

Ben Smith grew up in Central Kentucky and is a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Washington & Lee University and its law school. He holds three Master of Science degrees in finance and multiple professional designations, including CFP, CEBS, and CHFC. After teaching and practicing tax law in Virginia, Ben held executive leadership roles with American Express, GMAC, Wells Fargo, and American Partners Bank. Since 1995, he has helped individuals and churches create estate plans that build lasting Kingdom impact. Ben is active with the National Prayer breakfast fellowship and is personally involved with relief and ministry to the people in the Middle Eastern countries of Syria, Turkey, Lebanon, Jordan, Israel and the Asian country of Nepal.

Becoming a Miracle: Discovering the Adventure of Following Jesus

1. Ben's personal story _____

2. Our culture pressures us to focus on _____

3. Evidence that our culture is NOT working _____

4. Benefits of being a miracle and being generous _____

5. God's way is different _____

6. Greek word for repent means _____
7. Lesson of Luke 10:25 with the Good Samaritan _____

8. Luke 10:1-17 Jesus sent His disciples to heal _____

9. Matthew 25:31 Jesus references the following as worthy of praise _____

10. Our Daily Prayer: _____

11. What can I do right away? _____

Psalm 41:1-3, Matthew 6:31-33, Luke 6:38, 2 Corinthians 9:6-8

12. Agreeing to Chase Lions _____

13. Jesus Played Offense _____

14. Discover the Adventure of Following Jesus _____

15. Challenges we face _____

16. We can affect _____. Deuteronomy 7:9, Exodus 20:6,
2 Kings 19:34, 2 Kings 30:5-6

17. Conclusion

Pray _____

Pray _____

Pray _____

Pray _____

Job 42:10

