

Men's Spaghetti Dinner

Thursday, January 15th · 6:30–8:00 PM

All men are invited! Enjoy a hearty spaghetti dinner, fellowship, and an inspiring message from our guest speaker.

Guest Speaker: Rev. Matt Conner

Rev. Matt Conner has served as the Pastor of Newell Presbyterian Church since 2017 and is a graduate of Columbia Theological Seminary (M.Div., 2017). Matt grew up in Gastonia, NC and attended UNC Chapel Hill, majoring in Economics and Religious Studies (BA, 2014).

His ministry experience includes:

- Chaplain, Georgia Department of Juvenile Justice
- Interim UKirk Campus Minister, Agnes Scott College
- Clinical Pastoral Education, MD Anderson Cancer Center
- Teaching Assistant in Greek and Preaching, Columbia Seminary

Since arriving at Newell, Matt has been a leader in property redevelopment and community partnerships at the intersection of affordable housing, re-entry programs, and second-chance opportunities. In the Presbytery of Charlotte, he serves through the Anti-Racism Ministry Cohort, moderates the Future 2030 Vision Team, and organizes around Faith and Housing.

Matt is married to his high school sweetheart, Sarah, and they have three children—Eli (7), Amos (4), and Nayeli (9 months). Their two dogs, Bo and Willow, remain blissfully unaware they are, in fact, dogs. He is passionate about community development, the outdoors, traveling, Southern food, and all things Carolina Tar Heels.
