THE FIRST LESSON

Jeremiah 31:7-14

Thus says the Lord:

Sing aloud with gladness for Jacob,
and raise shouts for the chief of the nations;
proclaim, give praise, and say,
"Save, O Lord, your people,
the remnant of Israel."

See, I am going to bring them from the land of the north, and gather them from the farthest parts of the earth, among them the blind and the lame, those with child and those in labor, together;
a great company, they shall return here.

With weeping they shall come,
and with consolations I will lead them back,
I will let them walk by brooks of water,
in a straight path in which they shall not stumble;
for I have become a father to Israel,
and Ephraim is my firstborn.

Hear the word of the Lord, O nations, and declare it in the coastlands far away;
say, "He who scattered Israel will gather him,
and will keep him as a shepherd a flock."

For the Lord has ransomed Jacob, and has redeemed him from hands too strong for him.

They shall come and sing aloud on the height of Zion, and they shall be radiant over the goodness of the Lord,
over the grain, the wine, and the oil,
and over the young of the flock and the herd;
their life shall become like a watered garden,
and they shall never languish again.

Then shall the young women rejoice in the dance, and the young men and the old shall be merry.

I will turn their mourning into joy,
I will comfort them, and give them gladness for sorrow.
I will give the priests their fill of fatness,
and my people shall be satisfied with my bounty, says the Lord.

Lector The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

PSALM 84:1-8 Quam dilecta!

- 8:00 The Psalm is spoken responsively by half verse.
- 10:30 The Psalm is sung by the choir.

Anglican Chant: C. H. H. Parry

- 1 How dear to me is your dwelling, O Lord of hosts! *
My soul has a desire and longing for the courts of the Lord;
my heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God.
- 2 The sparrow has found her a house and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young; *
by the side of your altars, O Lord of hosts,
my King and my God.
- 3 Happy are they who dwell in your house! *
they will always be praising you.
- 4 Happy are the people whose strength is in you! *
whose hearts are set on the pilgrims' way.
- 5 Those who go through the desolate valley will find it a place of springs, * for the early rains have covered it with pools of water.
- 6 They will climb from height to height, *
and the God of gods will reveal himself in Zion.
- 7 Lord God of hosts, hear my prayer; *
hearken, O God of Jacob.
- 8 Behold our defender, O God; *
and look upon the face of your Anointed.

THE SECOND LESSON

Ephesians 1:3-6,15-19a

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, just as he chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless before him in love. He destined us for adoption as his children through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of his will, to the praise of his glorious grace that he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved.

I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The People stand.

HYMN 128: "We three kings of Orient are"

Three Kings of Orient

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Matthew 2:13-23

Priest The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

After the wise men had left, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, "Get up, take the child and his mother, and flee to Egypt, and remain there until I tell you; for Herod is about to search for the child, to destroy him." Then Joseph got up, took the child and his mother by night, and went to Egypt, and remained there until the death of Herod. This was to fulfill what had been spoken by the Lord through the prophet, "Out of Egypt I have called my son."

When Herod saw that he had been tricked by the magi, he was infuriated, and he sent and killed all the children in and around Bethlehem who were two years old or under, according to the time that he had learned from the magi. Then what had been spoken through the prophet Jeremiah was fulfilled:

"A voice was heard in Ramah, wailing and loud lamentation, Rachel weeping for her children;
she refused to be consoled, because they are no more."

When Herod died, an angel of the Lord suddenly appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt and said, "Get up, take the child and his mother, and go to the land of Israel, for those who were seeking the child's life are dead." Then Joseph got up, took the child and his mother, and went to the land of Israel. But when he heard that Archelaus was ruling over Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. And after being warned in a dream, he went away to the district of Galilee. There he made his home in a town called Nazareth, so that what had been spoken through the prophets might be fulfilled, "He will be called a Nazorean."

Priest The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON

The Rev. Zack Rugenstone

A period of silence is kept. Then the People stand.

THE NICENE CREED

Celebrant Let us affirm our faith in the words of the Nicene Creed.

All We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Lector We have been blessed by the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, and we have been chosen in Christ before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless before him in love. With the boldness we have as ones chosen in Christ, let us pray to the Lord for the needs of the world, saying, "Happy are they who dwell in your house; / Our hearts rejoice in the living God."

The People kneel, as able.

We pray for the Church, remembering Sarah, Archbishop-elect of Canterbury; Sean, Presiding Bishop; Deon, our Bishop; and for the clergy and ministry leaders of St. Peter's. In the Anglican Communion, we remember the Church of the Province of Central Africa. May the Church serve within a spirit of wisdom with enlightened hearts. Happy are they who dwell in your house;

People Our hearts rejoice in the living God.

Lector We pray for this nation, and for governments here and all places, remembering Donald, our President, and Mike, our Governor; may the nations hear the word of the Lord and declare it to the coastlands far away, that the hearts of all in authority would be ruled by the Spirit, and led to wise decisions and right actions for the welfare and peace of the world. Happy are they who dwell in your house;

People Our hearts rejoice in the living God.

Lector We pray for those with any need in our parish and community, remembering Caroline Baer, Russ Lake, [_____], and David Westfall. May those who have come with weeping be led back with consolation, that with joy their spirits and bodies would not languish again. Happy are they who dwell in your house;

Our hearts rejoice in the living God.

Lector We pray for the departed in God, especially Laura Baer, William Brinkman, [_____] and Ruth Dewein. As we await with anticipation the second coming of our Lord, let all rest in the hope to which we have been called, the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe. Happy are they who dwell in your house;

Our hearts rejoice in the living God.

Lector Let us pray for our own needs, and for those of others.

Silence is kept.

Celebrant Almighty and eternal God, ruler of all things in heaven and earth: Mercifully accept the prayers of your people, and strengthen us to do your will; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CONFSSION OF SIN

Celebrant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence is kept.

Celebrant Most merciful God,
All we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The People stand.

THE PEACE

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

ANTHEM In Wintertime

When Thou wast born in wintertime, the Savior of mankind to be,
Came men of ev'ry sort and clime:
to worship Thee.

The Three Wise Men who from afar drew near the wond'rous Babe to see,
And in their wisdom found Thy star:
these worshipp'd Thee

And those who waited in Thy courts, who sought from earthly things to flee,
Who serv'd by pray'r and quiet thoughts:
these worshipp'd Thee.

And shepherds who say watching then,
their flocks about the hills dispersed,
Unlearn'd, unletter'd, humble men:
These found Thee first.

- Betty Askwith

The People stand and sing.

AT THE PRESENTATION, HYMN 100: "Joy to the world! The Lord is come" (st. 1 & 4)

Antioch

Joy to the world! The Lord is come;
let earth receive her King:
let every heart prepare Him room,
and heaven and nature sing.

He rules the world with truth and grace, and makes the nations prove the glories of His righteousness, and wonders of His love.

- Isaac Watts, alt.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Eucharistic Prayer B

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and every where to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Because you gave Jesus Christ, your only Son, to be born for us; who, by the mighty power of the Holy Spirit, was made perfect Man of the flesh of the Virgin Mary his mother; so that we might be delivered from the bondage of sin, and receive power to become your children.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS ET BENEDICTUS

• 8:00 Said by all

• 10:30 Sung by all (Hymnal S 129)

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

The People kneel.

Celebrant We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son.

For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All
We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Celebrant And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with blessed Mary, Joseph, Peter, and all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

Celebrant And now as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

A period of silence is kept.

Constance Vale provides an illuminating conversation on one of the most transformative forces shaping our world today: Artificial Intelligence. Constance will lead us through an exploration of how AI is reshaping the ways we design, build, communicate, and even understand what it means to be human. With examples from her work and her forthcoming book, Digital Decoys, Constance will guide us through the promises and challenges of an era in which our built environment increasingly responds to—and is shaped by—intelligent technologies. This conversation will open a window onto the ethical, creative, and civic questions that emerge as architecture and AI evolve together.

January 11: Bill Wallace, Executive Director, Missouri Veterans Endeavor (MOVE-STL)

Bill Wallace speaks about Missouri Veterans Endeavor (MOVE_STL), a nonprofit dedicated to helping Veterans overcome barriers to stability and independence. MOVE serves Veterans facing challenges such as homelessness, unemployment, financial hardship, and the difficult transition to civilian life. Bill offers a meaningful look at how MOVE honors those who have served by walking alongside them toward a more secure and hopeful future.

January 18: Sarah Fenske, Executive Director, St. Louis Magazine

Through Sarah Fenske's work and conversations across the region and her work as host of the St. Louis Daily podcast, she brings thoughtful insight into why things are the way they are in St. Louis - and how they might be made better. Sarah will share observations on the needs, concerns, and challenges facing our wider community, along with reflections on how churches and faith communities can listen more deeply, build meaningful connections, and respond with compassion and action. This week's forum offers an opportunity to engage local perspectives and consider how St. Peter's can more fully live out its call to serve our neighbors.
