Show Me Me: A Prayer That Changed My Life

A few years ago, I prayed three words that would change the direction of my life: "Show Me Me." At the time, I was in one of the lowest places I had ever experienced. I was going through something I desperately wanted to end, and I didn't know how to pray my way through it. My prayer was simple: "Lord, remove this." But He didn't remove it.

When God didn't answer my prayer in the way I expected, I began to seek Him more deeply. I searched His Word more intentionally and prayed more sincerely. Somewhere in that process, He shifted my focus from what I wanted Him to change around me to what He wanted to change within me. So I asked Him, "Lord, show me, me." I didn't fully understand what I was asking for. But when God began to answer, I didn't always like what I saw—or who I had become.

He began revealing areas in my heart that needed to be confronted: pride, judgment, control, and other places I had not fully surrendered to Him. As He revealed each area, I confessed it, asked Him to forgive me, and asked Him to deal with me in that area.

For example, I asked God, "What is the opposite of pride?" The answer was humility.
So I prayed, "Lord, remove pride from me. Show me how to be humble. Teach me humility."
Then I searched His Word for what it says about pride and humility. I prayed those Scriptures and asked God to teach me how to walk in humility. Slowly but surely, He began changing me.

It became a completely transparent conversation with God. One of the most beautiful things about prayer is that we can be honest with Him because He already knows everything about us. There is no hiding from Him. Scripture tells us to bring our requests and petitions before Him. Philippians 4:6 says, "In every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God."

He showed me areas where I had walked in judgment. God began teaching me how to pray for my enemies instead of praying about my enemies. Matthew 5:44 says, "But I tell you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you." Rather than continuing to ask Him to change everyone and everything around me, I began asking Him to deal with me.

"Lord, show me where I am wrong."
"Lord, show me where pride is operating in me."
"Lord, teach me humility."
"Lord, help me surrender control."

Every Scripture I could find about pride, humility, judgment, forgiveness, surrender, and obedience became part of my prayers. I didn't just read the Scriptures—I prayed them. I wanted God to change my situation, but He was dealing with my heart.

As I continued praying, I realized that I had been in a spiritual battle without fully understanding it. I had been trying to fight a spiritual battle in the physical realm.

2 Corinthians 10:3–5 reminds us that although we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh, because the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but are powerful through God for pulling down strongholds.

But God's Word says in Ephesians 6 teaches us about the armor of God—the belt of truth, the breastplate of righteousness, the preparation of the gospel of peace, the shield of faith, the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God. So I learned how to suit up.

I began praying the Word of God over my life and using Scripture as my sword, even when it wasn't what my flesh wanted to pray. The easiest prayer would have been:

"Lord, remove this cup."
But, just as Jesus prayed in the garden of Gethsemane:
"Nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done." Luke 22:42
That became my prayer too.

I learned that prayer isn't simply about asking God to fix what is around me. Sometimes it is allowing Him to deal with what is within me. He showed me my pride so I could learn humility, my judgment so I could learn grace, and my need for control so I could learn surrender.

It wasn't always comfortable or easy, but it was necessary. Sometimes God doesn't begin by changing the people around us or removing the situation we are praying about. Sometimes He begins by revealing us to us. When He does, we can defend ourselves, make excuses, and point fingers—or we can confess, repent, search His Word, and allow Him to deal with us one area at a time.
That is what happened to me.

My prayer started with "Lord, remove this." But it ended with: "Nevertheless, not my will, but Thine, be done."

And somewhere in between those two prayers, God showed me me—and in showing me me, He set me free.

BROOKLAND BAPTIST CHURCH

Legacy Endowment Plan

Declaring to present and future generations the importance of our faith and trust in God — and sustaining the church we love during and beyond our lifetime.

Brookland Baptist Church
Legacy Endowment Plan

The establishment of a church endowment plan is a way for individuals to declare to present and future generations the importance of their faith and trust in God, and their desire to perpetuate the well-being of the church during and beyond their lifetime.

By making gifts during or after your lifetime, you are providing continual financial support to the church so that your children, grandchildren and others you care about may continue to enjoy a strong and vibrant faith community.

The primary purpose for establishing an endowment is to help sustain the long-term financial stability of the church. Funds distributed from the earnings of the endowment can be used to offset a portion of the church's operational expenses or address the long-term spiritual and economic needs of its members.

Typical Uses of Endowment Funds

The funds distributed from the income stream of an endowment can be used to address a variety of operational or ministry-related needs.

Income from the Endowment Can Be Used To

Fund New Ministries & Mission Support

Program & Building Expansion

Debt Reduction

> The list is endless — and the larger the endowment, the larger the potential income that can be generated to help the church pursue its operational objectives.

Brookland Baptist Church
Legacy Endowment Plan

Funding the Endowment

The endowment can be funded in a variety of ways, including:

01	Cash or Check
02	Real Estate If considering a legacy donation of real estate to the church, Brookland's CFO and Governing Council will determine whether to accept the property and its fair market value for tax-related purposes.
