

John 21:15-19

LOVE

---

C.S. Lewis, The Four Loves

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Bill Counts Called To Be Free

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Amazing Love! How Can It Be? — Studies on Hymns by Charles Wesley

“The opening lines to Charles Wesley’s hymn...

*And can it be that I should gain
An interest in the Savior’s blood?
Died he for me, who caused his pain!
For me! Who him to death pursued.
Amazing love! How can it be
That thou, my God, shouldst die for me?*

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

John 21:15-19

LOVE

Long my imprisoned spirit lay,
Fast bound in sin and nature's night;
Thine eye diffused a quickening ray;
I woke, the dungeon flamed with light;
My chains fell off, my heart was free,
I rose, went forth, and followed thee.
My chains fell off, my heart was free,
I rose, went forth, and followed thee.

---

---

---

---

Madeleine L'Engle, Draper's Book of Quotations For the Christian World

---

---

---

---

Mother Teresa, Where There Is Love There Is God

---

---

---

---

Martin Luther King Jr., My Brother Martin: A Sister Remembers Growing up with the Rev Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

---

---

---

---

N.T.Wright, After You Believe: Why Christian Character Matters

