

When Women Pray: The Power of Praying Women

Lecturer: Rev. Dr. DeBorah E. White

Throughout history, women have stood strong at the forefront of monumental change, and it starts with women warriors kneeling in prayer¹. In a time when women carry more influence than any other generation, the power of prayer has never been more important. “When Women Pray” explores the impact of strategic and targeted prayer, revealing how strongholds are broken, circumstances are changed, healing occurs, and miracles happen. The power of earnest prayer birth visions restores broken hearts and deeply connects women in unity, fostering a sense of freedom and intentionality. Through strategic prayer, women align their hearts with God’s will. With a direct line to God available 24/7, women are empowered to pray boldly and intentionally, knowing their prayers can bring about strategic breakthroughs and lasting transformation.
