CHILDREN'S DEPARTMENT

GOT CANDY? WE NEED IT! Help us make Easter special for our kids at our annual Egg Hunt on Wednesday, March 27th. We have over 50 kids that regularly attend each week, so we need to be prepared for LOTS of kids with LOTS of candy and LOTS of eggs!!! You can help by sending in plastic eggs and/or bags of individually wrapped candy or prizes to be stuffed in our Easter eggs. *Pre-filled eggs are more than welcome too (and help our volunteers out). Just fill some plastic Easter eggs with prizes or individually wrapped candy (please no chocolate - it melts), and drop them off at church any time before March 24th. Thank you!

A Note From The Pastor...

Whatever you do, do it heartily, as to the Lord and not to men. --Colossians 3:23

A poster in my kitchen reads, "Housework is something you do that nobody notices unless you don't do it."

The truth behind that statement applies to more than just housework. People seem to notice our failures--our anger, impatience, criticism, or self-pity. But who notices when, by God's grace, we get it right? We feel that nobody sees or appreciates us. Sometimes that may be true, except for one comforting reality: God sees and He appreciates!

That reality can also be a source of security. According to the apostle Paul, we are ultimately serving Jesus Christ (Col. 3:17,23-24). We are to serve Him with an attitude of thanksgiving (v.17) and wholeheartedness (v.23). The Lord not only sees and values everything we do, but He also will reward us (v.24).

Hudson Taylor, the great missionary to China, believed that Christians should do all things wholeheartedly, not just those actions that can be seen. He reasoned, "As our Father makes many a flower to bloom unseen in the lonely desert, [let us] do all that we can do, as under His eye, though no other eye ever takes note of it."
