Prayer of Confession

One:

God calls us into discipleship, but we follow reluctantly.
Let us confess our sins and commit ourselves to following the path God has chosen for us.

Many:

We hear the call to trust in God always,
But some days our stresses and fears are even more real to us than God.
Trust is elusive.

Jesus sent the disciples into the unknown,
telling them the road ahead would be hard.
We don't want life to be hard.

We want life to be free of danger.

And when it is not, we wonder if God has abandoned us.

We forget the wisdom of scripture, which reminds us
nothing can separate us from God's love and protection.
Holy One, help us confront our fears and struggles,
so we can go into the world as ambassadors of your love.

One

Hear us, Holy One, as we silently confess our frailty and failings.

Silence is kept

One: Though fear should paralyze us;
though danger cause us to close our doors;
though troubles overwhelm, leading us away from God
only one thing is necessary: turn back to God's promise of grace.
Remember that God is reaching out with loving arms, and let yourself be held. Ask for forgiveness, and it is yours.
In Christ Jesus, we are forgiven. Amen.
