Welcome

REFLECTION

Jill Fischer has been involved with Catholic education her whole life. As our director of discipleship and formation, she looks forward to helping all our members grow in relationship with Jesus every day. After all, we are called to be the hands of Jesus in the world and you can only do that by knowing Him.

Guests and Visitors

At St. Dominic Catholic Parish you will discover a welcoming group of people with a desire to seek Christ, know Christ, and become Christ, each one for the sake of all. We offer a place to belong, to worship, to grow, and to serve. We are excited to get to know you as you learn more about us. Please let us know how we can help!

New Members

We meet personally with all new members to provide a warm welcome, answer questions, fill out the necessary forms, and help you get connected. To join our parish family, please contact Molly Schmidt at 262.781.3480, Ext. 241 or molly.schmidt@stdominic.net. We look forward to meeting you!

Becoming Catholic

We are glad of your interest in learning more about the Catholic faith. For each person, the path to seeking, knowing, and becoming Christ is unique. The Church recognizes the importance of this journey. Please contact our Pastoral Associate, Mary Lestina, who will be happy to talk with you about the process at 262.781.3480, Ext. 228 or mary.lestina@stdominic.net.

Choices. Did you ever stop to think about the weight of that? Everything we do, except for our most basic biological functioning, requires choices. Do you ever wish, just once, you didn't have to make choices? There are actually terms such as "choice overload" and "decision making fatigue" that speaks to the mental toll that one can experience because we have to make so many choices every single day. Ugh!

However, in reading today's Gospel, we learn that there is one choice we don't have to make. "It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain..." (Jn 15: 16). I don't have to make the choice of whether to belong to God. I only have to choose whether to remain with God. You and I are already His. Whew!

As I ponder this, I start thinking about that fear inducing, anxiety riddled experience of being selected by my peers to play on the team in gym class. Honestly, I hated when teams needed to be made by my peers for any situation. I can't recall ever being selected as captain. (Actually, I never wanted to be captain.) I know I was never selected first. I recall my selection being somewhere down near the bottom of the pack. I was a chubby kid, not athletic but not uncoordinated by any means. I could run, jump, catch, throw, but I was average. This process was the worst of all judgements. It is as if The Chosen Ones were screaming "You are not good enough." Judge or be judged. So when God speaks today that He has already chosen me for His team without needing me to do anything, I question, "How can that be?" I am already on the team simply because He made me. All I need to do is show up and do the thing our team does. Play the game.

What game are we playing? Discipleship! The rules? To go and bear fruit that will remain. This is a game I can get behind because it requires no real skill set except all that I have come to know, appreciate, and love about God. I don't have to choose anything except how much effort I want to put into playing. It would be prudent of me to put in a lot of effort as the stakes are really high. While there is no trophy for participating, there is an ultimate prize – eternal life with Him. The best part, in my opinion, is that my winning has nothing to do with anyone else on the team. It is just about me playing the game to the best of my ability knowing that my ability is given to me by God. It is all between me and God. God knows if I am playing the game to the best of my ability or not. He is coach, line judge, and cheerleader because He wants me to succeed in playing the game.

MISSIONARY DISCIPLESHIP

7 Virtues of Discipleship

For over a year, St. Dominic has been advocating that all members participate in The Way—a Jesus-centered life. The only way to confront a God-less culture is to infuse God back into it in a public, normal, and magnetic way. To steal some language from a new publication from Evangelical Catholic, "a Jesus-led life is the surest path to the fulfillment of our hearts deepest longings" (The 10:10 Challenge: 10 Weeks, 10 Ways to a Jesus Led Life, 2024, p1). When others see what you have as a disciple, they will want it. It will be up to you to show them how to get it.

Discipleship means hearing and answering Jesus's call, resounding through the ages and found in every human heart, "Come, follow me.." It means choosing to learn from Jesus his way and his truth so that he might become our life. It means entering a lifelong journey with a decisive direction and an infinite horizon. This journey begins at Baptism, culminates in heaven, and in the in-between we discover, sometimes little by little, our deepest identity, our inestimable worth, and our highest calling – to become love as he is love." (p. 1)

If you are determined to bring God back into the world, live your love for Him without hesitation – truly live the language of the Mass to "go forth." The Discipleship Commission invites you to build those skills through The Way Workshops being held before the 4:30 PM Mass on Saturday, May 18 or between the 9:00 and 11:00 Masses on Sunday, May 19. A flyer is in today's bulletin. Being a practicing Catholic isn't solely defined by attendance at Mass on Sunday. We are to practice our faith out in the world by living the cardinal and theological virtues.

Faith: Faith makes us able to trust God completely and to accept all that God has revealed and taught us.

Hope: Hope is the desire for all the good things God has planned for us.

Charity: Charity leads us to love God above all things and our neighbors as ourselves. Charity brings all the virtues together in perfect harmony.

Prudence: Prudence helps us to decide what is good and then choose to do it.

Justice: Justice leads us to respect the rights of others and to give them what is rightfully theirs. The just person considers the needs of others and always tries to be fair.

Fortitude: Fortitude is the courage to do what is right, even when it is very difficult.

Temperance: Temperance helps us balance what we want with what we need. It helps us moderate our desires for enjoyment and builds self-control.

These 7 habits of highly successful disciples are challenging. Need help? Contact Jill Fischer, she is there to listen and guide at jill.fischer@stdominic.net or 262.781.3480, Ext. 252.

EACH ONE FOR THE SAKE OF ALL

Communion to the Homebound

One of the beautiful ministries in the church is visiting homebound members of our parish family and bringing them Communion. We are working closely with our school and formation students who wish to reach out to our homebound members with cards and homemade gifts. In order to help support this ministry and its ministers we are asking the following:

1. Are you bringing Communion to a family member, friend or neighbor? If so, we need to add them to our list as recipients. Please contact Mary Lestina with their information.
2. Do you have a PYX? If so, we are asking all those with a PYX to use a burse (leather pouch for the PYX hung around your neck). The traditional practice of carrying it in a burse close to one's heart is both practical and respectful. You can obtain a burse from Mary Lestina.
3. Have you had your PYX purified in the past few months? If not, please contact Mary Lestina to have it purified.
4. Do you know someone who is need of having Communion brought to them?

A homebound ministry training session will be held on Monday, May 13, at 6:30 PM in the Marcy Center for all those interested in bringing communion to the homebound. All who are bringing communion are invited to this session for updates.

Contact Mary Lestina at mary.lestina@stdominic.net or 262.781.3480, Ext. 225

Earth Day Activities

On Saturday, April 20, a crew of 30+ volunteers descended upon our grounds armed with wheelbarrows, pitch forks, rakes, chain saws, and trailers to spread 39 yards of mulch on the north east side of campus, trim and/or remove trees that had died or were damaged by winter storms, and provide a general clean-up. Future plans are in place for other areas, Watch to see how we continue to beautify our campus. A shout-out to all who worked safely and quickly on a Saturday morning.

Special thanks to American Landscape (americanlandscape.com) Shea Hughes, parishioner, for donating the mulch and to The Irish Gardener (goirishgardener.com) Jim Ward, parishioner for renting a chipper and sharing his expertise in using it. We were pleased to hear that new friendships were formed while many hands completed much work.

GOING DEEPER

Today's Gospel Reading

Take a moment to sit with today's Gospel: John 15:9-17. Allow the Spirit to work in you, with you, and through you.

This passage mentions "love" nine times. How have you experienced the love of God?

The love of the Father is tremendous for the Son. How does it make you feel to know that you are loved this much as well?

"It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you..." Even when we do not chose the Lord, He still chooses us. How have you chosen the things of this world over God?

What does Jesus mean by "remain" which He mentions 11 times in all of John 15? Other translations say "abide" instead of "remain." How does that help us understand what He's trying to tell us?

How are we called to imitate Jesus' love for those around us? Think of one specific person in need of God's love. How can you love them like Jesus this week?

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Cyril of Jerusalem

St. Cyril of Jerusalem (c.315-386) was ordained a priest by the bishop of Jerusalem. He went on to serve as a catechist for those newly baptized in his congregations. The writings he produced during the early years of his priesthood have gone on to help give the modern Church a clear example of how the Church of the East did things during those first few centuries of Christianity. They included teachings on the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist, prerequisites for Baptism, the Eucharistic liturgy, and more.

During the fourth century, Cyril was ordained Bishop of Jerusalem. He was accused by his contemporaries of Arianism. (not believing in the divinity of Christ.) He was ultimately acquitted of the accusations. St. Cyril and a bishop named Gregory, who would become St. Gregory, attended the Council of Constantinople, where the Nicene Creed was officially adopted.

He was named as a Doctor of the Church in 1822. ©LPi

The Vincentian Calling

St. Dominic Conference

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

In the Gospel today, Jesus says to us, "This is my commandment: love one another as I have loved you.....You are my friends if you do what I command you."

By your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you fulfill this commandment.

We are currently working with a young single man needing rent assistance. He is a recovering alcoholic living in an apartment that is run by a state licensed organization to offer support as he transitions back to living in the community. We also helped with small needs like vouchers for clothing, furniture, and bus passes.

Our conference is part of the Waukesha Council. We participate in many programs that are run by the council.

One of our upcoming programs is the Summer Lunch Program. Each conference takes one week during the summer where we purchase supplies, make lunches, and serve them at La Casa de Esperanza during their summer school program or one of the parks in the Parks, Recreation, and Forestry's Park Program in Waukesha.

The Waukesha Council also works to develop programs that can help conferences find resources and collaborate to help people. The Waukesha Council is currently starting a Housing Initiative to investigate ways we can help as an organization to understand the best ways to help our patrons find affordable housing.

The Council also offers training to help members for their formation as Vincentians.

Feel free to join us at one of our meetings if you would like to learn more. We meet the first and third Monday of the month at 7:00 PM in Marcy Center 6.

Is there a family or individual you know who needs assistance? Please have them contact the St. Dominic Conference of St. Vincent de Paul at: 262.781.3480 EXT. 600. All information provided is treated confidentially, and the privacy of those we serve is always protected.

Interested in joining us in our mission? Contact Cat Boerschinger at 262.873.0492 or email svdp.stdominic@outlook.com for more information.

Together, we "become Christ" for others.
