Welcome

REFLECTION

Adult Minister, Claire Ziolkowski, can honestly say that her life changed drastically once she met Jesus, and that her relationship with Him has impacted every single day since. It is out of that joyful transformation that she ministers. Her deepest hope is to invite those she meets into that same relationship with Christ.

Guests and Visitors

At St. Dominic Catholic Parish you will discover a welcoming group of people with a desire to seek Christ, know Christ, and become Christ, each one for the sake of all. We offer a place to belong, to worship, to grow, and to serve. We are excited to get to know you as you learn more about us. Please let us know how we can help!

New Members

We meet personally with all new members to provide a warm welcome, answer questions, fill out the necessary forms, and help you get connected. To join our parish family, please contact Molly Schmidt at 262.781.3480, Ext. 241 or molly.schmidt@stdominic.net. We look forward to meeting you!

Becoming Catholic

We are glad of your interest in learning more about the Catholic faith. For each person, the path to seeking, knowing, and becoming Christ is unique. The Church recognizes the importance of this journey. Please contact our Pastoral Associate, Mary Lestina, who will be happy to talk with you about the process at 262.781.3480, Ext. 228 or mary.lestina@stdominic.net.

The Authentic Jesus

Today's Gospel is about the people who know Jesus the most, the people he grew up around, rejecting Him. He didn't fit the image they had of Him from His youth, so they couldn't accept Him as He really is—the Son of God, here to preach and teach them about God. They were offended by what he had to say.

I find this such an interesting Gospel for the weekend of the 4th of July. Is the above not true of our current political climate? Everyone is offended by Jesus, or at least the authentic Jesus found in the Scriptures. We all have these little false Jesus' we've created in our minds that fit our political ideologies. And we get really offended and astonished when presented with Gospel passages or Church teachings where Jesus contradicts the idea we have of Him in our mind. Both sides of the political spectrum agree with some of Jesus' teachings and reject others.

Which is actually very fitting because Jesus says himself, in the Gospels, that he did not come to fit into the existing paradigm, but to upend it, to be above it all, to flip it on its head and restore His own order—God's order.

So today, on this 4th of July weekend, as we celebrate our amazing country with an eye to the upcoming presidential elections, let us all take a moment to reflect on which Jesus we are worshipping – the Republican Jesus, the Democratic Jesus, or the authentic Jesus of the Scriptures. And let us once again commit to daily reading of the Gospels so we might come to know more closely who Jesus authentically is from the source itself. Only then can we truly make this country as great as we desire it to be.

Our Lady of the Immaculate Conception, patroness of the United States of America, pray for us.

Interior Freedom

July 24, 2024 | 6:30 PM | School Resource Center

(Please enter at the main school entrance doors.)

All adults are invited to join in the discussion of the book "Interior Freedom," by Jacques Philippe. Please read the book prior to attending.

About the Book: Each person has deep inside a place of freedom that no external power can take away, because God himself is its source. A person wins inner freedom to the extent that he connects to its source – God himself – by practicing the virtues of faith, hope, and charity. These theological virtues are the center of the spiritual life. As the basis for interior growth, they become the source of the glorious freedom of the children of God.

Please contact Claire Ziolkowski with any questions at 262.781.3480, Ext. 253 or claire.ziolkowski@stdominic.net.

MISSIONARY DISCIPLESHIP

Mercy

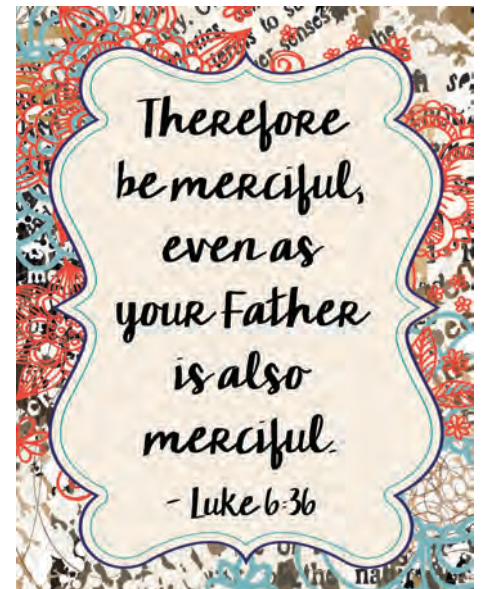

As Christ's disciples, we must all be constantly recommitting ourselves to having courage to confront the challenges we face as a minority group in the world. We see, and should see, the world differently, as we are not of this world. We are of God. I came across an invigorating passage in the book "Beautiful Mercy" by the team at Dynamic Catholic. On page 15, Pope Francis shares these words as part of the introduction:

The Spouse of Christ must pattern her behavior after the Son of God who went out to everyone without exception. In the present day, as the Church is charged with the task of the new evangelization, the theme of mercy needs to be proposed again and again with new enthusiasm and renewed pastoral action. It is absolutely essential for the Church and for the credibility of her message that she herself live and testify to mercy. Her language and her gestures must transmit mercy, so as to touch the hearts of all people and inspire them once more to find the road that leads to the Father.

The Church's first truth is the love of Christ. The Church makes herself a servant of this love and mediates it to all people: a love that forgives and expresses itself in the gift of oneself. Consequently, wherever the Church is present, the mercy of the Father must be evident. In our parishes, communities, associations, and movements, in a word, wherever there are Christians, everyone should find an oasis of mercy.

Let's be clear: "we," you and me, are the Spouse of Christ. "We" are also the Church. With that in mind, how does this excerpt resonate with you? Take a moment to evaluate your discipleship against this passage. Living a life centered on Christ, results in a life tailored to meeting the demands of our spousal responsibilities. If not you, who? If not now, when? What is holding you back from being the full spouse of Christ?

"God didn't call me to be successful. God called me to be faithful."

– St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta

GOING DEEPER

Today's Gospel Reading

Take a moment to sit with today's Gospel: Mark 6:1-6. Allow the Spirit to work in you, with you, and through you.

Why do you suppose Jesus was unable to perform any mighty deeds in his hometown of Nazareth?

Do you define Jesus according to your own terms? What would it look like to get to know the Jesus of the Bible, not the Jesus in your head?

Today's passage challenges us as it relays a story of rejection of Jesus by his kin. This is a situation that many of us can relate to: rejection. How might knowing that Jesus can relate to you bring solace in those situations?

Why did the people reject Jesus? (There are a few answers, so ponder this one.) Have you ever pushed Jesus away because of something He's said in the Gospels or something the Church teaches? How is Jesus inviting you to grow in faith?

MIDDLE SCHOOL: LOVE BEGINS HERE

Seven of our middle school students were blessed to attend the Love Begins Here Mission Week in Mequon. They served parishioners from the parish, went swimming, attended Mass and spent time with Our Lord in Adoration. Please keep our young people in prayer as they continue to grow in their relationship with Christ!

"I think that the Love Begins Here trip was an incredible experience. I learned what it really means to serve others and why it is important. The trip was a great way for me to strengthen my faith and to understand the importance of prayer. It was an amazing opportunity to make new friends as well. I would highly recommend the Love Begins Here trip!" ~ Etienne Justin (Grade 7)

"I really liked Love Begins Here because of how we were able to serve others and connect with people. This experience truly allowed me to be myself, and grow my relationship with God. I saw God in some way, shape, or form in everyone that was there. The one that stuck out to me the most though was when our group was outside working together, and helping one another out. It was a truly incredible experience that I would suggest to anyone if they want to grow as a human being, and as a Catholic." ~Aiden Armstrong (Grade 8)

"I love that LBH helped me see God in ways I never thought. From the people we met to the weeds that we pulled, I saw him in it all. People might think that LBH just consists of service to the community and work all day but there is also good food, fun games and pool visits everyday too. LBH was a fun, faith-filled experience that helped me see God in my day to day life. I am thankful for the opportunity that LBH provided for me. ~Amelia Liesemeyer (Grade 7)
