DEUTERONOMY 5:1-21; 6:5-25

Moses told all of God's people to come together and listen to everything he said. "Learn and follow the laws God gave us."

Moses reminded the people of the laws: love God and worship Him, keep the Sabbath day holy, honor your parents, do not take things that are not yours. Moses told the people they must obey God's laws so they could go to the land God had promised them.

"Remember that God brought us out of Egypt where we were slaves," Moses said. "Carefully obey all of God's commands. Do what is right and good so that you will be ready to go to the land God promised us."

"When your children ask you about these laws, tell them how God saved and protected His people. Tell your children that God gave us the laws to help us. We will be blessed if we obey all of God's commands."

Moses warned the people to do as God commanded and not turn away from what was right. "Love God with all your heart and soul and strength. Repeat these words to your children. Talk about God's laws when you sit in your house, when you lie down, and when you get up."

Moses wanted the people to remember how much God cared for them.
