

Transformed Marriage
November 2, 2025
Questions for Study and Group Discussion

1. What is an example of a married couple that you admire? What things about their relationship do you appreciate most?
2. What does Paul mean by “submitting to one another out of reverence for Christ” (Eph 5:21)? How does this verse set the tone for what follows?
3. How might the principle of “mutual submission” apply to relationships beyond marriage — within the church, workplace, or family?
4. How does Eph 5:22–24 describe the role of the wife in marriage? What does “as to the Lord” mean in this context?
5. How does Eph 5:25–30 describe the role of the husband? What does it mean to “love your wife as Christ loved the church”?
6. What picture of Christ and the Church emerges from this passage? How does marriage reflect that relationship?
7. For those who are married — what’s one way this passage has shaped (or could shape) your marriage?
8. For those who aren’t married — what can this passage teach about Christ’s love and the nature of Christian relationships more broadly?
9. What are some concrete ways husbands can love their wives “as Christ loved the Church”?
10. What are practical ways wives can honor and respect their husbands in a way that reflects reverence for Christ?