Welcome

REFLECTION

Fr. Dennis was installed as pastor of St. Dominic Catholic Parish in October 2018, after serving for one year as parish administrator. His faith is based on the fact that we are all called to respond to God's love. He loves us first, and in that invitation is answered a desire that is deep within all of us.

Guests and Visitors

At St. Dominic Catholic Parish you will discover a welcoming group of people with a desire to seek Christ, know Christ, and become Christ, each one for the sake of all. We offer a place to belong, to worship, to grow, and to serve. We are excited to get to know you as you learn more about us. Please let us know how we can help!

New Members

We meet personally with all new members to provide a warm welcome, answer questions, fill out the necessary forms, and help you get connected. To join our parish family, please contact Molly Schmidt at 262.781.3480, Ext. 241 or molly.schmidt@stdominic.net. We look forward to meeting you!

Becoming Catholic

We are glad of your interest in learning more about the Catholic faith. For each person, the path to seeking, knowing, and becoming Christ is unique. The Church recognizes the importance of this journey. Please contact our Pastoral Associate, Mary Lestina, who will be happy to talk with you about the process at 262.781.3480, Ext. 228 or mary.lestina@stdominic.net.

He is Not Here

"He is not here, he has been raised" (Luke 24:6a). Of all the passages in the bible this is one of my two favorites, the other being the exchange between Jesus and the "good thief." "He is not here" is short, simple, direct . . . and life changing. It is both mysterious and awe inspiring at the same time. These words of Jesus' absence from the tomb are meant to comfort.

The first proclamation of the Risen Lord is especially consoling to me and I would venture to others who have lost a loved one. For me, she is not here is a recurrent reality that I still grieve over, even though it has been several years. This time of year, coinciding with the brief illness my wife suffered before her death, always brings me to a special place of attention. Some years, clouds and darkness reign and some years, warmth and sunlight permeate my thoughts. This year, as I pondered the paschal mystery, I stopped on, "He is not here." It is because He is not here that I can live in joy and hope this Easter season.

Jesus conquered death and, in doing this, opened a way for all who grieve, who have etched into their daily lives that he or she is not here, to experience a place of hope and joy. Because "He is not here," we can live in this world with a sense of destiny. We do not have to worry as to what will happen to us, what is to become of us. Easter is a time when everything both in heaven and on earth cries out with new life—a new life we have all been granted as children of God.

I don't know how the season of Lent has been for you but, from wherever you are coming, it is time to put aside anything that keeps you from rejoicing that He is not here. Step out into the bright morning sunlight and feel its warmth. It is a gift from God, that Jesus our savior and our Lord is not here...He has risen.

Discipleship

MISSIONARY DISCIPLESHIP

A Resurrection People

As disciples, we are considered an Easter people. What does that mean? It means that we embrace the joy and hope of the resurrection all the time not just on Easter. How do we embrace the joy every day? Through the practices of the Catholic Church's deep traditions that are rooted in prayer, fasting, and almsgiving beyond that of Lent. These practices are the works of mercy, the gifts of the Holy Spirit, the fruits of the Holy Spirit, and virtue. These practices, through the Holy Spirit whom Jesus left for us as an advocate, allow us to experience Easter all the time if we only allow it. "During the Easter season, we celebrate our belief that the Spirit of the risen Lord is right here, in the community of faith, giving us both the desire and the ability to share the Good News" (Living the Mass: How One Hour a Week Can Change Your Life, Fr. Dominic Grassi and Joe Paprocki, Loyola Press, 2011, p45)

There are articles circulating around lamenting that the largest religious category in the United States is the "nones." These are individuals who have rejected religious affiliation. It is of concern because "the rise of the 'nones' has resulted in not only lessened religious participation but also a decrease in civic engagement, with 'nones' being less likely to vote, do volunteer work, or have strong friend groups or community" (pewresearch.org, January 24, 2024). As a people of hope, how do we stem this epidemic? How do we turn the tide? A study done by the Center for Applied Research in the Apostolate at Georgetown University looked at the practices of parents who successfully raise children to be practicing Catholic adults. "The overall conclusion of the study was that children who grow up in a warm and affectionate home – spending time with their family in fun, prayer, and service to others – are more likely to remain Catholic as adults" (Raising Catholic Kids: New Study Suggests What Successful Parents Have In Common, Jonah McKeown, Catholic News Agency, February 7, 2024).

Family is the heart of society. This is not new information. It isn't surprising that in a culture where there is tremendous breakdown and threats to the family, that we should find ourselves in a situation like the one we are in. "Among households that were successful in fostering lasting faith, children understood their parents to be open to hearing and talking about the children's doubts and struggles when it came to faith – an environment where kids didn't feel like they would be lectured or scolded for having questions or struggles or doubts. If a question arose that the parents didn't have the answer to, they would pursue the answer together – authoritative without being authoritarian." Now this is not to point blame. This is not to make anyone feel guilty. This is not to assign a scapegoat for all the ills of our society. No, this is a call to examine our approach to living as disciples.

Faith begins in the home. Home and family can be many things. Sharing your faith with the next generation so that they see it as an authentic, living way of honoring the Lord who made us and died for us is critical. It isn't the priests job, although their role is very important. It isn't the parish staff's role, the Catholic school teacher's role, or the catechist's role, it is the parents role to demonstrate and live the importance of a relationship with God. It is not merely words but actions. It takes all of us doing our very best to be holy that inspires the next generation to strive to be holy. It is in striving to be holy that we can live with great joy. I know many people have been let down by a church that is run by people. I'm sorry for that. That doesn't need to be the end. There is the resurrection. There is something after. There is life after.

If not you, who? If not now, when?

If you have been away from Jesus for awhile and wish to come back, please contact Jill Fischer, Director of Discipleship and Formation, at jill.fischer@stdominic.net or 262.781.3480, Ext. 252. She's here to listen and help.

GOING DEEPER

Today's Gospel Reading

Take a moment to sit with today's Gospel: John 20:1-9. Allow the Spirit to work in you, with you, and through you.

As Peter and John ran to the tomb, they arrived only to find it empty, yet they were filled with hope even though they did not understand everything. Jesus is the reason for hope in our lives even when we do not understand. We can wait with joyful hope because we know and trust that Jesus will bring life out of death, light out of darkness. What is the joyful hope you have this Easter?

After everything John witnessed, he still had room to believe and grow in his discipleship. How can you continue to grow in your discipleship?

What fear, wonder, and awe must have filled the hearts and minds of Mary Magdalene, Peter, and John! Do you possess that same fear, wonder, and awe upon imagining this moment?

Healing the Whole Person

Healing the Whole Person is a time to learn how to better understand and receive Christ's healing and peace in the heart of the Catholic Church. For anyone who has lived with anxiety, depression, anger, addiction, illness, or a pattern of sin they can't seem to break, it can be difficult to imagine a life of freedom and peace. Participants in Healing the Whole Person will come to understand the wounds at the root of their struggles and how to bring those wounds to the Lord to receive the insight, healing, and freedom He wishes to give, especially through the sacraments and prayer. Grounded in Church teaching, you'll engage in the topics of "Facing our Brokenness," "Encountering the Father's Love," and "Living in Freedom." Learn more at <https://www.archmil.org/HWP/Conference>

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Venerable Francis-Xavier Nguyễn Văn Thuận

Venerable Francis-Xavier Nguyễn Văn Thuận, (1928 –2002) was born in Vietnam. When Saigon fell to the North Vietnamese Army, Francis-Xavier was arrested for his faith and connections. For the next 13 years, he endured immense hardships in captivity, including nine years of solitary confinement.

Throughout his imprisonment, Francis-Xavier's devotion to Jesus sustained him. Denied access to the Mass and to the Sacraments, he secretly celebrated Mass while confined with whatever resources he could find. While imprisoned, he became known for his joyful spirit, sharing hope and encouragement with fellow prisoners, and writing powerful faith reflections on scraps of paper. He was released from prison in 1988. In 1994, Pope John Paul II appointed him as the president of the Pontifical Council for Justice and Peace, recognizing his dedication to promoting peace, reconciliation, and social justice.

EASTER 2024

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who in his great mercy gave us a new birth to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

– 1 Peter: 1:3

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Grace and peace be to you in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ!

As we enter this joyous season of Easter, I am filled with gratitude for the many blessings we have received from God throughout this year. Easter is a time of renewal and hope, a time when we celebrate the victory of life over death, light over darkness, and love over sin. No doubt, we've all experienced moments of sadness and grief, yet with the Lord's grace, we've carried on.

As we celebrate the resurrection of our Lord, I encourage you to reflect closely on the significance of this great feast. Easter is not simply a historical event that took place more than 2000 years ago; it is a reality that continues to shape our lives today. Through his death and resurrection, Jesus conquered sin and death, opening the way to eternal life for all who believe in him.

This Easter, let us renew our faith in the risen Christ and recommit ourselves to living as his disciples. Embrace the message of hope and salvation that he proclaimed and make a commitment to share it with others. May we all strive to love one another as he has loved us, showing compassion, mercy, and forgiveness to all.

I pray that the joy of Easter fills your hearts and homes, bringing renewed hope, peace, and love. May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

With prayers for a blessed Easter,

+ Jerome E. Listeki
