THANKSGIVING AT OPEN ARMS

Thanksgiving is coming soon and we're collecting side items for Open Arms like:

- Instant Mashed Potatoes
- Gravy
- Stuffing Mix
- Cranberry Sauce
- Canned Vegetables like green beans, sweet potatoes, pumpkin, and corn
- Cream soups for casseroles (ex: cream of mushroom)
- Cornbread mix
- French Fried Onions

You can drop off food donations for Open Arms in the cart on Sundays or at the church office during the week. Thank you for giving our neighbors something to be thankful for.

HANDICAPABLE THANKSGIVING

Handicapable members will help lead worship on Wednesday, Nov. 18 at 6:30 PM. All are welcome to come and thank God for our blessings.

STUDENT FALL RETREAT

Our students will be on their fall retreat this week from Nov. 6-8. Please keep them in your prayers as they travel to Inverness, FL for the weekend. The trip will give them an opportunity to bond with each other and grow closer to God.

Women in crisis

Student Fall Fest offered tons of food, costumes, and time together. Thanks for a fun night!

Thank you to Martha's Loving Hearts Ministry for honoring our church staff with a delicious staff appreciation lunch!

Thanks for joining us for Messy Church last Sunday! We had so much fun learning and being creative. Our last Messy Church of 2026 will be on Nov. 22. You can RSVP on our website now.

HANDICAPABLE CRAFT NIGHT

This Friday, Nov. 6 at 6:30 PM is our Handicapable Craft night. Our Handi members will have fun making Christmas cards and other crafts.

SMILE MAKERS CHRISTMAS CARDS

Smile Makers will be sending 1,500 Christmas cards to active duty military this year. We're currently collecting unused Christmas cards to help with this project. You can drop Christmas cards in the bin in the lobby.

HELP DECORATE FOR ADVENT

We'll be decorating the church for advent on Sunday, Nov. 22 at noon. If you're able to stay after worship we'd love your help!

MEMORIAL GIFT

St. Paul UMC has inherited .06 net acres of surface oil & gas mineral rights in West Virginia. The Leadership Team voted unanimously to sell this interest for $1,000. This information is presented to the church as part of the legal requirements of receiving the gift.
