

Luke 18:1-14

Parables on Prayer

Translation — “Yet because this widow is always causing me annoyance, I will rule in her favor, lest that by her continual coming here she will finally wear me Out.”
v.5

Translation — “And the Lord said, ‘Hear what the judge of unrighteousness said’ ” v.6

Translation — “And shall not God settle the account of His elect, who are crying to Him by day and by night, even though they try His patience?” v.7

Translation — “I am telling you that He will vindicate them without delay. Nevertheless when the Son of Man arrives, will He indeed find the faith upon the earth?”
v.8

Luke 18:1-14

Parables on Prayer

II. The Pharisee and the Tax Collector vv.9-14

Translation — “And He also spoke to those who had always trusted in themselves that they were righteous and looked down upon the others, this parable.”
v.9

Translation — “Two men went up into the temple to pray: the one was a Pharisee and the other was a revenue officer.” v.10

Translation — “The Pharisee stood up and began to pray as follows to himself: ‘O God! I thank you that I am not like the rest of mankind — extortioners, dishonest, adulterers or especially like this revenue official.’” v.11

Translation — “I fast regularly twice a week. I always give back ten percent of all of that which I get.” v.12

Translation — “But when the revenue official had taken his place far away, he was unwilling to lift his eyes to heaven, but began to beat upon his breast saying, ‘O God be reconciled unto me the sinner.’” v.13
