Admirable Actions

Genesis 50

"You intended to harm me, but God intended it for good to accomplish what is now being done, the saving of many lives."

-Joseph / Genesis 50:20

We can follow Joseph's lead when communicating with _____ and one _____. He does three distinct things:

1.) Respects

2.) Rephrases

He rephrases for _____.

He also rephrases for _____.

3.) Returns

In a fragmented state we become isolated, living with even greater exposure to the enemy of our soul. We really are _____ and _____ together.

When we use this platform for conflict we rarely acquire _____ and we almost never achieve _____.

Two things get corrupted: The _____ & The _____.

Victory can be ours if we trade the _____ means of interaction for _____ communication.

My other request: _____.

CHURCH OF THE SAVIOR

Anthony Nelson 1/24/21

The question should not be, "_____ I fit in at Church of The Savior?" but I think it is, "_____ do I fit in at Church of The Savior?"

The nature of a nation's relationship with God's people will always change.

REMINDER:

God's people are God's _____.

God's people are God's _____.

God's people are God's _____.

There is a sweet release that occurs when you've been wronged and you no longer try to play _____ in that situation.

On his death bed Joseph tells his family two things, the same two things you'll need to tell those you love in your life:

#1.) Tell them of the _____.

When you tell those following you of God's promises you help them prepare for the best future but maybe a hard future.

#2.) Tell them where you want your _____ buried.

When you declare where you want your bones buried - this is a breakthrough declaration that bends a stubborn heart, because it binds you to them.
