I. Certain Man — Two Sons v. I I
Translation — "And He said, 'A certain man had two sons.'" v.11
II. The Younger Son vv.12-19
Translation — "And the younger of them said to his father, 'Father. give me the part of the estate which is mine. So he divided his savings between them." v.12
Translation — "And before long the younger son gathered everything together and departed into a distant country, and there he threw away his money by living recklessly." v.13
Translation — "But after he had spent all a severe famine arose throughout that country and he began to suffer want." v.14
Translation — "And he went and was employed by one of the citizens of that country, and he sent him into his fields to tend pigs." v.15

Translation — "And he longed to be fed on the pods which the pigs were eating and nobody gave him anything." v.16
Translation — "But when he came to himself, he said, 'How many hired hands of my father have more bread than they need, but I am here dying with hunger!" v.17
Translation — "I will get up and go to my father and I will say to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your eyes.'" v.18
Translation — "No longer am I worthy to be called your son. Make me as one of your hired hands." v.19

III. The Father v.20

Translation — "And he got up and started toward his own father. But when he was still a great distance away, his father saw him and he was seized with pity and he ran and fell upon his neck and kissed him tenderly." v.20

Translation — "And the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and in thy presence. No longer am I worthy to be called your son.'" v.2 l
Translation — "But the father said to his servants, 'Quickly bring out a robe — the best one, and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand and shoes on his feet.'" v.22
Translation — "And bring the young calf- the wheat-fed one. Kill it, and when he nave eaten let us have a good time." v.23
Translation — "'Because this my son was dead, but he is alive again; he had been lost but he has been found.' And they began to celebrate." v.24

IV. The Older Son vv.25-32

Translation — "Now the older son was in a field and on his way to the house, as he approached, he began to hear music and dancing." v.25

Translation — "So he called one of the servants to him and began to inquire what these things meant." v.26
Translation — "And he said to him, 'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the calf he has been fattening because he has gotten him back in good health." " 1.27
Translation — "Therefore he was filled with rage and would not go in. So his father came out and began to plead with him." v.28
Translation — "But in reply he said to his father, 'Look! How many years have I served you, and I have never once disobeyed your orders, but you have never once given so me even a goat so that I might be entertained with my friends." v.29
Translation — "But when your son this fellow who ate up your money with

Translation — "But when your son, this fellow who ate up your money with whores, came, you killed for him the wheat-fed calf." v.30

Translation — "But he said to him, 'Child, you are always with me, and everything own is yours." v.31  Translation — "But it has always been proper to be made to celebrate and be glad, because this brother of yours was dead, but he has begun to live, and, although he has been lost, in fact he has been found." v.32 own is yours.'''  V.3    Translation — "But it has always been proper to be made to celebrate and be glad, because this brother of yours was dead, but he has begun to live, and, although he
own is yours.'''  V.3    Translation — "But it has always been proper to be made to celebrate and be glad, because this brother of yours was dead, but he has begun to live, and, although he
own is yours.'''  V.3    Translation — "But it has always been proper to be made to celebrate and be glad, because this brother of yours was dead, but he has begun to live, and, although he
glad, because this brother of yours was dead, but he has begun to live, and, although he	Translation — I own is yours.' ''
glad, because this brother of yours was dead, but he has begun to live, and, although he glad, because this brother of yours was dead, but he has begun to live, and, although he glad, because this brother of yours was dead, but he has begun to live, and, although he
	glad, because this bro	other of yours was dead, but he has begun to live, and, although he