Hymn No. 215 What Wondrous Love is this (1st verse only)

Prayer of Disciples: (spoken together)

God of all creation, Giver of Life on earth and heaven, we come to you this night with heavy hearts and wounded souls. We are your children, who love you, but are not always faithful to you. You allow us to be at your Table, and yet, as disciples, we deny knowing you, we betray our faith in you, we try to hide our sin from you, we find your calling to this faith too hard sometimes, so we try to entomb you. But we want to be in your presence, we need you. We still need you. Thank you for offering your whole self to us in the love of Jesus this night. What wondrous love. AMEN

Leaving in silence

What Wondrous Love Is This

What wondrous love is this, O my soul, O my Soul

What Wondrous love is this, O my soul!

What wondrous love is this that caused the Lord of bliss

To bear the dreadful curse for my soul, for my soul,

To bear the dreadful curse for my soul.

O Sacred Head, Now Wounded

O Sacred head, now wounded, with grief and shame weighed down;

Now scornfully surrounded with thorns, thine only crown;

O sacred head, what glory, what bliss 'til now was thine!

Yet, though despised and gory, I joy to call thee mine.
