

Guest Speaker: Rick Curry

Rick Curry is an evangelist, author, speaker, ministry leader, and revival historian with a passion to see spiritual awakening sweep across America and the nations. He and his wife Jennifer travel full-time, spreading the message of awakening and transforming revival at conferences and gatherings across America. He is the author of The Sound of Awakening, a call to recognize and respond to the movements of God that have shaped generations and can prepare the way for awakening today. His current work includes Communion 250 and the development of awakening initiatives across Kentucky and beyond, drawing inspiration from the historic wells of revival that helped shape the nation.
