Welcome

REFLECTION

Ms. Brita Willis believes it is of utmost importance to nurture and support the spiritual growth of children, which is central to the mission of a Catholic school. As our school principal, she embraces her role of continuing to build and strengthen St. Dominic as an environment where children feel welcomed and encouraged to develop their faith and take it with them as their foundation in life.

Guests and Visitors

At St. Dominic Catholic Parish you will discover a welcoming group of people with a desire to seek Christ, know Christ, and become Christ, each one for the sake of all. We offer a place to belong, to worship, to grow, and to serve. We are excited to get to know you as you learn more about us. Please let us know how we can help!

New Members

We meet personally with all new members to provide a warm welcome, answer questions, fill out the necessary forms, and help you get connected. To join our parish family, please contact Molly Schmidt at 262.781.3480, Ext. 241 or molly.schmidt@stdominic.net. We look forward to meeting you!

Becoming Catholic

We are glad of your interest in learning more about the Catholic faith. For each person, the path to seeking, knowing, and becoming Christ is unique. The Church recognizes the importance of this journey. Please contact our Pastoral Associate, Mary Lestina, who will be happy to talk with you about the process at 262.781.3480, Ext. 228 or mary.lestina@stdominic.net.

One of my favorite Thanksgiving traditions was always going to dinner at my grandma's house. In the corner of her dining room there was a wooden china cabinet, beautifully carved and holding a collection of colorful, decorative plates. These plates were special—used only for the most important occasions.

Every year, I would arrive at my grandma's house early, excited to help set the table. My first task was always to open the cabinet doors and admire the plates. Each one was unique, with vibrant colors and intricate designs. Some plates were delicate, with soft floral patterns in pinks and purples, while others featured angels with golden halos or paisley swirls in rich blues and greens. There were also plates with nature-inspired designs—trees, birds, and leaves that captured the beauty of the outdoors. The plates were also different sizes and each one reflected its own charm. I always looked forward to discovering which plate would be mine. I loved the idea of each plate holding my delicious Thanksgiving meal, but even more, it was about the tradition, the beauty, and the mystery of which plate would grace my spot at the table.

What made the tradition even more special was my grandma's secret touch. Before dinner, she would sneak into the dining room and place a name card beneath each plate. No one knew whose name would be under their plate until we were all seated.

After we said our prayer, it was time for the big reveal. "Now, look beneath your plate," grandma would say, her voice full of warmth. We'd lift the plates, and there it was—a name, neatly written on a small card. The name on the card was always a surprise, and it was always meaningful. Before we ate, we would go around the table, sharing something we loved or appreciated about the person whose name was beneath our plate. It could be a simple memory or a heartfelt compliment, but it always brought a smile and a sense of connection to everyone at the table.

This year, as Thanksgiving approached, I began thinking about this tradition in a different light. It made me reflect on our relationship with God. Just as my name was lovingly placed under my plate, I realized that God has our names always beneath His "plate"—the plate of His love. God created us, and He loves us deeply. That love never changes, no matter the season or the year. This holiday season, I am choosing to reflect on how much God truly loves me, and I am eager to understand just a little bit more of that unending love.

ADVENT OPPORTUNITIES

Sitting at the Feet of Jesus

Sat. December 14 | 8:00 AM-12:00 PM

Women are invited to take a break from the craze of holiday preparations and be refreshed this Advent. Meet Jesus, find peace, make friends, and be inspired. The morning will include a light breakfast, thought-provoking speakers, time for prayer, and opportunities for adoration and confession. RSVP by December 6 by scanning the QR code above.

Tuesday Time Out

December 3 | 6:15-7:30 PM | PAAC

Meditate with St. Joseph. We know very little about St. Joseph from his words in Scripture, but we know a lot by his actions. Come spend some time learning about this very important father-figure in the life of Jesus.

Shelter Seeking Booklets

If you happened to have missed our Advent Reflection Night on November 25 or 26 and would love to do the Shelter Seeking Novena this Advent, please pick up a booklet and supplies in the South Narthex after Masses this weekend or at the Parish Center. They are available while supplies last.

NEWS

Congratulations!

On Saturday, November 16, parishioner Scott Zarling was instituted into the Ministry of Acolyte by Bishop Schuermam at St. Francis de Sales Seminary. Please pray for Scott and all the men in priestly formation. Photo: Scott receiving the paten with bread to signify service to the altar.

MISSIONARY DISCIPLESHIP

Pursue Holiness

When you were a kid, what did you think it meant to be an adult? To get married? Have kids? Buy a house? Build a career? And once you did all those things, then what? Get promotions? Help your kids get into college? And once those are or were complete, what next? Once your kids are in college and out of the house, how will you define your life? After you retire, what then?

I think the way we have come to define our lives—by these worldly, societal values—has created in many of us a reoccurring identity crisis. We set our eyes on these goals and find life's meaning in accomplishing them, make our entire identities about them, and once we meet them, then what? Who am I now that I've met all the goals and checked all the boxes of adulthood? Who am I now that I'm retired? Who am I now that my kids don't really need me anymore? Oh...but grandkids!

You see, the problem isn't that these goals are bad. No, family, job, house, are all wonderful and important parts of life, but they are ultimately NOT what define us as humans. Our life is not meant to be defined by the things that we do. It was defined for us before we were even born: "Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you" (Jeremiah 1:5).

I'd like to propose the idea that we, as a society, are setting our goals too low. We are looking to the things of this world to define us and give life meaning instead of the things of God. And as a result, we are experiencing a tremendous identity crisis.

We were made to be saints. Every single one of us. Pope Francis tells us "The Lord wants us to be saints and not to settle for a bland and mediocre existence" (Gaudete et exsultate, 1). The Catechism of the Catholic Church goes on to say: "All Christians in any state or walk of life are called to the fullness of Christian life...All are called to holiness" (CCC, 2013).

THIS is the ultimate goal for all humans: to be holy, to be saints. That is our true identity. And the makeup of our life – our family, our careers, etc. – are part of that journey to holiness. But they aren't all of it. You, (insert your name here), are meant to be a saint.

Don't worry. As I take over the discipleship column for the month of December, we will continue to unpack what this means together. But for now, I really want you to sit with this idea.

If we set our goals too low, we throw ourselves into listlessness and crisis. Stop selling yourself short. You were made for more. You were made to be a Saint!

Until next week . . .

Advent Giving Tree

Join our parish family in caring for those in need this Christmas season!

In the spirit of Christmas, we want to bless others through our Advent Giving Tree by helping organizations provide for their clients in need. Giving Tree Tags are in the narthexes. Choose a tag, shop, and attach the colored tag firmly to the unwrapped gift.

Gift return dates are next weekend, December 7/8 ONLY.

Please do not drop off gifts before these dates. Any gifts received after noon on December 8 will not be forwarded to the organization.

For your convenience we will offer a drive-up drop-off on Saturday, December 7, from 9:00 AM –12:00 PM at the north church parking lot, door 16N.

Thank you for your generosity!

CHRISTMAS MEAL

Christmas Meal for the Homebound and Needy

Most of us are fortunate to have family and friends to share the holiday with. But there are many individuals in our area who are either homebound, alone, or just having a hard time making ends meet.

On Christmas Day, St. William Parish will be delivering FREE Christmas meals to anyone in the Waukesha County area who may be in this situation. Meals are also available to be picked up between 11:00 AM and 1:15 PM at St. William Parish.

If you, or someone you know, is in this situation, please contact Marcia Slowinski at 262.798.1520 to arrange a meal. Requests will be received through Friday, December 13.

THANK YOU

Sharing our Blessings

Our parish is truly blessed with a spirit of generosity. Each day we witness our members' dedication and joy in making sacrifices for the sake of God and others. Generosity is not only measured in terms of our treasure, but also in the offering of our God-given time and talents.

Through your financial support of our parish, you pass on the faith to our children, share in the joy of weddings and baptisms, comfort the sick, console the grieving, and support others in need. Financial giving is one way for each of us to grow in holiness.

We have partnered with Vanco Payment Solutions to offer you eGiving options. Give anywhere, anytime!

GOING DEEPER

Today's Gospel Reading

Take a moment to sit with today's Gospel: Luke 21:25-28,34-36. Allow the Spirit to work in you, with you, and through you.

"Advent" means "coming." During this season, we prepare for Christ's coming at Christmas and His "Second Coming—the time He promised He would return to earth and this world would end. Today's Gospel gives us some tips and warnings on how to prepare.

The end of days sure sounds like what is happening now! How are you being vigilant even though we really don't know the day and time of Christ's second coming?

Today's gospel offers us an examination of conscience; it provides an examination of our lives. Take a moment and sit with today's gospel to evaluate where you are in your relationship with Christ. What do you need to do more of? What do you need to do less of? What must you completely change in order to be ready?

CHILD FORMATION

Formation Classes

Children in our first grade and third grade formation classes have been hard at work diving into prayer and their studies while also having fun.

Please keep our students who are preparing for the first reconciliation in your prayers as they work formally at home and in their classrooms, talking about God's love and forgiveness and the importance of the sacrament.

After classes this week on December 1, 2, and 3, we will be taking a break until the New Year! May your Advent be filled with hope, peace, joy, and love.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD

Children's Liturgy of the Word

Children in grades 1-4 are invited to participate in Children's Liturgy of the Word. No registration is required, just a willingness to be respectful. Offered on Sundays during the 9:00 AM Mass. Upcoming dates are December 8, 15, 22.

The Love of God that Transforms Our Lives in the Darkness

December 3 | 6:30 –8:00 PM | St. Joe's Tosa

Dr. Patrick Russell will help us understand the Gospel of Luke from which the gospel readings for Advent are taken and which is the featured Gospel for the new liturgical year beginning December 1, 2024. Group discussions on how this understanding can help our Advent preparations for Christmas will follow the presentation.

Dr. Russell is a Professor of New Testament at Sacred Heart Seminary and School of Theology and a former adult minister at St. Dominic.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Blessed Chiara Badano (1971-1990) was born in Italy. As a young child she was gifted with a sense of charity beyond her years.

At age 9 she became a member of Focolare, a lay movement aimed at spreading the message of unity across the world from Jesus' prayer in John 17:21, "May they all be one." Being part of Focolare was central to Chiara's life. She was inspired by the message of Jesus Forsaken, the crucified Christ, proclaimed by the movement founder, Servant of God Chiara Lubich. The two Chiara's carried on a correspondence. Badano's faith was so full of joy that Lubich gave her a new nickname, "Chiara Luce," meaning "clear light."

Chiara Luce was an ordinary teenager, but at 17, she was diagnosed with bone cancer. In just a year she could no longer walk. Throughout her illness she offered her suffering to Christ. Even at the end of her life she refused morphine so that she could be alert enough to share the pain with Jesus. She is the first member of Generation X to be Beatified. .
