

"The Word became flesh."

John 1:14 (NKJV)

The Incarnation of Christ

And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

John 1:1–2 (NKJV)

The Deity of Christ

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. ² He was in the beginning with God.

God the Father and Jesus the Son created the worlds together, in unison with each other and the Holy Spirit as He hovered over the face of the earth.

The creator of the universe steps into the creation as a human being.

Exodus 33:15–16 (NKJV) ¹⁵ Then he said to Him, "If Your Presence does not go with us, do not bring us up from here. ¹⁶ For how then will it be known that Your people and I have found grace in Your sight, except You go with us? So we shall be separate, Your people and I, from all the people who are upon the face of the earth."

John 1:14 (NKJV) And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

To stand before man as a man, yet fully God, and allow the creation to kill the Creator in order to pay for the creations sin.

John 1:14 (NKJV) And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

John 1:16–17 (NLT) ¹⁶ From his abundance (fullness, abundance of, grace and truth) we have all received one gracious blessing after another. ¹⁷ For the law was given through Moses, but God's unfailing love and faithfulness came through Jesus Christ.

"Grace without truth would be deceitful, and truth without grace would be condemning."

Romans 6:23 (NIV) For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.
