The Spirit of God Gives Gifts to Edify the Church

1 Corinthians 12:4-12; Ephesians 4:11-12

Who God Is: The Spirit of God gives gifts to believers so that Christ may be revealed through the church.
How We Follow Him: I use my gifts in faithful stewardship and obedience to build up the body of Christ.

COME

1 Corinthians 12:4-12
Ephesians 4:11-12

Paul writes to believers to help them understand both the work of Holy Spirit in the individual believer and His work in the church.

GO

Read 1 Corinthians 12 & Ephesians 4

Begin your journey of asking Holy Spirit to reveal who you are and God's plan for you.

Tip: Get a journal or notebook. Start writing down EVERYTHING that you see, hear, smell, etc. If you have dreams, write them down. The smallest things can be God talking to you, teaching you how to hear His voice, and how to exercise your gift. Enjoy this journey!

GROW

All About Holy Spirit

1. Holy Spirit is the Source of the Gifts: Gifts come from Him. They are different, but from the same Spirit. Your focus should always be on the Giver, not the gift. (1 Corinthians 12:4-7)
2. Holy Spirit Indwells and Infills Believers for Fruit-Bearing and Service: Born-again believers have Holy Spirit living INSIDE of us, we bear His fruit. We can also be FILLED with His Spirit. (Gal. 3:22-23;1 Cor. 12:7).
3. Holy Spirit Gives Gifts for Leadership: He gives gifts so that His church, the body of Christ, can be edified (Ephesians 3:8-13).
4. His Gifts Are Not Given for "Self-Promotion" but Service: We learned to LOVE Jesus as we follow Him. As the Spirit of the Lord gives us His gifts, we serve Him only, not ourselves. (1 Corinthians 12:12)

My Prayer Response

Holy Spirit, thank You for revealing Yourself in our lives. Thank You for the gifts You give according to Your wisdom. Help me to walk in obedience, live a transformed life, and steward what You have given me with humility and love. Use me to serve Your people and to make Christ known in the church and beyond. In Jesus' name, Amen.
