JESUS IS KING

An old country song seems to come to mind for every situation. I don't even listen to country music every day, but somehow, lyrics from days gone by pop out of my mouth for many occasions. Now that we have gotten past election night, I keep singing the words, "Bob Wills is still the king." These words come from a song nearly fifty years old.

Some of you are saying, "What?" You have never heard of Bob Wills. King of where? The song is referring to a mid-twentieth century musician known for Western swing music. Wills had a lively style of music that, along with his name, becomes more distant every day. He was popular in his day but his "kingdom" didn't last except in some niche markets.

Do you know who is still king? Jesus! Politics may come and go, but Jesus has dominion over His kingdom. Policies are made law and then debunked, strategies are pushed and later stymied, and countries rise and fall. Periods of peace, war, prosperity, and want are part of the human process in man-made governments.

The throne of the Kingdom of God, however, is never vacant. Jesus has been on the throne in eras of kings, chiefs, presidents, and prime ministers. His policies never change but grace pours forth from His throne. He instills His people with hope as we anticipate the day we will see Him face to face. We will live with Him forever as every enemy will have been defeated and the everlasting kingdom of love and peace will be the only kingdom for the rest of eternity.

I pray you will worship and celebrate King Jesus. He gave His life for humanity, was resurrected to defeat death, and now waits for us to come to Him. Whatever comes our way, good or bad, Jesus Christ is still the true king.

- David
