REFLECTION

The Cost of a Burrito

By Father John Muir

Once at an evening Mass as a poor college student, the collection basket was fast approaching and I only had a ten-dollar bill. I was planning on using that to buy my favorite Chipotle burrito that night for dinner. Should I keep the money? Who would know if I did? If I gave it away, what would I eat? Would I be okay? I kissed my future burrito goodbye, dropped the money in the basket, and winced. But strangely, during the rest of the Mass I felt more engaged than usual. I had skin in the game. I left the Mass excited to see how God would take care of me. And he did, in amazing ways.

When the poor widow places two copper coins in the temple treasury, Jesus doesn't pity her. He praises her. He blesses her. He brags about her. He celebrates her as the temple's largest benefactor. Her giving is an act of radical, concrete trust in God. It is as if she is entering a new level of giving that excites Jesus, because she contributes not out of her abundance, but she gives "everything she had."

What a challenge this is to each one of us! How easy it is to ignore this! But imagine the eruption of the energy of faith, hope, and love that would be unlocked if our financial sacrifices to the Church actually tapped into daily bread and not only our disposable income. This coming week, I challenge us to try this in some way and see what happens in our hearts. Even if it costs us a burrito. ©LPi

MISSIONARY DISCIPLESHIP

Go to Joseph!

How much do you know about St. Joseph? We are focusing on St. Joseph as a model of discipleship, and encouraging everyone to “Go to Joseph!” We can often neglect St. Joseph as a role model because in Scripture, he is quiet and unassuming. However, we do know a few things that serve as a wonderful example of how we can also be true and faithful followers.

The litany of St. Joseph provides tremendous insight into the character of St. Joseph. Within the litany various titles for St. Joseph are given and each one gives insight into who he is for us:

Renowned offspring of David,
Light of Patriarchs,
Spouse of the Mother of God,
Chaste guardian of the Virgin,
Foster-father of the Son of God,
Diligent protector of Christ,
Head of the Holy Family,
Joseph most just,
Joseph most chaste,
Joseph most prudent,
Joseph most strong,
Joseph most obedient,
Joseph most faithful,
Mirror of patience,
Lover of poverty,
Model of artisans,
Glory of home life,
Guardian of virgins,
Pillar of families,
Solace of the wretched,
Hope of the sick,
Patron of the dying,
Terror of demons,
Protector of Holy Church

St. Joseph is many things. What he is not is an old, disinterested, background player. He is actively engaged with his family, our family. If Jesus and the Blessed Virgin were able to turn to him with confidence for their every humanly need, so too might we. Go to Joseph!

Do you want to learn more about St. Joseph? The possibility exists through a small group opportunity. Please scan the QR code to learn more or contact Jill Fischer at 262.781.3480, Ext. 252 or jill.fischer@stdominic.net.

The Laboure Society & Alexandra Buchmayer

Every year, thousands of priestly and religious vocations are unable to answer God's call due to outstanding student loans. The Laboure Society, a Catholic 501 c(3) nonprofit was founded to help deliver the next generation of future priests, sisters and brothers. This weekend, Alexandra Buchmayer will share her vocation story at all Masses. If you are interested to learn more, please visit LaboureSociety.org or contact Alexandra at alexandra@rescue vocations.org or 949.616.9068.

THANK YOU

Sharing our Blessings

Our parish is truly blessed with a spirit of generosity. Each day we witness our members' dedication and joy in making sacrifices for the sake of God and others. Generosity is not only measured in terms of our treasure, but also in the offering of our God-given time and talents.

Through your financial support of our parish, you pass on the faith to our children, share in the joy of weddings and baptisms, comfort the sick, console the grieving, and support others in need. Financial giving is one way for each of us to grow in holiness.

Around Campus

GOING DEEPER

Today's Gospel Reading

Take a moment to sit with today's Gospel: Mark 12:38-44. Allow the Spirit to work in you, with you, and through you.

The widow gave all that she had. She surrendered her life to Jesus, trusting that in giving she would receive all that she needed. Do you trust the Lord with your whole life? Are we willing to give even when it hurts? Are you holding onto the world and the security it offers, or are you holding onto Jesus and the eternal life that He offers?

What are you holding onto, afraid to give to him? Why are you afraid?

How does a detachment from goods and an adherence to God lead to blessedness? Do you find yourself contributing from your surplus or from your first fruits? What does Jesus say is the preferred?

What does authentic discipleship look like?

SCHOOL & SAFETY & SECURITY

Campus Updates

Updates are a continuation from last week.

THANK YOU for your patience and providing the funds to beautify our grounds, improve our environment, and keep us safe.

School Entrance was re-landscaped by American Landscape. This main entrance used by guests, perspective families, and staff is now more inviting. (Funded from a bequest.)

Flagpole landscaping was completed as part of an Eagle Scout (Logan Wambach) project. This makes the entrance to the PAAC more inviting.

Certified Playground chips (110 yards) installed by Natural Solutions to keep our kiddos safe. (Operating Budget)

Middle school classrooms received new countertops and sinks, and had cabinets refinished. This is the third of four phases addressing the aged facility. The early childhood wing is scheduled for next summer. (Long-term Capital Fund)

Floor coating in six main restrooms, the foyer near the drop off doors, and the foyer in the middle school entrance to cover dated and deteriorating tile. (Long-term Capital Fund)

Three new Interactive Flat Panel Displays were installed, bringing the total to nine. These are replacing the Smart Boards on a planned schedule. (Knights Move and Technology Fund.)

School HVAC received some well-deserved maintenance and upgrades allowing better control of the classroom temperatures. (Love One Another Capital Campaign)

Church HVAC. Replaced four condensers for air conditioning, new air handler system to provide better and more efficient air flow, connected the newer, high efficiency boilers located in the school to the air handler to replace four furnaces. Updated software to control the system. (Love One Another Capital Campaign)

Safety and Security

External school doors received safety film coating to mitigate forced entry.

Additional cameras placed in the school hallways allow the monitoring of any nefarious activity.

Existing cameras (internal and external) upgraded to the newest technology.

Several doors received electronic access control to limit access. The access fobs replaced with a more secure version.

All external entrances on campus have electronic access. This allows us to identify the fob used to access the buildings. No external keys are distributed.

New LED parking lot lights installed and programmed. Lights are one of the best deterrents available, and LED lights reduce electricity costs

All of the above safety and security projects are funded by a FEMA grant.

Please direct any comments or questions to Michael Ricci michael.ricci@stdominic.net.

Emmaus 90

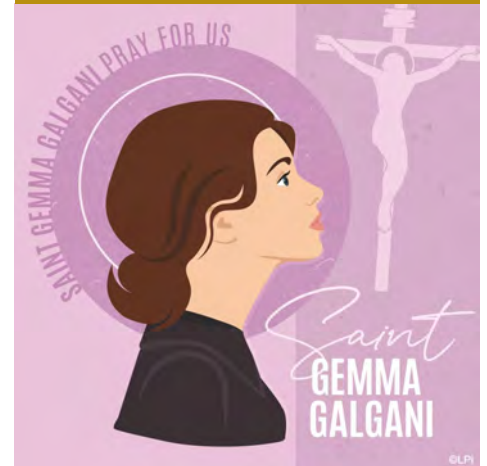

This New Year, experience how Jesus draws near to you, speaks to you through Scripture, is with you always in the Eucharist, and equips you to join his mission to bring new life to the world, through Emmaus 90.

See how your life is transformed when you set aside a little time each day: Time for God, Time for Connection, and Time for Excellence.

Commit to the adventure.

We know. Commitments can be tricky. "Is this too much?" "Will I fall short?" "Do I have what it takes?" It's not going to go 100% according to plan. You're not going to do everything perfectly. But God will bless your daily striving, and you will see your faith grow. We encourage you to be generous with your life for 90 days. God is never outdone in generosity. He is calling you to greatness and will give you all that you need. Registration for Emmaus 90 is required. Register by December 10 to receive your Guidebook Journal by Christmas. Get the details and register at archmil.org/emmaus-90

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Gemma Galgani (1878-1903) was born in Tuscany. After her mother's death, Gemma was educated by Sisters of St. Zita at a day school.

In 1897, Gemma's father died, leaving his children destitute. Taken in by relatives, the orphan fell seriously ill. She suffered a curvature of the spine, was paralyzed, and struck deaf. She had large abscesses on her head and her hair fell off. On her deathbed, she received a vision of St. Gabriel of the Sorrowful Mother who promised to pray a novena to the Sacred Heart with her. Miraculously, when the novena ended, she was cured.

Gemma lived an intense prayer life. She experienced ecstasies and was reported to levitate. In 1899, Gemma received the holy stigmata. Each Thursday evening, the marks of the wounds of Christ would appear, disappearing on Friday or Saturday. She is called the "Daughter of the Passion" because of her deep union with Christ's Passion. In January 1903, Gemma contracted tuberculosis and died in April of that year. ©LPI

LABOURÉ
HELP RESCUE VOCATIONS®

"My name is Alexandra Buchlmayer. I am called to strive for perfection in God's love by living in His Divine Presence as a nun with the Passionist Nuns of St. Joseph Monastery."

Dear Parishioners,

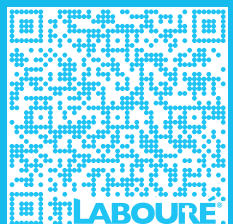

It is my joy to share with you that I have discerned a vocation to be a nun with the Passionist Nuns of St. Joseph Monastery. I am thankful to have the opportunity to invite you all with me on this journey towards entering the next chapter of my life with Christ.

As a next step towards formation with the Passionist Nuns of St. Joseph Monastery, we have partnered with the Labouré Society, a Catholic non-profit 501(c)(3), to help overcome the obstacle of student loan debt by December 31. I'm thankful for the support of Fr. Dennis Saran and the St. Dominic Catholic Parish staff in this work. I humbly ask for your prayers and support as my Labouré classmates and I work towards entering the next stage of formation.

If you would like to know more about my vocation journey and my work with the Labouré Society, I would love to speak with you individually. Please don't hesitate to reach out to me via email: Alexandra@rescuevocations.org or by phone: (949) 616-9068.

YOU CAN SUPPORT MY VOCATION VIA:
rescuevocations.org/aspirant/Alexandra-Buchlmayer

The Catholic Church desperately needs new vocations. You can help!

It's critical for the sake of our children, grandchildren, and future generations that we help rescue Catholic vocations in peril of being lost.

You have the power to end the vocation crisis!

We can't afford to have virtuous, on-fire-for-the-Lord candidates lose the opportunity to enter formation simply due to the burden of student loan debt which religious orders and dioceses are unable to absorb.

Labouré has helped hundreds of aspiring Catholic sisters, priests, and brothers to remove the barrier of student loan debt so they can proceed with formation!

Do you want more sisters, priests, and brothers?

Please prayerfully consider supporting Alexandra's calling to join the Passionist Nuns of St. Joseph Monastery, where she will dedicate her life to strive for perfection in God's love by living in His Divine Presence.

With your help, she can resolve her student loan debt and proceed with formation in 6-18 months rather than 6-18 years!

PLEASE SUPPORT ALEXANDRA'S VOCATION:
