. Before the mountains had been shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth when he had not yet made earth and fields, or the world's first bits of soil. When he established the heavens, I was there, when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, when he made firm the skies above, when he established the fountains of the deep, when he assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress his command, when he marked out the foundations of the earth, then I was beside him, like a master worker; and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always, rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the human race." Word of God, word of life.

Congregation: Thanks be to God.

Second reading: Romans 5:1-5

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

Word of God, word of life. Congregation: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation Alleluia, setting 4 – ELW p. 151 (please stand)

 You have the words of eternal life. Alleluia.

Gospel: John 16:12-15

Response after the announcement: Glory to you, O Lord

[Jesus said,] "I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.”

P: The Gospel of the Lord C: Praise to you, O Christ.

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, God’s only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

In Loving Memory of Sandy McCauley

We are saddened to announce the passing of Sandy McCauley in May 2025. A longtime and dedicated member of Clairemont Lutheran, Sandy faithfully served in many roles over the years, including Council Treasurer, Teller, and as a behind-the-scenes helper restocking pews for Sunday services. Sandy will be deeply missed.

A memorial service for Sandy McCauley will be held on Saturday, July 20th at 4:00 PM at Clairemont Lutheran Church. All are welcome to attend as we gather to honor and celebrate her life.

A small reception will follow the service.

Charles' Music Notes: The choir anthem, In Praise of the Trinity, by Mary Kay Beall and John Carter was composed in honor of the 150th anniversary of Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church, in Latrobe, Pennsylvania. The driving music reflects the decisive text and resembles the shape-note genre with its hearty melody and earthy feel. The flute obbligato supports the melody while providing its own evocative lines. The prelude is the composer's own arrangement for organ solo of the slow movement of his Sonata for trumpet and piano. You may remember the tune of the opening hymn, Come Join the Dance of Trinity, was played by the Campanile ringers on Pentecost Sunday. The German original of the text for the hymn of the day, Holy God, We Praise Your Name, is a metrical version of the Te Deum Laudamus, one of the principal hymns of the Christian church. It may have been written as early as the year 414. Finally, the postlude is a setting of the popular Sheep May Safely Graze by J.S. Bach. It is arranged for piano and organ with alto soloist. It represents that 'changing of the guard' as Charles von Gunten takes a summer rest and Geoff Graham steps into the organist role until mid-September. Both of them adore the musicianship and leadership of Katy Lundeen, a noted alto soloist in addition to being our music director.
