

40 DAYS OF PRAYER

2026 Prayer Guide

February 18 - April 4

WELCOME

It is the tradition of Church of the Savior to dedicate forty days to pray for our world, our nation, our community and our families. The forty days coincide with Lent, beginning with Ash Wednesday and ending the day before Resurrection Sunday. We exclude Sundays because those days are set aside for corporate worship at COS and/or your home.

Each week of prayer centers around a theme set by Pastor Steve and the Prayer Design Team. There is one page for each of the forty days. You will find daily scriptures followed by a prayer written by a member of our church family. The bottom of each page includes four prayer prompts:

 topic for our COS family

 a local church and pastor

 one of our COS Global Partners

 local government officials

We suggest you set aside a specific time each day to pray. Start with reading a few (or many) verses of Scripture. Then quiet your mind and listen to see if the Holy Spirit has a thought for you. Then pray.

It is also beneficial to pray with others: your spouse, your family or a friend. The introduction page for each week lists opportunities to join others for prayer here at COS. For a complete list of prayer groups, please visit our website: churchofthesavior.net/prayer.

We trust that you will be blessed by this guide and know that your prayers will have a great effect in the spiritual atmosphere of our community, our state, and our nation.

INTRO

FEBRUARY 18 - 21

The Prayer Design Team has chosen the following scripture to guide our 40 Days of Prayer:

“Surely I am coming soon.” Amen. Come, Lord Jesus!

Revelation 22:20 ESV

One day Jesus will return to earth to receive His own, or one day we will go to Him. We need to be ready! These 40 prayers are designed to prepare us to be ready so that we can say, “Amen! Come Lord Jesus!”

Thank you for joining us on this journey! You are encouraged to record your prayer requests and prayer answers on the pages in the back of this booklet. Keeping track of your requests and answers is a great way to be encouraged by God’s faithfulness.

As we begin, let the Holy Spirit bring

Realignment to Our Personal Lives

you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven

1 Thessalonians 1:9b - 10a ESV

Day 1: Wednesday, February 18

Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will lift you up in honor. James 4:10 NLT

Realignment of Our Life Through Repentance

by Hannah Jones

God, I submit myself to You. I surrender and repent of my selfish, old nature. I take this time to recognize the ways that I have lived that are not of You. I choose to turn from these old ways and gaze upon You and Your Holiness, to become the person You created me to be, a reflection of Your Glory.

Father, thank You for drawing me to You and sending Your son to die to save me (John 3:16). Thank You for Your mercy, grace, patience and loving kindness (Exodus 34:6). Jesus, thank You for taking my sin and nailing it to the cross, with Your blood and body as payment, to give me a chance to repent and become Your righteousness (1 Peter 2:24). Holy Spirit, thank You for being my Teacher, Counselor and Advocate. Thank You for convicting me of sin and revealing the path of righteousness, which is Jesus (John 14:16-17, John 16:7-11)! Father, Jesus and Holy Spirit thank You that, because of Your loving kindness that never fails, I can humble myself, repent of choosing self-will and turn to do Your will. I will find freedom in following You as You change me into Your glorious image (2 Corinthians 3:16-18). May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with us all (2 Corinthians 13:14) during these 40 days of prayer and throughout eternity! In Jesus' name, Amen.

Day 2: Thursday, February 19

Your word is a lamp to my feet And a light to my path. I have sworn and I will confirm it, That I will keep Your righteous judgments. I am exceedingly afflicted; Revive me, Lord, according to Your word. Be pleased to accept the voluntary offerings of my mouth, Lord, And teach me Your judgments. My life is continually in my hand, Yet I do not forget Your Law. The wicked have set a trap for me, Yet I have not wandered from Your precepts. I have inherited Your testimonies forever, For they are the joy of my heart. I have inclined my heart to perform Your statutes Forever, even to the end. Psalm 119:105-112 NASB

Realignment of Our Life Through the Word

by Joe Bowsher

Lord, we thank You for Your living Word that is always there and always speaking to us. We thank You for the light and the life that it brings to us. Keep us on the path that it reveals to us and give us an ever increasing hunger for it, Lord. We pray for open opportunities to share the treasures of Your Word with those around us who are discouraged or who have lost their way.

Father, please give us further revelation of Your love and nature through the Word so that we can know You better, love You more completely, and serve You faithfully. May Your Word spread in this coming year like never before until all have heard of Your marvelous love! For Your glory and honor, Lord Jesus, we ask this...Amen.

Day 3: Friday, February 20

So, my dear friends, flee from the worship of idols. And when we break the bread, aren't we sharing in the body of Christ? And though we are many, we all eat from one loaf of bread, showing that we are one body. You cannot drink from the cup of the Lord and from the cup of demons, too. You cannot eat at the Lord's Table and at the table of demons, too.

1 Corinthians 10:14, 16b-17, 21 NLT

Realignment of Our Life Through Communion

by Julie Futch

In Webster's Dictionary, a definition for the word communion is "intimate fellowship." Dear Heavenly Father, I long for intimate and unbroken fellowship with You. Thank You for sending Jesus to remove the barrier of sin and make a way for us to enter the holy place, both now and forever.

As we take the bread and the cup, we remember His body broken and His blood poured out for us. We rejoice that His sacrifice has made us one body, sharing in one loaf of bread. Lord Jesus, You are our source and our Bread of Life. Make us one with You and with one another. Help us forgive as You forgave, and reveal any hidden sin or bitterness that divides us. We renounce every idol and give You first place in our hearts. Thank You for loving us with holy jealousy. Keep us faithful as we await Your return and may the communion we take now be a reminder of the coming wedding supper of the Lamb that we will share in glory. Until then, cleanse and purify Your Bride, make her ready. Amen.

Realignment of Our Life Through Prayer

by Karyn Pirrello

Dear Heavenly Father, thank You for creating a holy path to converse and commune with You. Thank You that You are never too busy to listen and never too tired to speak. We pray confidently knowing that You hear us and will answer us in Your perfect ways and timing. Cultivate us to live a life of prayer in humility, reflection and gratitude. Align our prayers with Your will as we press forward to Your high calling. Thank You that prayer provides the most profound attachment we can form with You. Never let us take these times lightly as we take all that we are and all that we do and lay them down before You so that prayer becomes our lifestyle. In Your precious name Jesus, be our guide. Amen.

WEEK 1

FEBRUARY 23 - 28

Preparing Our Family

May the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all, as we do for you, so that he may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.

1 Thessalonians 3:12 - 13 ESV

This week we will be praying that our families will be ready for Jesus' return. Be sure to record your prayer requests and prayer answers on the pages in the back of this booklet.

Tuesday Prayer Meeting

February 24 | 6:30 PM | Worship Center

Day 5: Monday, February 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I have all that I need. He lets me rest in green meadows; he leads me beside peaceful streams. He renews my strength. He guides me along right paths, bringing honor to his name. Even when I walk through the darkest valley, I will not be afraid, for you are close beside me. Your rod and your staff protect and comfort me. You prepare a feast for me in the presence of my enemies. You honor me by anointing my head with oil. My cup overflows with blessings. Surely your goodness and unfailing love will pursue me all the days of my life, and I will live in the house of the Lord forever.

Psalm 23 NLT

Praying for Marriages

by Bill Rieser

I pray for every marriage and every couple that they would not wait until they are dead to have this Psalm prayed over their lives. I pray in Jesus' name that the promises of salvation, provision, rest, peace, strength, victory, protection, comfort, honor, overflowing blessings, goodness, and the pursuit of God's love would bless, touch, heal, save, and sustain every marriage and every couple all the days of their lives. I pray for every marriage to be rooted and established in God's love and power so they will know how far that love stretches and goes so that they would love each other as Jesus loves them. John 15:12 "My command is this: Love each other as I have loved you." In Jesus' name, Amen.

Day 6: Tuesday, February 24

And this same God who takes care of me will supply all your needs from his glorious riches, which have been given to us in Christ Jesus. Philippians 4:19 NLT

Praying for Widows and Widowers

by Beki Pope

Father, we praise You and thank You for these beautiful promises. We ask You to help widows and widowers to look to You in confidence that You are their healer, their comforter, their provider and their constant companion. In the quiet moments of loneliness may they feel Your presence. Thank You for friends and family that You have provided for them. In moments of uncertainty, strengthen them and give them Your direction. In moments of anxiety, surround them with Your divine protection. In moments of grief, relieve their sorrow and restore their joy. As they consider "what now?" help them know that You have a plan and a purpose for their future. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Day 7: Wednesday, February 25

Don't copy the behavior and customs of this world, but let God transform you into a new person by changing the way you think. Then you will learn to know God's will for you, which is good and pleasing and perfect. Romans 12:2 NLT

Praying for Children and Teens

by Sophia Marquez

Dear Lord, praise to You the One that this generation thirsts after. Praise be to the One who gives more than the world could ever give. Forgive us, Lord, for the shortcomings of our sins. Protect our youth's mind, body, and spirits from the lies of the enemy that will try and whisper in their ears.

Lord, let the youth of this world be set apart as holy and sanctified by Your redeeming blood. Transform the youth, God, into a servanthood with two purposes; to experience the love and the light of God, and to show others the love and the light of God. Father, let this next generation be something the world hasn't seen before. Let the praise of this next generation be a sweet aroma to You, oh God. In Jesus name, Amen.

Pure and undefiled religion in the sight of our God and Father is this: to visit orphans and widows in their distress, and to keep oneself unstained by the world. James 1:27 NASB

But Jesus said, "Leave the children alone, and do not forbid them to come to Me; for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these." Matthew 19:14 NASB

Praying for Kentucky's Foster Care Children

by Ben Smith

Dear Father, I pray for the more than 8,000 foster children in our state! They desperately need You and a home! Open up the hearts of Your people to become faith-filled foster parents and to provide love for these children You deeply love. Touch the hearts of Your people to provide "mentors" to the foster parents, prayer and assistance to them. Father, help these foster children come to You and help us guide them to You! Lord, please open the hearts and minds of churches all over Lexington and across Kentucky to open their doors for Parents' Night Out, support groups and regular prayer for the foster parents and children. Send us 5,000 families to become foster parents and 200 churches to support them. Thank You that the state of Kentucky has agreed to partner with the faith community! We thank You for adding faith-based foster parents, faith-based mentors for foster parents and churches willing to support both! In Jesus' mighty name, Amen.

Day 9: Friday, February 27

Don't let anyone look down on you because you are young, but set an example for the believers in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith and in purity. 1 Timothy 4:12 NIV

Praying for Young Adults

by Katie Simmons

God, I pray for the young adults in our city. I pray You would set them apart for Your purposes. Remove a spirit of lukewarmness, that they would not live with one foot in Your kingdom and one foot in the world. I pray they would abandon every idol and be all in in their relationship with You.

I pray they would be an example to their brothers and sisters in Christ. I pray their speech would edify and bring You honor. I pray the way they live their life and the decisions they make, even in the smallest areas, would call those around them up to a higher standard. God, grow a love in them that would draw other believers closer to You. I pray these young adults would have a measure of faith that would stir up an unshakable belief in others that nothing is impossible for You. God, bring a purification to these young adults that they would desire to live a life that is holy and pleasing to You. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Praying for the Restoration of the Family Altar

by William and Gloria Hale

Heavenly Father, we prayerfully come before You in the name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus, to ask that husbands and wives within the body of Christ set a time to come together daily to read Your Word and to pray.

We ask that the children within the home also join in prayer with their parents, establishing a family altar time. We ask that You would restore the family altar in homes across America! Amen.

Praying for the Lexington Area

by Biff Buckley

Gracious Father, we pray for our community today. We thank You for Lexington and Central Kentucky. We are grateful for one of the key concepts Jesus taught his disciples to pray: may "God's Kingdom come and God's will be done on earth as it is in Heaven." We insert our community into that prayer and pray, Father release more and more of Your Kingdom values, awareness and power into Central Kentucky so that it represents more and more the characteristics of Heaven. We are dependent on Your leadership and transforming power to accomplish this.

Give each of us divine insight into how You have uniquely called and gifted us as individuals and as a church to do our part in participating in this divine transformation. We pray that in every sphere of society in our community You would impart the necessary vision and strategy to your people to accomplish this. In the matchless name of Jesus. Amen.

You shall raise up the foundations of many generations;
And you shall be called the Repairer of the Breach,
The Restorer of Streets to Dwell In.* Isaian 58:12 NKJV

Praying for Kentucky

by David Snider

Lord, I lift Kentucky before You, the land where early believers prayed with grit and hope, where circuit riders carried the gospel through wilderness paths, and where hidden intercessors shaped the spiritual landscape through quiet faithfulness. Let the historic wells of Cane Ridge, Red River, and Wilmore stir again with fire from on high. Raise up a new company marked by purity, courage, integrity, and unwavering devotion to stand in the gap for this generation. Let Kentucky become a furnace of awakening, where prodigals return, families are restored, and communities are transformed by compassion and righteousness.

Strengthen every intercessor, counselor, and shepherd who labors in hidden places. Let us become repairers of the breach in this day. Establish now, O Lord, peace, justice, and holy fear across the Commonwealth. May the prayers of past revivalists ignite a legacy of blessing for generations rising to carry Your light forward. Let it begin with me. In Jesus' name, Amen.

and his name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God,
Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.* Isaiah 9:6 ESV

Praying for the American Government

by Bob Sturdivant

Our Father in Heaven, You are the Ancient of Days and the one who created the concept of authority. You give us our leaders and those in authority, and You give them clear directions on how to govern in Your Holy Word. The perfect example of a leader was set by Your son, Jesus Christ, who acted as a servant, but also spoke as one having authority. Isaiah declared that Jesus would have the "government upon his shoulders," and Paul tells us that our role in government is not only to obey the laws of man, but also to pray for those in authority. So we humbly ask that You send revival fire to all of the members of Congress so that they may recognize Jesus as their "Wonderful Counselor." Please turn their hearts back to You and send them the Holy Spirit who will "teach them all things." Finally, we ask You to have mercy on our nation and grant the request of Your remnant. We pray all these things in the mighty name of Jesus. Amen.

I had boasted to him about you, and you have not embarrassed me. But just as everything we said to you was true, so our boasting about you to Titus has proved to be true as well. And his affection for you is all the greater when he remembers that you were all obedient, receiving him with fear and trembling. II Corinthians 7:14-15 NIV

Praying for the American Church

by Dawn Stamper

Search my heart Lord, and all American believers, showing us our wicked ways. I repent for myself and the American body of Christ, seeking Your face, turning from our wicked ways. Please heal our land, and correct our focuses and actions. Cause us to seek first Your kingdom and Your righteousness, that we would be Your glorious Bride, spotless, and without wrinkle upon Your return!

Please give us eyes to see and ears to hear daily what is on Your heart what You would have us do to serve You, to make multitudes of new disciples, teaching them all that You have taught us, for Your glory. We need You desperately and long for Your return. In Your blessed name, Jesus! Amen.

Day 15: Friday, March 6

Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Matthew 5:10 ESV

Praying for the Persecuted Church

by David Boskey

To the One who is coming soon, because we know that all things are under Your dominion (Daniel 7:13-14) and there is no authority except God (Romans 13:1-2), we intercede on behalf of Your faithful servants, at home and abroad, who are being persecuted as they reflect Your light to an ever-darkening world (John 3:19).

You urge us to pray for the governing authorities to rule in such a way that the godly lives of men and women might bring many to the knowledge of the truth, for You desire all people to be saved (1 Timothy 2:1-4). And because we know that the hearts of all these leaders are like streams of water in Your hand, so we ask that You would turn them to Yourself (Proverbs 21:1) so the gospel might be unhindered. We ask for whether in life, in persecution, or in death, You would encourage Your people as we all await Your return. In Yeshua's name, Amen.

Praying for Israel

by Jamie Boskey

Yeshua, how we long to see you SOON! In the midst of the darkness of this age, we want to see You triumphantly return to Jerusalem and set up Your kingdom on earth, as it is in Heaven! So Father we pray strategically today. You said that Yeshua will not return to this earth until Your people Israel call upon Him. So we pray as you prophesied in Romans 11, that ALL OF ISRAEL WOULD BE SAVED! God, we see Your mighty hand already miraculously working in the land of promise, according to Your Word. Father, as we watch the prophecies of Ezekiel 37 taking place before our very eyes—the regathering of Israel from the four winds to their land AND the Israeli Defense Force assembled and on its feet—we pray BREATHE ON THE DRY BONES THAT THEY MIGHT LIVE! We pray that Your people who are called by Your name WILL repent, You WILL restore their Land, You WILL turn their hearts of stone into flesh, and at the sound of Israel calling on You: YOU WILL TRIMPHANTLY RETURN!

Colossians 1:9-10 NIV

Praying for Our Pastors and Staff

by David Hysong

Heavenly Father, grant our pastors and staff a listening heart and discerning spirit to lead Your people and discern good from evil, as Solomon asked for. Give them godly wisdom to steward time, resources, and talents effectively for Your glory. Help them see people through Your eyes and know Your direction, trusting You fully. Strengthen them to endure criticism, hardship, and weariness, renewing their strength for the work of ministry. Protect them from spiritual attacks and the enemy's schemes as they wage spiritual warfare. Help them to model faithfulness and find joy and delight in You, even in difficult seasons. Keep their hearts tender, teachable, and humble, filled with the fruits of the Spirit. Provide time and desire for them to withdraw and spend time in Your presence, just as Jesus did, so that they might be renewed.

Praying for the Leadership Board

by Joe Blackburn

Father, we thank You for those who faithfully serve on the Leadership Board. Help them be examples of faithfulness, integrity, and humility to our congregation. Anoint them with Your Holy Spirit and give them a shepherd's heart to show Your love and help others. Give them divine wisdom and revelation to lead with clarity and purpose. Give them discerning hearts to rightly determine Your will and the courage to make decisions even when they are difficult. Grant them Your favor to work with the church staff and the congregation in unity and perfect harmony to seek common goals to advance Your kingdom. Guard their hearts and protect them from attacks of the enemy. For these things we are so grateful. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Luke 14:28-29 BSB

Praying for the Brannon Road Project

by Neil Heffelbower

We recently visited Florida, and I was amazed at all the new construction! Single & multi-family homes, new businesses, increased infrastructure; all to support a population boom. It's very different than Kentucky, much of the building is happening on sand. We know the passage about a wise man building his house upon the rock. I could not imagine putting footers and foundation on the sand, how unsettling! We know when we build upon the cornerstone that is Christ, He is our rock and firm foundation!

Lord, as we prepare to have Brannon Road overhauled, we declare that we trust in You. Also, we count the cost, knowing there may be inconveniences along the way but believing that You will bring to fruition Your kingdom purposes! With five churches on Brannon Road, and many residences, we pray that You would guide the engineers and project leads, may there be minimal disruptions, and may all work be completed on time and in order, according to Your will! In Jesus' name, Amen!

Praying for Our Global Partners

by J & L Wilbur

Dearest Father of all nations, we lift before Your throne of grace our sisters and brothers who are proclaiming your love, truth, and righteousness among the lost and the least. May they know Your power and Your presence today, guided and directed by Your Spirit, protected and provisioned by Your grace, so that they may be Christ to the nations. Through them, may the people who are walking in darkness see your light. Through them, may those who hunger and thirst for righteousness be led to the Bread of Life. Through them, may chains be broken and the captives set free.

May the flame of the gospel, promised in Genesis 12:1-3, and the call to be a holy nation and a royal priesthood set them on fire for proclaiming the gospel in the days ahead. May they announce to the nations and peoples they are sent, that Jesus is Lord, to the glory of God the Father! Amen.

Praying for Our Spring Groups

by Kim Ball

God, we thank You for the passion and enthusiasm of the early believers. When they heard Your Word being preached, they were hungry for more of You. Fill our groups with those that want to know You more. I pray for an earnestness for each one of us to seek You and to have an eagerness to read, study, live and obey Your Word.

Thank You for each group available and for each teacher that leads. Guide the teachers as they pray and prepare for each session. May each teacher and each learner be filled with Your Holy Spirit and have hearts that are hungry, open and receptive to what You want to say out of Your holy Word.

Thank You for each group here at church and for those in homes and in our community. Help us to live as Your disciples and go forward making disciples teaching them to obey all the commands You have given us. Thank You for Your promise to guide us daily and never leave us as we journey together seeking You! In Jesus' name, Amen.

Day 23: Monday, March 16

*Thus says the Lord,
"Restrain your voice from weeping
And your eyes from tears,
For your work will be rewarded," says the Lord;
"And your children will return from the enemy's land.
"There is [confident] hope for your future," says the Lord;
"Your children will come back to their own country."*

Praying for Prodigals and the Unsaved

by Robyn Oatley

Father, reward my work today which is praying for my lost loved ones – the unsaved and the prodigals. Bring them home to You. I declare Your Word, Lord, that they will come back from the land of the enemy. It is amazing, Lord, that from the beginning, You had a plan for all to be reconciled to You through Jesus Christ our Lord. You do not wish that any should perish but that all should come to repentance (2 Peter 3:9). I thank You for that and further pray the promise that my loved ones, _____ (name them out loud), Your children, will come back to their own country – Your kingdom. Remove the scales from their eyes and the plugs from their ears so they can receive Your saving grace. Holy Spirit, hover over them so they cannot run from Your presence.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Praying for Gen Z & Gen Alpha

by Cheyenne Gaston

Jesus, the youth and young adults of this nation have strayed so far from You, blinded by the pursuit of things that don't really matter. Turn their hearts away from their stubbornness, and give them a heart responsive to Your voice and Your guidance. Let there be a longing for truth among Gen Z and Gen Alpha that pulls their gaze away from all things not of You. Protect these youth from the lies and traps of all of the modern idols plaguing this country, and give them a longing for You and Your decrees. Let them become aware of their spirit's longing to be united with You, and give them a desire to truly be Your people. Let there be an awakening like never before in the lives of Gen Z and Gen Alpha. I proclaim all these things in the mighty name of Jesus, Amen.

Praying for Our College Campuses

by Reese Nickels

Heavenly Father, as we await the promise of Jesus coming soon, we lift college campuses to You. We thank You for Your grace and mercy upon this generation. It is Your heart's desire that all would come to repentance. Move powerfully among students – awakening hearts, drawing prodigals home, and igniting a harvest of souls. Radically transform this generation to walk in holiness and surrender, attentive to Your voice and expectant of holy interruptions. Pour out Your Spirit across campuses, classrooms, and dorms. May students encounter Your glory and respond with lives yielded to You. Equip and empower them to proclaim the hope of Christ and to be soul winners for the kingdom of Heaven. May they come to know Your heart as they seek Your face. Let their lives be a fragrant offering, bringing glory and honor to Your name as they prepare for Your return. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Praying for Unreached People Groups

by Miles Phelps

Lord Jesus, we lift before You the billions who have never heard Your name. You are patient, not wishing that any should perish, but that all would come to repentance. We ask You to awaken Your Church with urgency and compassion for the unreached peoples of the earth. Let Your heart for the lost burn within us. Send laborers into the harvest fields. Open doors in closed nations. Strengthen and protect indigenous believers. Pour out Your Spirit with power, confirming Your Word through signs, wonders, and transformed lives. May every tribe, tongue, and nation encounter the saving grace of Jesus. Break strongholds, soften hearts, and prepare whole communities to receive the gospel.

We declare that the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord. Until You return, make us faithful, courageous, and obedient. Praying for Our Public Schools

by Corliss West

Father, I pray these words over every staff member of _____ (name a local school) today. May they take every opportunity to share Jesus with our precious children. Ignite them, Father, with boldness, to stand for justice. Oh, Holy Spirit, bring divine guidance to every educator. Father, we pray for every public school leader in our counties. Draw godly men and women into leadership that demonstrate integrity and wisdom. Holy Spirit, bring great conviction to those promoting immoral values and false teaching. Woo unbelieving leaders to You, Father, and strengthen our Christian leaders with supernatural endurance.

You promise in Your Word, Psalm 91, that you are our refuge and our fortress. Even today, Father, protect our children in schools by Your protective shield. Send forth angels to each school, ordering their every move! And thus, we can boldly declare today, the Holy Spirit is moving in all schools in our land. Hallelujah! Amen!

Spiritual Warfare

Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the schemes of the devil. For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness.

Ephesians 6:11 - 12a ESV

Commander of the Lord's army, we bow before You today. We stand on holy ground in Your presence. We are asking what You want Your servants to do as we stand firm against all the strategies of the devil.

In obedience to Your Word, we put on every piece of God's armor to resist the enemy in this time of evil. We put on the belt of truth that holds all the armor parts together. You are truth – Your Word is truth. The belt of truth protects us from Satan, the 'father of lies.' We put on the belt of truth that prepares us to discern truth from falsehoods. Thank You that with all God's armor held together by the belt of truth, we will stand firm in spiritual warfare; and we are anchored in Your Word. Thank You for victory in Jesus. Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour in which the Son of Man is coming. Matthew 25:1-2, 13 NKJV

Preparing as We Watch and Wait

by Ron Harris

Lord Jesus, as we, Your bride, wait and watch for Your return, we ask that You would supernaturally impart to us, the secrets of how to do this relationally. Help us to be wise and make our main focus, our relationship with You (hearts full of the oil of Your love) and not our ministries and areas of influence (our lamps).

As we faithfully fulfill our responsibility to "Go and make disciples of all the nations" (Matthew 28:19), help us to "dwell" in the secret place (Psalm 91:1). Draw us into Your presence and set our hearts on fire with the personal revelation of how much You love and delight in us, regardless of our weaknesses. Help us, by Your grace, to faithfully invest time and energy, with You, in the secret place of our hearts! We ask for the fulfillment of John 15, that our hearts be continually nourished by Yours, as we "abide" in You and Your Word abides in us. Amen.

Praying for Signs and Wonders

by Lloyd Zimmerman

Heavenly Father, we thank You for sending Your Son Jesus to shed His blood on our behalf. We thank You that our names are written in the Lambs Book of Life. We are born again! We live in perilous times. You tell us all who live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution. The world hates us, because we belong to You. We have confidence in You. Lord, because You are faithful all the time, and even as we face tribulation and lawlessness, You're always here with us. We pray that You would help us today to be faithful to You even as You are faithful to us. Thank You again for our identity in Christ! You said, "I will never leave you nor forsake you." Our redemption is secure and our lives are in Your hands. We do not fear. Thank You for the authority You have given us to heal the sick, raise the dead and perform supernatural signs and wonders by the resurrection power of Jesus Christ. Preparing for the Hope of Heaven

by Janet Gayle Harris

Father, in the middle of this time on earth, where darkness and sin abound, we are so thankful for Your promises. We can see from Genesis to Revelation, Your deep desire to be with us. Thank You for Your promise, in John 14, that You have gone before us, and You are preparing a heavenly place, so that where You are, we may be also. As we are walking through the hardships and pain of this life, help us remember there will be a day when You will wipe away every tear from our eyes and eliminate death entirely. No one will mourn or weep any longer and our pain will no longer exist. Night will be no more. We will never need the light of the sun or a lamp, because You, Lord God, will shine on us. You are "making everything to be new and fresh." All of these eternal blessings, however, will pale in comparison to the joy of seeing You face to face, and being in Your presence forever! Awaiting for the Rewards of Christ

by Chris Haas

As Christians we will be held accountable for what we have done, good or bad. It is at this judgement that we will receive the rewards based on how we have lived for Christ. Will we receive many crowns that we will humbly cast before the throne as we worship our God Most High?

Heavenly Father, we pray that at the final judgement that You will find our earthly lives worthy in honor of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. We have been given a mission to be a kingdom of priest for the purpose of bringing the lost into God's holy house. Oh God, we pray that we have served that mission well and that You rejoice in our efforts. Father, forgive us for those times when we did not fear You enough to put our feet in motion to serve Your mission desires. Father, give us the wisdom, courage, and strength to do Your will here on earth that will result in many crowns for us. Thanking Him for Assurance of Salvation

by Ryan West

Gracious Father, we come before You with thankful hearts, holding to the promise You have given us in Your Word. Those who believe in the name of Your Son may know that they have eternal life. Thank You for a salvation that is not built on our feelings, performance, or strength, but on Your unchanging faithfulness, grace, and mercy.

When doubt whispers and our hearts grow weary, remind us that our assurance rests in Jesus Christ—His finished work, His victory over sin, and His living presence within us. Help us to trust not in what we have done, but in what He has perfectly completed on the cross for us. May this assurance give us boldness in prayer, peace in trials, and endurance as we walk with You.
