

Clairemont Lutheran Church Iglesia Luterana

Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost – October 11, 2026

Our mission:
To Welcome Everyone,
Celebrate God's grace, and Grow together as
One Church expressed in two languages.

We welcome you to Clairemont Lutheran Church. As we gather in worship, may we rejoice in the love God has shown us through Jesus Christ, and may that love inspire us to welcome, encourage, and care for one another.

FIRST TIME HERE?

We'd love to meet you. Please visit the Welcome Table in the Narthex to receive a small gift from our church family.

Gathering Hymn * All Are Welcome ELW 641 (vv. 1, 3, & 5)

Confession and Forgiveness

P: Blessed be the holy Trinity, ✠ one God, whose compassion endures forever.

C: Amen.

P: Let us confess our sin to God.

Silence is kept for reflection.

P: Compassionate God,

C: We confess to you all our sins. Our burden is heavy, and we cannot free ourselves. In your mercy, call us back to you. Your yoke is easy, and your burden is light. Restore us to dwell in your peace. In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

P: Jesus says, "Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest." In the name of God, Father, ✠ Son, and Holy Spirit, your sins are forgiven.

Rest in God's love.

C: Amen.

The Kyrie – ELW 157 At the end the Kyrie we go directly to Now the Feast

Anthem Shepherd Song -David Bolin Chelsea Lundeen & the Sanctuary Choir

Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary, and became truly human. For our sake, he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Peace

P: The peace of Christ be with you always. C: And also with you.

HOLY SCRIBBLES

Take home one thing God taught you today.

Music Notes by Charles F. von Gunten: The choral anthem by David Bolin, the Shepherd Song, is a setting of Psalm 23 — is one of the Bible's iconic hymns of praise to God who sustains us in all of life. This setting delivers the psalm from the perspective of the Good Shepherd. All the musical elements — flowing accompaniment, gentle vocal lines, an optional flute obbligato — create a sense of calm reassurance. The gathering hymn, All Are Welcome, by Marty Haugen, originally had 13 verses with the intention they would model the four-fold architecture of gathering — word — meal — sending. The text for the sending hymn, Rejoice, Ye Pure in Heart, was written in May 1865 for the procession for the Choral Festival at Peterborough Cathedral in Cambridgeshire, England. The tune was written for the 50th anniversary of Victoria as Queen of England and sung first at Trinity Episcopal Church in New York City.
