Welcome

REFLECTION

Adult Minister, Claire Ziolkowski, can honestly say that her life changed drastically once she met Jesus, and that her relationship with Him has impacted every single day since. It is out of that joyful transformation that she ministers. Her deepest hope is to invite those she meets into that same relationship with Christ.

Guests and Visitors

At St. Dominic Catholic Parish you will discover a welcoming group of people with a desire to seek Christ, know Christ, and become Christ, each one for the sake of all. We offer a place to belong, to worship, to grow, and to serve. We are excited to get to know you as you learn more about us. Please let us know how we can help!

New Members

We meet personally with all new members to provide a warm welcome, answer questions, fill out the necessary forms, and help you get connected. To join our parish family, please contact Molly Schmidt at 262.781.3480, Ext. 241 or molly.schmidt@stdominic.net. We look forward to meeting you!

Becoming Catholic

We are glad of your interest in learning more about the Catholic faith. For each person, the path to seeking, knowing, and becoming Christ is unique. The Church recognizes the importance of this journey. Please contact our Pastoral Associate, Mary Lestina, who will be happy to talk with you about the process at 262.781.3480, Ext. 228 or mary.lestina@stdominic.net.

The Joy of Easter

How is your Easter going? Are you still celebrating the joy of this season?

Sometimes I think we, as a Catholic church, don't put enough emphasis on the Easter season. The same is true of the Christmas season. We put so much emphasis on the preparation, the repentance, the waiting of the purple seasons. We fill our calendars to the brim with ways to engage Lent, to dive in and dig deep. And then the Day comes – Easter, Christmas – and it's over and wrapped up like a wedding day. No more programming. No diving in or digging deep together. Just life as usual, as if nothing happened. As if nothing changed. As if we hadn't changed.

That's not the way it is supposed to be, right? Lent is not more important than Easter. But the way we engage the two would suggest that it is. We only "do" Lent for the purpose of "doing" Easter better. We practice repentance to allow our hearts and spirits to more fully embrace the fullness of Easter...that is all seven weeks of it. Easter is almost twice as long as Lent. So why do we treat it like it is a single day?

It is the fifth week of the Easter season, but I invite you, challenge you even, to look at how well you are celebrating – or not celebrating – the Resurrection. You have a few more weeks to go. What is something you can do to reignite the joy of Easter and celebrate Christ's victory over sin and death? What were the practices you took up for Lent? How have you seen a change in yourself through those practices? How can you carry that transformation forward throughout the Easter season and beyond?

MISSIONARY DISCIPLESHIP

Practicing Catholics

I recently heard that there is no such thing as a “cradle Catholic;” meaning you were surrounded by a Catholic culture your whole life, but you really didn’t become a Catholic until you decided to become a Catholic. Even then, you may not have decided, but someone decided for you. Stop and think; when did you decide to become a Catholic? When did you make the conscious decision to give your life to Jesus, not just in words, but in the core of your being that emanates out into every facet of your life? This is what it means to live The Way. The constant striving to turn your life over to Jesus. To make Him, the center of your existence.

“As we go forth from Mass to glorify the Lord with our lives, we can carry out our mission effectively if we rely on the following habits or virtues. These virtues take time and effort to develop but through practice, they can become a natural part of our lives. By focusing on these responsibilities and the manner in which we carry them out, we can commit ourselves to being “practicing Catholics” not only on Sunday but always” (Living the Mass: How one hour a week can change your life, Grassi and Paprocki, Loyola Press, 2011, p.171). If you consider yourself a “practicing Catholic,” are you practicing these virtues?

Faith: makes us able to trust God completely and to accept all that God has revealed and taught

Hope: the desire for all the good things God has planned for us

Charity: love God above all things and our neighbors as ourselves

Prudence: helps us to decide what is good and then choose to do it

Justice: leads us to respect the rights of others and to give them what is rightfully theirs

Fortitude: the courage to do what is right, even when it is very difficult

Temperance: helps us balance what we want with what we need (self-control)

If you have claimed Jesus as your own, and you are practicing your Catholicism, you should be experiencing ongoing change, known as conversion. This is what living The Way produces, a change “not measured by how much time we spend in the church building or on the parish grounds. Nor is the change necessarily related to our daily activities. The change is more about doing things for a new and different reason, with a new and different approach, and from a new and different source” (p.174). “God’s will is our salvation. When Jesus says that ‘the kingdom of God has come near,’ he is telling us that salvation is all around us. The Eucharist opens our eyes to the reality of salvation above us, below us, in front of us, behind us, and all around us. As baptized followers of Jesus, we commit ourselves to revealing this reality to others. This takes practice. Daily practice. That’s what it means to be practicing Catholics” (p. 178).

GOING DEEPER

Today's Gospel Reading

Take a moment to sit with today's Gospel: John 15:1-8. Allow the Spirit to work in you, with you, and through you.

Why does Jesus say He is the true vine and why does he say, "Remain in me?" What does that look like? What's Jesus's role and what's ours?

What does it mean to bear fruit and how does it prove we are His disciples?

Without God we can do nothing, but with God we can do anything. What in your life are you trying to do without God? How can you begin to work with God in each aspect of your life?

Having a close relationship with Jesus through prayer is critical to remaining on the vine. Evaluate your prayer life. Are you only asking on behalf of others or are you asking for yourself? Are you asking for things of the world or for things of heaven? Are you then listening and watching for how the Lord responds?

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Teresa of Jesus

As a youth, St. Teresa of Jesus (1900-1920) read a biography of St. Thérèse of Lisieux that inspired her to grow in her faith and choose a religious vocation.

At the age of 19, she began her novitiate with the Carmelites and took the name "Teresa of Jesus." She was drawn to the Carmelites because she enjoyed the simple life offered in the convent, and the companionship of the other sisters living and serving Jesus alongside her. She also found joy in her proximity to the Blessed Sacrament.

During her short time with the Carmelites before her death, she wrote many letters which she considered her apostolate. Her writings frequently focused on her experiences of and thoughts on living a fulfilling spiritual life.

After a particularly violent attack of typhus, she was permitted to take her vows and received her last rites, dying just three months before her twentieth birthday. ©LPi

New Catholics OCIA 2024

Evelyn: My name is Evelyn Loy-Grimm and I am seventh grader at Pilgrim Park Middle School. I have two older brothers. My oldest brother Aidan was baptized into the Church on Easter Vigil 2023. I was very overwhelmed and anxious on Easter Vigil. My family was there and my grandpa was my sponsor. I was afraid I was going to mess up. I was very blessed to have so many people supporting me – a wonderful religion teacher, Karissa and Mary to help me. Baptism felt comforting and warm. Confirmation made me feel that the Holy Spirit would be with me from now on to give me strength. My First Holy Communion made me realize how amazing it was to receive Jesus. Jesus is with me always and I will always remember this very special day.

Grace: I am so thankful to have completed this season of formation in my faith. Through the past several years, the Lord has poured into me through the Holy Catholic Church. I am beyond excited to have received the sacraments of baptism and confirmation, and look forward to receiving the sacrament of marriage this summer! Thank you to those who walked with me in this journey, and who continue to support me in me walk with Christ.

Jennifer: I have been attending St. Dominic for many years with my family. I am joyful to take this next step in my faith journey in completing the RCIA process. My faith has always been an important part of my life and my family, and taking this step feels right and St. Dominic has always been welcoming. I look forward to being an active member in St. Dominic's community.

Cole: My name is Cole Parker and the confirmation process has meant a lot to me in many ways. I have been married to my beautiful wife, Rachelle, for 4 years. I have attended Mass with her at St. Dominic consistently and we plan to start a family. I want the Catholic faith to be the foundation in all that we do and allow it to help guide our relationship. I was seeking a deeper understanding and connection with God. I am in law enforcement and my job is very difficult. This process has provided comfort and understanding of God's plan for me. Words cannot express my gratitude. Yesterday was one of the best days of my life.

Adam: I am a Marine Corps Infantry Veteran and currently serve as a Police Officer for the City of Hartford. Confirmation is extremely important to me because it will bring me strength in continuing to serve as a Police Officer, as well as enhancing my faith and strengthening my relationship with Christ.

Aly: I'm excited to join the Catholic faith so I can worship more fully with my husband, Mike. I was raised a Lutheran and active in church music throughout most of my life, and look forward to getting involved with music at St. Dominic. The RCIA process has given me a greater understanding of Catholic traditions and values, which has helped me reflect upon my relationship with Christ. Mike and I moved to Brookfield in 2022, where we enjoy spending time outside with our dog and visiting local restaurants and performances.

Josh: My family and I have been coming to St. Dominic for almost eight years now. After our kids turned three we decided to tour the school. Mrs. Fischer blew us away! I noticed that the students seemed so happy to be in school, which was so incredible to me. We didn't tour any other school as we knew this was the school for our children. Even though I was not Catholic I felt something so special when we toured St. Dominic, but I didn't know how to describe it. It took me another 6 years and multiple coincidences to finally understand the feelings I had when we first toured the school. God was calling me. I couldn't be happier to finally become Catholic and a full member of the St Dominic family.
