

KNOW HIM. MAKE HIM KNOWN.

A Personal Discipleship Assessment

Week 7 — You're Not Just Saved

Lie: Knowing Jesus is enough.

Truth: In Christ, you are purposed to make Him known.

PART 1 — RECEIVING FROM JESUS

These are good things. Every believer should pursue them.

How consistently am I receiving from Christ?

Reflection

Which of these feels most uncomfortable?

Why?

PART 3 — THE MIRROR

Read Luke 8:38–39.

The man wanted to stay with Jesus. Jesus told him, "Return home, and declare how much God has done for you."

Honest Evaluation

Which statement best describes me today?

- I am mostly learning about Jesus.
- I am learning about Jesus and occasionally helping others know Him.
- I am intentionally helping others know Him.

Closing Prayer

Father,

Thank You for saving me through Jesus Christ. Forgive me for treating discipleship as something I only receive. Help me not only know Jesus, but make Him known. Show me who You are sending me to this week. Give me courage to speak, wisdom to listen, and love for the people around me. Use my story to point others to Your Son.

In Jesus' name,

Amen.

Key Reminder: What Jesus saved me from is important.

But He did not merely rescue me from my old story. He gave me a role in His story.
