THE LESSON

Ephesians 1:11-23

In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance toward redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

PSALM 149 Cantate Domino

- 1 Hallelujah!
Sing to the Lord a new song; *
sing his praise in the congregation of the faithful.
- 2 Let Israel rejoice in his Maker; ***
let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.
- 3 Let them praise his Name in the dance; ***
let them sing praise to him with timbrel and harp.
- 4 For the Lord takes pleasure in his people  and adorns the poor with victory.
- 5 Let the faithful rejoice in triumph; ***
let them be joyful on their beds.
- 6 Let the praises of God be in their throat ***
and a two-edged sword in their hand;
- 7 To wreak vengeance on the nations ***
and punishment on the peoples;
- 8 To bind their kings in chains ***
and their nobles with links of iron;
- 9 To inflict on them the judgment decreed; ***
this is glory for all his faithful people.
Hallelujah!

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Luke 6:20-31

Priest The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glorify to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus looked up at his disciples and said:

"Blessed are you who are poor,
for yours is the kingdom of God.

"Blessed are you who are hungry now,
for you will be filled.

"Blessed are you who weep now,
for you will laugh.

"Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets."

"But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation.

"Woe to you who are full now,
for you will be hungry.

"Woe to you who are laughing now,
for you will mourn and weep.

"Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets.

"But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you."

THE RENEWAL OF BAPTISMAL VOWS

Celebrant Dear friends in Christ, as we celebrate the commemoration of All Saints, and as we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us affirm our place in the communion of saints by the renewal of our own baptismal covenant.

Do you reaffirm your renunciation of evil and renew your commitment to Jesus Christ?

People I do.

Celebrant Do you believe in God the Father?

People I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Celebrant Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?

People I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

Celebrant Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?

People I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting.

Celebrant Will you continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as yourself?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant May Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has given us a new birth by water and the Holy Spirit, and bestowed upon us the forgiveness of sins, keep us in eternal life by his grace, in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

THE BLESSING OF THE WATER

Celebrant We thank you, Almighty God, for the gift of water. Over it the Holy Spirit moved in the beginning of creation. Through it you led the children of Israel out of their bondage in Egypt into the land of promise. In it your Son Jesus received the baptism of John and was anointed by the Holy Spirit as the Messiah, the Christ, to lead us, through his death and resurrection, from the bondage of sin into everlasting life.

We thank you, Father, for the water of Baptism. In it we are buried with Christ in his death. By it we share in his resurrection. Through it we are reborn by the Holy Spirit.

Now bless this water, we pray you, that it may be a sign to us of our Baptism, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

ANTHEM

Grayston Ives (b. 1948)

There is a land of pure delight,
Where saints immortal reign;
Infinite day excludes the night,
And pleasures banish pain.

There everlasting spring abides,
And never-withering flowers;
Death, like a narrow sea, divides
This heavenly land from ours.

Sweet fields beyond the swelling flood
Stand dressed in living green;
So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
While Jordan rolled between.

But timorous mortals start and shrink
To cross the narrow sea,
And linger shivering on the brink,
And fear to launch away.

O could we make our doubts remove,
These gloomy doubts that rise,
And see the Canaan that we love
With unbecclouded eyes!

Could we but climb where Moses stood,
And view the landscape o'er,
Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold flood
Should fright us from the shore!

– Isaac Watts

The People stand and sing.

THE PRESENTATION (Hymn 380, st. 3)

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Eucharistic Prayer A

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

For in the multitude of your saints you have surrounded us with a great cloud of witnesses, that we might rejoice in their fellowship, and run with endurance the race that is set before us; and, together with them, receive the crown of glory that never fades away.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS ET BENEDICTUS

- 8:00 Said by all

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

- 10:30 Sung by all

Organ:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord,
God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bles - sed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The People kneel, as able.

Celebrant Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever. AMEN.

Celebrant And now as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those
who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

A period of silence is kept.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

VOLUNTARY Apparition de l'église éternelle
(Apparition of the eternal church)

Olivier Messiaen (1908-1992)

MUSIC NOTES For most All Saints' Day services we sing the hymn "Shall we gather the river" in a splendid and surprising arrangement by American organist and composer John Ferguson (1941-2025). Ferguson, who died in January of this year, was noted for his many interpretations of hymnody. Ferguson's richly varied hymn accompaniments and arrangements were often heard in hymn festivals as he was frequently invited to lead such festivals around the country.

The choral setting of the Gloria in excelsis is from the Missa Papae Marcelli by Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina (c. 1525-1594). As we continue our exploration of Palestrina's music in this his 500th anniversary year, we arrive at his best-known mass, a six-voice setting that was composed in honor of Pope Marcellus II. It is very unlikely that Marcellus ever heard the work sung (his papacy lasted less than a month), and it is possible that Palestrina composed the work many years after Marcellus's death.

Among the most celebrated composers still writing for Anglican churches today is British composer Grayston Ives (b. 1948). Here at St. Peter's in recent years our services have included many of his anthems, as well as a carol, a mass setting, evensong canticles, and his preces and responses. Today, the choir add another of Ives's anthems to their repertoire: his lyrical anthem for All Saints Day, "There is a land of pure delight."

The concluding voluntary paints a grand picture of "the eternal church," the fellowship of all the saints, eventually building to full organ before coming back down again. The piece, written by a composer of devout faith, is at once mystical, captivating, and transcendent.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

WORSHIP & MUSIC

SERVICE FOR COMMEMORATION OF ALL FAITHFUL DEPARTED

A service of Holy Eucharist for remembrance of All Faithful Departed, also known as All Souls' Day, will take place on Wednesday, November 5, at 5:30 p.m. in Grace Chapel. Please join us for this quiet and contemplative service of requiem as we reflect on the communion of saints.

CHORAL EVENSONG NEXT SUNDAY

Choral Evensong will be sung on Sunday, November 9, at 5:00 p.m. This traditional service of scripture, prayer, and music in the evening, sung by the St. Peter's Singers, includes music by William Smith, John Sheppard, and William Byrd. All are welcome at this service, and a reception follows.

CONCERT TODAY

Today at 3:00 p.m. "Fit For a King: William Lawes' Royal Consort Music." Led by Baroque violinist Daniel Lee, an ensemble of violins, violas da gamba, and theorbos presents a program of dance suites by 17th-century composer William Lawes. Composed for the court of Charles I, the music straddles the Renaissance and Baroque eras with complex fantasies and pavans as well as lively country dances and solo songs by Lawes and several of his contemporaries sung by countertenor Keith Wehmeier. A $20 admission is suggested.

FORMATION

RECTOR'S FORUM AND BREAKFAST

This season, we welcome guest speakers from across our parish and the wider St. Louis community to join us for Rector's Forum. Each week will bring a new voice, a new perspective, and a new opportunity to explore how faith connects with the world around us. Come enjoy a hearty breakfast (beginning at 8:45 a.m.) and conversation/speakers (beginning at 9:15 a.m.). The cost of breakfast is $9. Kids under 5 eat free!

Last week's presenter was Abram Van Engen. If you would like to contact him about his presentation on poetry and faith, he can be reached at vanengen@wustl.edu.

November 2: Ken Andreski

Ken Andreski is Chief of Police for the City of Ladue. In his talk, he will give an inside look at the Ladue community, highlighting issues that may not always be visible and discussing ways the community can help address local needs and concerns.

November 9: Pilgrimage to Turkey

Members of St. Paul's clergy, staff, and congregation recently traveled on a pilgrimage through Turkey, tracing the missionary journeys of the Apostle Paul. They will share highlights, reflections, and photos from their travels in a special presentation exploring the faith, history, and culture of this remarkable region, the cradle of Christianity.

November 16: Giving Tree Kickoff

This Sunday's Rector's Forum marks the kickoff of our annual Giving Tree Program - and this year's effort includes a new way to give back! Part of the Giving Tree will help stock supplies for Blessing Bags, providing essentials for our under- and unhoused neighbors. A meaningful start to the season of giving and how small acts of kindness can make a lasting difference! We'll also welcome special guest Jennifer Krassinger, Executive Director of GiFT (Giving is a Family Tradition).
