FROM OUR SENIOR PASTOR...

But the hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father is seeking such people to worship him.

John 4:23, ESV

Worship and missions go together, at least on this side of eternity. In John 4, Jesus took a mission trip to Samaria to rescue a woman caught in the cycle of adultery and divorce. He went out of his way to intentionally intersect and interrupt this woman's life. In part of his conversation with her, he said that the Father seeks true worshipers. Worshipers who have His spirit and His truth. Dr. John Piper is correct when he writes in the opening pages of his book, Let the Nations Be Glad:

"Missions is not the ultimate goal of the church. Worship is. Missions exists because worship doesn't. Worship is ultimate, not missions because God is ultimate, not man. When this age is over, and the countless millions of the redeemed fall on their faces before the throne of God, missions will be no more. It is a temporary necessity. But worship abides forever" (Let the Nations Be Glad! The Supremacy of God in Missions).

The more we grow in awareness of God's right to be glorified among the nations through our worship, the more we want to be a part of His mission in the world. The Father is seeking worshipers; therefore, we have a mission. Are you part of that mission? Are you thinking about one of the three missions we are planning this summer? You should be. Let God be the one to say, "No, not right now." You say, "Yes, Lord." We need your help for God to be glorified among the nations.
