REFLECTION

The vibrancy of St. Dominic parishioners, along with the opportunity to help navigate economic challenges facing all Catholic parishes is what drew Vivian Roe to our parish family. She believes the future of all Catholic parishes depends upon sowing seeds of discipleship and stewardship.

Something is Happening

Every Pentecost Sunday the most compelling of the three readings for me is Acts 2:1-11. These slow-to-get-it, doubtful, and frightened Apostles received the Holy Spirit as tongues of fire and became Courageous. Something Happened.

The Apostles had one native language when they left the upper room to speak to the crowds who were from many nations with different languages, but everyone who heard the Apostles understood each word that was proclaimed.

Something Happened.

Lately in America, doesn't it feel like we're speaking a foreign language to more and more of our neighbors? Doesn't it feel like in the era of more diverse ways to communicate, our communication with each other is breaking down and failing?

Changing definitions for generations-old established words and totally invented new words are leading to divisions. People talk while simultaneously scrolling social media, which means that attention is divided and leads to misunderstandings. Our families, neighborhoods, communities, and country has lost the ability to talk civilly with those we don't agree with. We can all name people in our lives who no longer speak to each other, and we are increasingly divided.

We could spend hours dissecting and theorizing the "why's." We could point to politics, social issues, media, and technology. Pointing fingers and straining to pinpoint the exact event or time that it fell apart and place blame is a waste.

This is not that complicated. America is no longer a Christendom. And we Christians often stay silent rather than proclaim Christ's message of repentance, redemption, forgiveness, and love.

The antidote to Anger and Hate is Forgiveness and Love. Jesus proved this as He died for our sins on the cross. We who are followers of Christ must speak as we are able and trust that the Holy Spirit will give us the words that allow others to hear. We who are followers of Christ, when faced with a debate about some divisive topic, must talk about Christ and proclaim His message. It begins with talking with those closest to us. We must find courage to Cross the Great Divide. ("Cross" reference intended).

What happened in Jerusalem on that first Pentecost was a miracle; born of the Holy Spirit to bring the Resurrection and Truth of Jesus Christ to the world.

NOTICES

Election of Parish Trustee (First Notice)

The Charter of St. Dominic Catholic Parish states that our congregation will have two trustees serving as officers of the parish to assist in attending to its affairs. Kathy Hoffman serves as the Trustee-Treasurer and Joe King as the Trustee-Secretary. I am very grateful for the help Kathy and Joe have given me over the past year.

Kathy's current term ends on June 30, 2024. As Pastor, I am asked to present a qualified candidate to the parish. With her permission, I am nominating Kathy for an additional two-year term as Trustee-Treasurer.

The parish charter allows any practicing, baptized, and confirmed member of the parish, who is at least 25 years old, to place their name in nomination. This must be done in writing and be accompanied by signatures of at least 10 practicing adult parish members. Nominations must be received in the Parish Center by June 11, 2024.

Please contact me if you have any questions about the responsibilities, expectations, schedules, or time commitment of this vital role as Trustee.

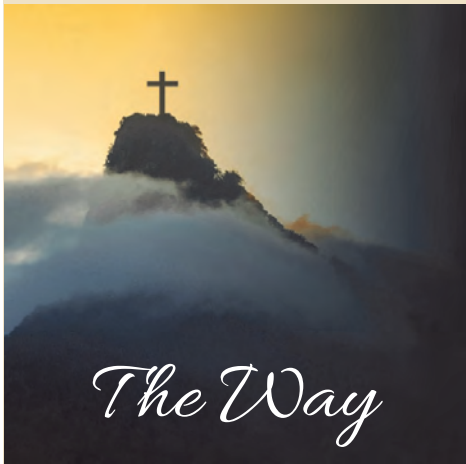

Thank you, ~Fr. Dennis Saran

MISSIONARY DISCIPLESHIP

Why Are You Here?

Why are you here? I don't mean why are you sitting in this pew or reading this bulletin, although that is a good question, but why are you on this planet? What is your purpose? Have you determined what that is through prayer and discernment?

I was recently reading a book entitled, "If You Want to Walk on Water, You've Got to Get Out of the Boat," by John Ortberg. In it, an entire chapter is dedicated to discerning the call. A person's calling, and discerning that calling, is an awareness of precisely what God put you on this Earth to accomplish for His sake. Your calling answers the question of why you are here. To discern the will of the Father means spending time in prayer and contemplation in regard to the decisions you make for your life and for those important to you. There is an innate understanding that making decisions in this manner means that you are not in control, but that God is in control, and you want Him to be. Ultimately, "It is using one's endowed giftedness to serve the world with excellence and, through that service, to love and honor God" (Walk on Water, p.58).

You have a purpose – a design that is central to God's dream for the human race. We are, first of all, according to Scripture, called to know God, to receive his love and mercy, and to be his children. We are called to live in the reality of his kingdom and to have Christ formed in us. (p.58)

As a crucial part of your calling, you were given certain gifts, talents, longings, and desires. To identify these with clarity, to develop them with skill, and to use them joyfully and humbly to serve God and his creation, is central to why you are created. (p.58)

Discerning a calling requires one of the greatest challenges of self-exploration and judgement a human being can undertake. Callings are usually not easy to discover. You will have to be ruthlessly honest about your gifts and your limitations. You will have to be willing to ask hard questions and live with the answers. Discerning God's calling will take many attempts and failures. You will have to be willing to let some dreams die a painful death. You did not arrive on this planet with your calling pre-clarified and your gifts pre-developed. You arrived with a little warning: some assembly required (p.59). A calling is something you discover, not something you choose (p. 60).

God chose us and not the other way around. His ways are not the ways of the world. God equips the worker and assigns the work. As you explore your role in the missionary field. what is your role? Why are you here? Start taking it to prayer, asking God, "Lord, what is it you would like me to do for you today?" Then listen. He will answer you.

Need help listening? Jill Fischer is here to help. Please contact her at jill.fischer@stdominic.net or at 262.781.3480, Ext. 252.

Sowing the Seeds of Generosity

From the first months of serving as Director of Finance, you, our St. Dominic parishioners, have impressed me by your extraordinary generosity and commitment to our parish family. I sincerely thank you! It makes my job easier knowing that we never need to compromise on our mission or vision due to lack of funding.

Simultaneously, I see that society as a whole has become a little less charitable as personal budgets are feeling the pinch of inflation and some true economic challenges.

It's so important to sow seeds of generosity and charitable giving for younger generations. Years ago, a mentor advised me that anytime I worry about money I should increase the amount I give to charities. "God replenishes the well when you're the one giving others a drink." For 30+ years I've seen that replenishment in action in my own life and in parish life. Thank you for all you give and for sowing the seeds of generosity in others.

-Vivian Roe, Director of Finance

Homebound Letters and Cards

Please consider writing a letter or card to our homebound members. We are asking that an outpouring of love surround those of our parish family who are confined to home or a medical facility.

Please include in your letter/card your name, address, and a little bit about you and/or your family. Share your concern and prayers for them. Often times they will respond to the writer with gratitude for being "remembered." Cards and letters will be distributed to each individual or couple in early July.

Bring your cards and letters on June 29/30. Thank you!

GOING DEEPER

Today's Gospel Reading

Take a moment to sit with today's Gospel: John 20:19-23. Allow the Spirit to work in you, with you, and through you.

When they are sent out, Jesus's disciples become apostles. Do you consider yourself a disciple (a follower and student of Jesus) or an apostle (one who is sent out to carry on the mission of Christ)? Or do you consider yourself both? Why or why not?

When Jesus appears to the eleven, the doors are locked out of fear. What are the locked doors in your heart where you hide from Jesus? What would it take to open those doors for Him?

Once the disciples received the gift of the Holy Spirit, they received courage to live their faith out in the open. How can you call on the Holy Spirit in your life to help you in times of fear, when living your faith openly may be frightening? Why do you think the first thing that Jesus says is, "Peace be with you?"

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Gregory VII (c.1015-1085) was born in Italy. He grew up in a devout Catholic family and his uncle, Laurentius, was abbot of a monastery in Rome.

As a young man, he became close with Pope Leo IX. After Pope Leo IX's death, he became a leading figure in the papal court of the next few popes.

Shortly after the death of Pope Alexander II, he was quickly ordained a priest and raised to the papacy. He chose the name Gregory VII in honor of the first Pope Gregory whose writings heavily influenced him. During his time as pope, Gregory VII worked hard to reform the Church he so loved.

At the time, the Church was facing corruption. People in leadership were selling sacred offices and sacramentals, some clergy were unlawfully marrying, and kings and nobles, were controlling the appointment of Church officials. Pope Gregory VII fiercely resisted these corruptions. Saint Pope Gregory VII, pray for us! ©LPi

DOMINIC DAYS!

WE ARE LOOKING FOR SOME NEW FACES AND FRESH IDEAS!

Join us for a Festival Committee
“Meet and Greet!”

Thursday, May 30 | 6:00-9:00 PM
Social Haus

N48W18474 Lisbon Rd, Menomonee Falls

- Come for a beer or beverage of your choice
- Rub elbows with some of the festival committee members
- Learn what we do and in what areas help is needed
- Ask questions
- See if being on the festival team might be something you want to try
- Shadow one of us during the festival to get an up close look at what it's like

All are welcome to join us whatever your level of experience. We know you have a vested interest in the continued success of our parish and our Dominic Days festival. While it may seem daunting, we find ways to make a little extra time in our schedules, because we truly enjoy what we do and working alongside all the other volunteers. Serving on the committee is also a great way to meet other parish families and establish new friendships.

We would love to meet and talk with you. Don't worry, there is no commitment and absolutely no obligation.

Thank you for your consideration!
